THE PARISH AS ONE BODY

*"If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be?
If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be?
But as it is, God placed the parts, each one of them, in the body as he intended...
The eye cannot say to the hand, 'I do not need you,' nor again the head to the feet, 'I do not need you.'
Indeed, the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are all the more necessary.
Now you are Christ's body, and individually parts of it."* (1 Cor. 12:17-25)

The Seven Essential Elements of Parish Life constantly interrelate, each nurturing and supporting the other with the communal celebration of Sunday Eucharist at the center.

One of the highlights of my pilgrimage to the Holy Land was a saunter down the road leading to Jerusalem that tradition tells us Jesus used at the time of his triumphal entrance on Palm Sunday. No doubt it was a bitter sweet moment in Jesus' life seeing the palm-waving crowd and knowing that this revelry would be short-lived as the days of his Passion were fast approaching. This Sunday, Palm Sunday or as it is also called, Sunday of the Lord's Passion reminds us as we take our palm in hand and then give it a place of honor in our homes until next Ash Wednesday that we are challenged to honor our Lord not only at this time but all through the year.

Sometimes our church and others throughout the Catholic World are packed with worshippers on Palm Sunday. This applies to Easter Sunday as well! There is something attractive or mystical or maybe magical about getting a cut of palm to take home after Mass. As if a palm branch is a token or premium or reward for coming to Mass on this Sunday before Easter. Hopefully, this year will be different and we will experience as a parish family a spiritual swelling manifested in more faithful attendance, generous support, and continued outreach to the poor and needy in our parish and Fullerton community. If we can do all these good works, we will see a growth in spirit and numbers all through the year.

Congratulations to Pat Riehl and the new officers of the Order of Secular Servants of Mary, St Juliana of the Eucharist Community. Pat is Prioress, followed by Assistant Prior-Dave Lazaro, Treasurer-Shirley Halpin, and Secretary-Kathy Murphy. If you would like more information about how to become a member of the Secular Order of Servites you may email Pat at rriehl@sbcglobal.net.

If you were unable to attend our Lenten Communal Reconciliation Service last Friday, I encourage you to celebrate the Sacrament some time during the Easter season. Penitents find examination of conscience confessional aids helpful when preparing to receive this sacrament. Recently, I discovered a short self-examination which centers on the power of words. The author, Patti Maguire Armstrong, writing in the periodical, Shalom Tidings writes about ways that our words get us into trouble: 1) Detraction-repeating something true without a good reason (Sirach 21); 2) Racial jokes that encourage hatred or sexual jokes which use impunity for entertainment (Ephesians 5:3-4); 3) Calumny-talking about someone's faults. "Do not judge, and you will not be judged; and do not condemn, and you will not be condemned..." (Luke 6:37); 4) Sarcasm-a way to put others down and disguise it as humor; 5) Arguing-speaking nasty or using biting remarks; 6) Criticizing-constant complaining and scolding to vent rather than a desire to help another out of love (Proverbs 21:9); 7) Breaking Confidences-“Don't tell anyone else, but...” (Proverbs 11:13); Listening to the words of others can be wrong-“An evildoer listens to wicked lips; a liar pays attention to a destructive tongue” (Proverbs 17:4).

“God gave us the gift of speech. We use it to praise and glorify Him. Our words can evangelize and lift others up in spirit. But talking can also be empty, frivolous, gossipy, and a waste of time. It can take time away from out family, prayer, or tasks which we should be tending to.”

Dr. Gregory Popcak director of the Pastoral Solutions Institute which offers Catholic telephone counseling for couples, individuals and families asks the question: “What does it take to create a Catholic home?” He suggests the following: A truly Catholic home must be a home where the mother and father work hard to love and serve each other, to put the other's needs first, to organize their priorities with time for family connection at the top of the list. It must be a home where parents do not just love their children the way their neighbors do, but love them extravagantly, as God loves them, with generous affection, loving conversation, and ample time to hear their stories, comfort them in their sorrows, celebrate their little successes. A Catholic home must be a home where children are taught how to give back all the love they receive by being respectful to their parents, by saying “please” and “thank you” and “Can I help?” and “Ok, Mom” and “I love you too” by being generous and thoughtful to their siblings; by cheerfully playing each other's games, and taking turns, letting their sister ride shotgun, or their brother go first and by being good servants to the people they meet in the world--their extended family, teachers, and friends.

Holy Week begins this Monday. Thursday, Friday and Saturday are the days this week known collectively as the Sacred Triduum. The Catholic Source Book edited by Father Peter Klein of Harcourt Religious Publishers describes the Triduum in this way: “The ancient Great Three Days, to which all leads and from which all flows, celebrate the heart of Christian faith: Jesus' redemptive death and resurrection. Related to the church year as Sunday is related to each week, the Triduum begins with the evening Mass of the Lord's Supper, continues through Good Friday and Holy Saturday, culminates in the Easter Vigil, and concludes with Evening Prayer of Easter Sunday.”

The first day of the Triduum, the Christian Passover is from Holy Thursday sunset until Good Friday sunset; it is the day of Jesus' death, and has been likened to the sixth day of creation, when God formed us from the clay and breath. It includes the liturgies of “The Evening Mass of the Lord's Supper,” and “The Celebration of the Lord's Passion.” The second day of the Triduum, from Good Friday sunset until Holy Saturday sunset, is the Paschal Sabbath, the day of rest. In burial, the Lord rested, and we rest in him. The third day of the Triduum, beginning Holy Saturday at sunset, is the great surprise, the Easter surprise. This third day begins with the holiest night of the year, the vigil of Easter, leading into the day of days, the queen of feasts.

On Good Friday the collection taken during the service is in support of Christians in the Holy Land. I never paid much attention to this collection until this year when I saw firsthand how Christians and the holy places are in need of financial support. The Franciscan friars have been the caretakers of most of the Christian sites since St. Francis of Assisi brought the friars there in the 13th Century. Over the years Christian sites have been preserved, fought over, decimated, rebuilt, and cautiously guarded and preserved. Christians are a minority and often without property and health care. More information about this may be found at www.MyFranciscan.org.

In the Joy of Our Faith,
Fr. Frank Falco, O.S.M.
Pastor

SECOND COLLECTION INFO

April 12/13 St. Juliana Parish School

Our parish will support Christians in the Holy Land through the Good Friday Collection. This is a pontifical collection, which is done annually on Good Friday, offering parishioners the opportunity to help protect the Holy Land and Christians living there. During Lent and Easter, our hearts, minds and prayers are especially aware of the special place the Holy Land has in salvation history. Help keep Christianity alive there by helping us serve the people who live there. Give generously to the Good Friday Holy Land Collection.

GOOD FRIDAY—FAST AND ABSTINENCE

To abstain from meat on Good Friday means to not eat meat. It does not intend the omission of eggs or dairy products.

The required fast on Good Friday involves eating only one full meal on those days. One or two smaller meals may be taken on those days, but may not total one full meal. The required fast does not allow eating anything between meals.

All Catholics who have completed their fourteenth year are bound by the law of abstinence; all adults are bound by the law of fast up to the beginning of their sixtieth year.

CATHOLICISM 101

Palm Sunday commemorates the triumphal entrance of Christ into Jerusalem (Matthew 21:1-9), when palm branches were placed in His path, before His arrest on Holy Thursday and His Crucifixion on Good Friday. It thus marks the beginning of Holy Week, the final week of Lent, and the week in which Christians celebrate the mystery of their salvation through Christ's Death and His Resurrection on Easter Sunday. Beginning in the fourth century in Jerusalem, Palm Sunday was marked by a procession of the faithful carrying palm branches, representing the Jews who celebrated Christ's entrance into Jerusalem. In the early centuries, the procession began on the Mount of the Ascension and proceeded to the Church of the Holy Cross.

“GOTB” NOTE FROM BARBARA DIETTERLE

A BIG THANK YOU to all who supported our 2014 Get on the Bus event!

I especially thank Barbara Johnson, my co-chair from the First Congregational Church of Fullerton, who also brought on board Rev. Sara McCurdy from Morningside Presbyterian and Donna Woodbridge from First Christian Church of Fullerton. Barbara also got assistance from Suzanne Darweesh and Marti Schrank.

Again, my thanks to all the St. Juliana’s committee members: Jo-Anne Matsuba, Gail & Jim Besaw, Jan Fontes, Barbara Kelley, Jennifer Powell, Debbie Berry, Teresa Raridan.

We also thank all the many hard working volunteers who assisted with the dinner! We could not have done this without you!

The March 29th dinner set-up, serving, and clean up included adults, Newman Club members led by Jessica Berry, Gino Valderrama & Fr. Aaron Riomales, HSYM and JHYM teens—all who contributed greatly to the success of our fundraiser.

We were blessed to have the cooking talents of Jon Sanders and the musical talent of Ron Kobayashi, both members of the Congregational Church, who brought in their exceptional teams.

The decorations, centerpieces, and auction baskets presented a beautiful atmosphere for the attendees to share friendship, delicious food, great jazz music, and give generously to the GET on the BUS project.

The decorations, centerpieces, and auction baskets presented a beautiful atmosphere for the attendees to share friendship, delicious food, great jazz music, and give generously to the GET on the BUS project.

We were all moved by the GOTB slideshow and especially the sharing by Karen and Norma to connect us with the value of children visiting their mothers or fathers incarcerated in CA prisons.

The success of our fundraiser will support several buses going to prisons in May, June and July.

If you have any questions, want to donate money or your time to GOTB, please contact me, Barbara Dietterle at 714-525-2208.

An Excerpt from Matthew Kelly’s “The Four Signs of a Dynamic Catholic”

THE THIRD SIGN – GENEOSITY

Dynamic Catholics are generous

“Dynamic Catholics are filled with a spirit of service and are generous stewards of their time, talent, and treasure.

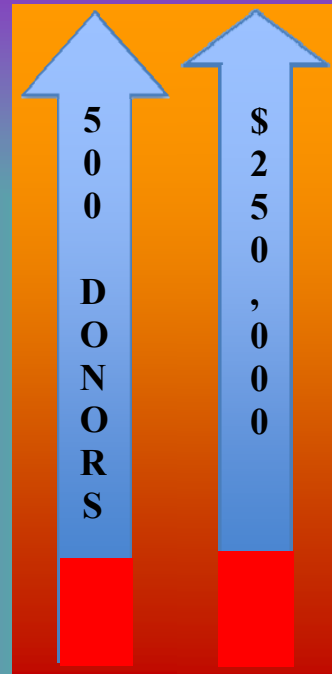

The 7% are universally described as generous, not just with money and time, but with their love, appreciation, praise, virtue, and encouragement. They see generosity as the heart of Christianity and the proof that the teachings of Christ have taken root in their lives.

The most fascinating thing that came out of the interviews in relation to the third sign is that Dynamic Catholics believe it starts with financial generosity. They describe love of money and attachment to the things of this world as a primary impediment to spiritual growth, and see this as something that everyone struggles with regardless of how much or how little we have.

Financially, Dynamic Catholics give several times more to their parish and other nonprofit organizations (as a percentage of their annual income) than their counterparts in the 93 percent.

But it is how comprehensively generosity is woven into their lives and the spontaneity with which they dispense it that was so inspiring to me. They are generous lovers, they are generous parents, they are generous with their colleagues at work, and they are generous with strangers who cross their path. They are generous with their virtue—generous with patience, kindness and compassion. Generosity is not a religious requirement for the 7%; it’s a way of life, a way of bringing the love of God to the world.”

NOTE FROM THE PRINCIPAL

Dear St. Juliana Parents and Parishioners,
 Spring is the time for awakening to new growth. Have you noticed how much your children have grown and changed since September? Easter signifies new growth as well – a time to grow in our faith and the realization that our choices are deeply affected by our relationship with Jesus.

Stations of the Cross throughout Lent, by various grades, have been very meaningful for the students and parents who attend. I want to thank the teachers and students for their outstanding and unique presentations.

On March 18-20, St. Juliana School was visited by members from Western Catholic Educational Association (WCEA) and Western Association of Schools and Colleges (WASC). These members spent three days reviewing our Self Study on Improving Student Learning, visiting classrooms, meeting with students, faculty, Fr. Frank and board members. According to the Visiting Committee report, they "observed that the culture of the school was truly Catholic in nature. The students modeled the Core Values, which is obviously a reflection of the school community. Teachers and other shareholders gave heart-felt testimony that was touching and demonstrated their deep commitment to the vision and long-term viability of the school. St. Juliana School is in a unique position to honor its past and embrace the change that will lead the school and most importantly, its students, to a faith-filled and academically sound future".

I would like to thank Ivon Mercado and Rebecca Conrad our Fish Fry co-chairs, as well as all the volunteers who make Fish Fry Fridays so enjoyable for our entire community. Your time and talents are very much appreciated.

We look to Easter as the time to celebrate the "Light of Christ" and His resurrection from the dead. During the Easter Vigil, new water, oils, and fire are blessed – new life. Jesus' resurrection signifies new beginnings and springtime for all. May we look for new beginnings after forty days of reflection and preparing for the new life that comes forth in us every spring – Jesus' love for us exemplified in the gift of His life. May your Easter be one of shared joys and celebration of the love our Savior has for us. Our thoughts and prayers are with all in our community who are experiencing hardship, illness or loss.

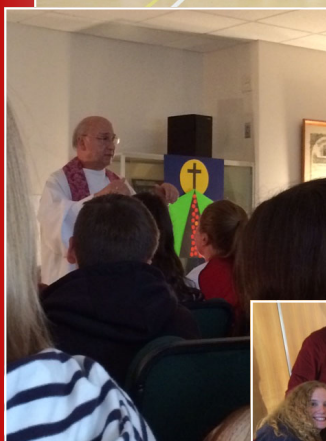

I wish God's blessings upon you and your families this Easter,

Mr. Manuel Gonzales Jr. M.A.
 Principal

"Walkers" needed!

Call the Parish Office at 714-879-1965 or go to the website at <http://hunger.cwsglobal.org/site> for details.

CROP WALK 2014

We're looking forward to another great Crop Hunger Walk on Sunday, April 27, 2014! It's our opportunity to raise awareness concerning hunger and food insecurity issues in our local community and around the world, and to help do something about it as a unified Fullerton area community. It is exciting to see multiple faith communities and organizations, young and old, come together to raise funds and awareness concerning some of the most pressing needs in our world today. Once again, 25% of all the funds raised through our local CROP Walk will stay right here in our community to help support the ongoing work of Pathways of Hope.

Mark your calendars to join us. St. Juliana has had a team of walkers for several years, and we have a great time, along with helping this wonderful cause. The walk begins at 1:00pm, and only takes about an hour. Watch the bulletin for more information, but mark your calendar...and call the Parish Office so we can get you signed up for our team! If you are interested in helping us in any way, please contact the Parish Office at (714) 879-1965. An initial planning meeting will be scheduled in the near future to discuss activities to be planned throughout 2015 for the Parish and the School. Committees need to form for this milestone event.

Are you one of the early founding families of this parish from the mid 1960's? We'd LOVE your input, pictures, memories...etc. Please call the Parish Office for details!
