VISION & MISSION STATEMENTS

The vision of St. Juliana Falconieri Catholic Community is to live as a people of God with Christ at the center of our lives through liturgy, faith formation and community.

Our mission is to be a welcoming family dedicated to proclaiming the gospel, celebrating the Sacraments, educating, serving, and providing opportunity for all to enrich their faith.

Order of Friar Servants of Mary United States of America Province

I FADERSHIP

THE PARISH AS ONE BODY

"If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be? If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be? But as it is, God placed the parts, each one of them, in the body as he intended... The eye cannot say to the hand, 'I do not need you,' nor again the head to the feet, 'I do not need you.' Indeed, the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are all the more necessary . Now you are Christ's body, and individually parts of it. "(1007.12:17-25)

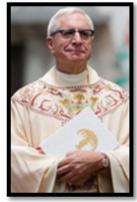

The Seven Essential Elements of Parish Life constantly interrelate, each nurturing and supporting the other with the communal celebration of Sunday Eucharist at the center.

A NOTE FROM FR. MIKE PONTARELLI, O.S.M. October 22, 2017

Ever since: "We try harder" – corporate jingles or as they are properly called, mission statements, have gotten my attention. Some are clever and I wish I would have thought of them: "I use Dial and I wish everyone would." Pretty clever, quite good. Not much to argue about. "Just Do It", dear Nike – that can be good, but it also becomes the source of a lot of trouble, even sin. Learn from Pinocchio: "Give a little whistle." Think before you do. The Daily Grill restaurant chain has a slogan and cap: "Think Daily" –

I used to wear it when I gave tests while teaching. Then I allowed the students to wear "thinking caps" during tests. I thought the practice was fun, the principal not so much. Kind of fun. No?

Then there are political slogans and shibboleths. Influencing thought, these often used catch phrases change attitudes, cause some people to expand their awareness, mottos inflame societies and have cause division and strife. Political campaign slogans have particular ringing tones: "I like Ike" "Nixon's the One". I'll stop before controversy brews. Vietnam era slogans, Peace era phrases, and Civil Rights words. Go there with caution even extreme caution. Avoid altogether.

Of current interest is: "I Stand for the Flag and I kneel for the Cross". The cross and the flag are important symbols.

Symbols are a leap different from signs. Signs merely point away from themselves to another distant reality – the Freeway 91 sign points to the freeway, in itself it is not the freeway. The barber pole indicates the proximity of a barber; it is not the barber shop. Signs can be taken away without emotion.

A symbol is a sensible reality that participates in what it represents. Symbols embody what they represent, they are sensible realities in themselves; people have emotional responses to symbols. A symbol has a life of its own and gives meaning to a group which is unified by its reality. Thus the flag is different from the barber pole. Symbols demand and command respect. Old Glory participates in our nation as it represents "life, liberty, the pursuit of happiness, the land of the free, and the home of the brave" the flag really is "My Country and our battles." I notice it to be different from other flags when I am in a foreign country. Air Force One – WOW – ever see it on a tarmac or fly over head? It's America My Homeland in Paris, London, or Rome. I get a fit of patriotism when I see Air Force One regardless of who the President is. A wedding ring is the symbol of the faithfulness and love Menotti and Lena have for each other. The Cross is the symbol for the presence of Christians; Jesus suffering which brought salvation. Christians are unified by the Cross. The Easter Candle's bright flame is the light that leads us over the waters of death to new life, it is Jesus' Resurrection. Try to create the realities of a Country, the Office of the President, a Marriage, the presence of a Christian, the Resurrection of Jesus in any other way is most difficult. Symbols are powerful realities. Symbols make us pause. Symbols make us say: "WOW isn't that just great?"

I Stand for the Flag and I kneel for the Cross. Consider the reality of the symbol of the Cross. Give the Cross the respect it deserves. Yes, do it!

Neither a sign nor symbol - The Holy Eucharist is the Real Presence of Our Savior. Symbols demand respect. The holy demands reverence. Give the Holy Eucharist present in our tabernacle the reverence it deserves. As respect for Flag and Cross are important topics today, don't forget the Holy Eucharist. The Eucharist in the tabernacle is front and center in St. Juliana Church; it is not in a side chapel. The Cross is front and center, not hidden behind a screen or loud speaker. The habit was to genuflect in the presence of the Holy Eucharist in a Roman Catholic Church. Give an act of reverence to the Holy Eucharist and Cross. It should influence church behavior. Just Do It!

We behave one way in an auditorium, stadium, or theater. We behave differently in a library. Different still is behavior in a hospital. Practice good church behavior.

We sing "Jingle Bells"," I Left My Heart in San Francisco", or "R-E-S-P-E-C-T" one way. The National Anthem is sung another way, take that hat off to give tribute to Our Great Country. Sing "All Creatures of Our God And King" "Holy God, Praise Thy Name" and other liturgical church songs so as to praise God, Jesus, Mary, and the saints. It's the way you practice what you believe.

I recall my Mom buying school clothes, play clothes, and church clothes. Man, oh man, I'm old. Remember dressing up for airplane travel, even in peasant class? Yikes! Really old!

"Have it your way" is not always the best practice; some actions are not subjective rather they are objective, clearly right and proper in themselves. Patriotism and religious belief are close relatives.

Stand for the Flag, Kneel for the Cross, Genuflect for the Blessed Sacrament, Praise God with song. Can you say: "I do these actions and I wish everyone would?" Respect for symbols and the holy is simply a matter of conversion; understanding what they represent and responding with proper behavior. It is what we do after we say: "We Believe."

One thing about all good people: "We try harder."

SECOND COLLECTION - INFO

THIS WEEKEND: October 21st / 22nd—Diocesan Collection World Mission Sunday

World Mission Sunday, organized by the Propagation of the Faith, is a day set aside for Catholics worldwide to recommit themselves to the Church's missionary activity through prayer and sacrifice.

"The offerings that will be collected [on World Mission Sunday] are destined for a common fund of solidarity distributed, in the Pope's name, by the Society for the Propagation of the Faith among the missions and missionaries of the entire world."

Thank you for supporting our mission collection.

If you thought you were dying, what would matter most?

For the final week of Life and Dignity Month, the Office of Life, Justice and Peace will host a Conversation Cafe® with local thought leaders, exploring the incisive and thought provoking PBS FRONTLINE film Being Mortal.

This groundbreaking film follows best-selling author and Harvard-trained surgeon, Dr. Atul Gawande, as a doctor and a son, as he explores the hopes of people facing terminal illness and their relationships with the doctors who care for them. Gather with your community members as we discuss these important issues.
