VISION & MISSION STATEMENTS

The vision of St. Juliana Falconieri Catholic Community is to live as a people of God with Christ at the center of our lives through liturgy, faith formation and community.

Our mission is to be a welcoming family dedicated to proclaiming the gospel, celebrating the Sacraments, educating, serving, and providing opportunity for all to enrich their faith.

Order of Friar Servants of Mary United States of America Province

THE PARISH AS ONE BODY

*"If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be?
If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be?
But as it is, God placed the parts, each one of them, in the body as he intended...
The eye cannot say to the hand, 'I do not need you,' nor again the head to the feet, 'I do not need you.'
Indeed, the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are all the more necessary.
Now you are Christ's body, and individually parts of it."* (1 Cor. 12:17-25)

The Seven Essential Elements of Parish Life constantly interrelate, each nurturing and supporting the other with the communal celebration of Sunday Eucharist at the center.

A NOTE FROM FR. MIKE PONTARELLI, O.S.M.

Today's assignment: draw an icon of hope. Sit for a moment, now draw. Choose a word to describe or symbolize hope; what would you choose? Do not use "faith" or "trust". Not an easy exercise. At least not for me.

Reflect on: "No storm can shake my in-most calm, while to that rock I'm clinging" (How Can I Keep From Singing) "All my hope is in you, Oh Lord, you are my rock and my strength" (All My Hope – Dave Brubeck) "You gave your children (Oh, God) good ground for hope that you would permit repentance for their sins" (Wisdom proclaimed today.) Chapter eight of Romans (proclaimed today) is a lesson on hope for things not yet seen. If we did see these things, there would no longer be need for hope. We do not know how to pray, thus we do not know how to relate to God. The Holy Spirit will come to our aid. In our longing to pray, with groans, we hope.

This longing to be in relationship with God is itself a gift. Hope, along with faith and charity, is a theological virtue. As such it is a grace, a gift from God.

Hope is the Holy Spirit entering into our life and finding a welcome home. Together we sit trying to pray. With one another we sit groaning, exhausted, afraid if not terrified. As a community we sit still facing the Cross and Christ, the Living God, the revealed presence of the Divine. In hope we appeal to God. Like the disciples long ago, today we are tossed about. In our weakness, God gives us the gift of hope.

What icon did you draw? What word did you choose? An anchor! Perhaps a rock! In prayer we groan because we no longer wish to be tossed about, unsettled. Hope gives us the tenacity, to hold on and find stability. Hold on to the rock, the anchor.

Why do we need to hope today? If for no other reason than in our weakness we admit that our focus, our direction is not always toward God. Therefore we need to reconcile ourselves to God today.

It's so easy to list those things that raise our emotional level to stark raving mad. Political polarization. Various scandals in institutions from high government and universities, scandals in sports and entertainment and sometimes the two cannot be separated. An educational system that settles for mediocrity and is greatly secularized. The bombardment of commercialization that is highly sensualized and plainly vulgar. The trivialization of sex. A growing number of people who claim the Bible to be fiction and religion childish therefore are easily satirized and those who practice the faith are marginalized and demonized. The list is lengthy. (I recited a recent reading of Pastor Rick Warren: Napa Institute Conference Proceedings, July 2016.)

So what is needed? An anchor. A rock. Where might it be found? In becoming the Holy Eucharist you receive. In practicing the Bible lessons you read. In living the Mass you attend. In becoming the community of your faith belief. In the time you and your family set aside each day to relate to God alone, without any care for the electronic leash. Time each day to turn away from what is evil and turn toward, and cling to the anchor of our faith, the rock of our Salvation; the Kingdom of God.

We are made by God and we are made for God. The old Baltimore Catechism taught me and most of us that Truth. Our hope will not come from a political leader, a university professor, a major league idol, another invention, an office promotion or a bigger pay check. Our hope, our anchor, our rock is a relationship with God. Our hope is Jesus who is the Holy Eucharist. Let us "Glorify God by the way we live our life."

What is needed? Religious conversion. If not now, when? It can't be put off to Ash Wednesday!

"All my hope is in you, Oh Lord, you are my rock and my strength."

WORDS OF WISDOM

DO YOU LOVE YOUR CATHOLIC FAITH?

BECOME A MENTOR IN THE CHRISTIAN LIFE FOR OUR YOUTH!

Contact our Youth Minister (Taylor!)
714-869-3826 | taylor.engel@stjulianachurch.org

The first reading today, from the book of Wisdom, makes its point over and over, at least five times in five verses! God is mighty, but lenient to all. God's power is shown in kindness and clemency, not in harshness and condemnation, and those who govern God's people must govern in the same way, with kindness. This loving kindness and gentleness is not contrary to God's might, but is a direct result of God's primacy over all. Who are we, then, to judge what is in the hearts of our fellow Christians and all people, when God commands justice with love and clemency?

Likewise, the Holy Spirit makes up for our ignorance of what we need, speaking in a language we do not yet understand. But God knows our needs before we do, understands the intercessions of the Spirit, and helps us in our weakness. This is our hope: God's mercy, power, and love.

RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION OF ADULTS (RCIA) - SESSIONS BEGIN IN AUGUST

Summer has been a time to recharge our internal batteries ~ soak up some sun, play golf, go to the beach, spend some relaxing time with family and friends, etc. Summer can be such an enjoyable time to rejuvenate our soul!

Summer is also a time to take stock of our lives. Many of us are in the midst of personal hardships – whether they be financial, spiritual, medical...in the midst of these life difficulties, there often seems to be nothing we can do than to “wait it out” – in effect, surrender to God’s will. While we are waiting, it is prudent for us to spend time taking stock of our spiritual lives. How is your relationship with Jesus these days? Do you turn to Him for strength?...for guidance?... for forgiveness?

Our baptism calls us all to discipleship ~ to follow Jesus ~ but it is pretty hard to follow someone you don’t know or feel any connection with. Be intent about following Jesus. Connect with Our Lord! Do not confuse committed church and social activities with discipleship. We can be very busy with the activity of going to church, volunteering for ministries, making certain our children receive their sacraments, etc...but unless we are intentional about it, taking to heart our responsibility to go forth and be disciples of Christ, aren’t we just spinning our wheels?

Please spend some time this summer reconnecting with Jesus. Pray everyday with purpose. Strive to be an intentional disciple of His. If you or someone you know are searching for a way to connect with Jesus and are interested in being baptized in the Catholic faith or have not completed all Sacraments of Initiation (Eucharist and Confirmation) and wish to do so, please call our Parish Office at 714-879-1965 or call the Faith Formation Director, Mike McHenry at 714-853-1193. We are gathering a list of names and interviewing candidates now for the RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) process that will begin the end of August. We look forward to talking with you and assisting in your discernment.
