THE PARISH AS ONE BODY

*"If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be?
If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be?
But as it is, God placed the parts, each one of them, in the body as he intended...
The eye cannot say to the hand, 'I do not need you,' nor again the head to the feet, 'I do not need you.'
Indeed, the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are all the more necessary.
Now you are Christ's body, and individually parts of it."* (1 Cor. 12:17-25)

The Seven Essential Elements of Parish Life constantly interrelate, each nurturing and supporting the other with the communal celebration of Sunday Eucharist at the center.

Before school began I spoke with the administration, faculty, and staff of our school. I addressed many parents on the first day of school. Here's a recap if you missed or want to read it.

It's a pleasure to have you here. Without you, without the school and its activities, the campus is b-o-r-i-n-g. I'm really happy St. Juliana Parish has a school, a great school, and you are part of it. Thanks.

Thank you for trusting St. Juliana School – as a place to teach and as a place for your sons/daughters to learn. Here they will learn to be good citizens of the USA and formed as members of the Kingdom of God. Here they can learn the Constitution of the United States and how to serve Gospel virtues so they will make decisions according to the Gospel and lead a Catholic life. Here the students, because their parents chose it for them, will be formed on a solid foundation to be faith-filled disciples of Jesus. It's a bit redundant; however that's why we exist as a Catholic school!

Here our teachers teach as a calling, their vocation. Pray for our teachers. Our teachers aren't working for a pay-check alone. They are working for the apostolate. They are evangelizers. They complete what is begun in the families of our students; they continue to convert our students to Jesus Christ.

Our school, any Roman Catholic Christian school, is successful when the students imitate Jesus Christ. That is what sets the Catholic/Christian school apart from other schools. The Catholic/Christian school is successful when it makes disciples, when it encourages its faculty, students, and their families to form a life-long and life-giving relationship with Jesus Christ. Students need their parents and the Catholic school faculty to enliven their minds and convert the souls. It's a bit redundant, but needs to be mentioned. WOW! That's an awesome task!

Since I became pastor of the parish and its school I have emphasized taking on the charisms, the spiritual gifts, of St. Juliana our patroness. Juliana was devoted to the Eucharist. A woman of community, she founded the Servite Sisters. She was educated in our faith.

The Eucharist is central to our community. Our students attend Mass in three different groups each week. The kindergarteners, first, and second graders attend the 8:00AM Mass on Tuesday. Third, fourth, and fifth grades attend the 8:00AM Mass on Wednesday. On Friday the sixth, seventh, and eighth graders attend Mass. On the First Friday, or another significant day in the month, the entire student body attends the 8:00AM Mass. The students are brought to Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament at different times on the First Tuesday of each month. Jesus, truly present in the Holy Eucharist is our identity, our strength, our courage, our medicine for immortality. The students are forming a habit of being present to Jesus; saying prayers and learning about him. Please join the student body on weekdays as you are able. If you are parishioners and not parents or relatives – you are essential to our community – come to Mass with the students. We like having you here. Practice your faith as best you can as a family. When your son/daughter sees you doing what they are doing, their good habits are reinforced. Join us in worship at Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament. Don't neglect Sunday Mass. I know there is a lot of competition with other things on a Sunday. There are also a lot of churches. And there is an app for that: Masstimes.org! Please make St. Juliana your community.

Parents, help me and the school. I encourage you to not simply drop off and pick up your child. Help your son/daughter to live the faith that he/she is being taught. Stop in the church for a visit, a prayer, a time to collect yourself in prayer, a time to reconnect with God and form a relationship with Jesus. Do it with your child. Spend a few minutes, even an hour, at Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament on the First Tuesday of each month. The church is open; Jesus is present so that he may be visited. Without you, the church is a "deserted place."

We form a community of Christians on the campus. Together we make virtuous choices based on what is right by the law of Christ and his Church. We accept one another, the families of the grammar school and those who do not attend our grammar school are all St. Juliana Falcons. And those who have no children! There cannot be an "us and them" and a community (many becoming one) at the same time. We are one body – one in being with Jesus Christ. Rooted in the Holy Eucharist, we form a community. Together we are forming the faith of the next generation of Catholics.

The third charism of our saint is faith formation. St. Juliana Falconieri was the niece of St. Alexis Falconieri, one of the Seven Holy Founders of the Servite Order who administrate this parish. Alexis was in charge of the students, begged money for the seminary formation of the new members.

To become faith-filled disciples of Jesus, we must be converted to his Gospel. This conversion involves the mind so that the faith will be known; the heart so that the proper attitude of joy, compassion, or sorrow will be felt; and moral conversion so that the parish will behave in a way that models Christian behavior.

Keep this prayer in mind and practice it: "Grant that all the faithful of the Church, looking into the signs of the times by the light of faith, may constantly devote themselves to the service of the Gospel. Keep us attentive to the needs of all that, sharing their grief and pain, their joy and hope, we may faithfully bring them the good news of salvation and go forward with them along the way of your Kingdom."

Look at the times; show the young students how to make decisions based on the Gospel. Be attentive to the needs of others; teach them how to share grief, pain, hope, and joy.

More important than teaching the answers to today's concerns is teaching how to make the right choice in situations that haven't been presented to the students – yet. Here, at St. Juliana's, the students are taught what is right today so they can make the best choices to answer tomorrow's unknown questions.

I was asked not long ago: "Father Mike, what is your biggest concern?" My biggest concern is not a what, it's a who. My biggest concern is The Millennials. My biggest concern is the next generation of Catholic Christians. Right now they are leaving our faith community in large numbers. My concern is how to keep St. Juliana Parish and School growing as disciples of Jesus.

Lastly, I encourage you to download "The Catholic School" from the Sacred Congregation for Catholic Education. It's a good read.

Once again – Thank you for trusting St. Juliana Catholic Parish and School. God Bless.

MISSIONARY PRIEST TO VISIT

Fr. Clyde Phillips, a Maryknoll missionary priest, will be with us next weekend, September 9/10 to give witness to God's Word among the people and cultures of the foreign lands he serves. Fr. Clyde was born in Hilo, Hawaii on Dec 30, 1948 and was ordained a Maryknoll priest on May 20, 1978. He was assigned to the Philippine Region where he served for 20 years and was named Director of the Philippine Lay Mission

Program in 1986. That same year he was elected Assistant Regional Superior of the Philippines, and he went on to serve as Regional Superior for two consecutive three year terms. While at our parish Fr. Clyde will share his experiences of encountering God in the people that he serves and invite parishioners to discover ways they can live out their call to be a missionary disciple!

Fr. Clyde will be taking up a collection for his missionary work and will be happy to talk with anyone who is interested in learning more about mission life or perhaps becoming an overseas missionary.

We thank you, Lord, for the gift and opportunity of work; may our efforts always be pure of heart, for the good of others and the glory of your name.

We lift up to you all who long for just employment and those who work to defend the rights and needs of workers everywhere.

May those of us who are now retired always remember that we still make a valuable contribution to our Church and our world by our prayers and deeds of charity.

May our working and our resting give praise to you until the day we share together in eternal rest with all our departed in your Kingdom as you live and reign Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen. ~Archdiocese of Detroit

Online Giving Through Faith Direct
NOW AVAILABLE FOR PARISHIONERS TO REGISTER!

go to: www.faithdirect.net
Our Church Code is CA850

If you currently give online through Vanco or ParishPay please discontinue this service and begin your online giving through Faith Direct. Thank you!

What is online giving?

Have you noticed, not everyone puts an envelope in the offertory basket every week? Many parishioners donate online to the parish. St. Juliana began online giving several years ago—we are now just changing to a different company that promises us added security, simplicity and accuracy. Many of us do not even carry cash or have a checkbook...Online giving to the Church is very similar to what many of us already do - we go “on line” to transfer money from one account to another — and now, through reflection and prayer, online giving is made easily available through Faith Direct for your family to share your financial gifts with the Church.

It is simple - When you give electronically online, you don’t have to remember to bring an envelope to church...you come to church to worship; not to worry about whether or not you have an envelope or if you have cash to put in the offertory basket. You can worship freely, knowing your offertory gift is already taken care of.

It is secure - Convenient, safe, reliable, paperless, electronic transactions from one bank to another bank have shown to be safer than cash donations or checks. Donations are easy to track and tax reporting records are especially accurate.

Thank you for your assistance and for joining Faith Direct for your offertory giving!

Simply visit www.faithdirect.net (St. Juliana’s Church Code is CA850) and opt to have your donations for offertory and special collections debited from your bank or credit card on the 4th or 15th of the month.

For assistance with this, please contact St. Juliana Business Manager, Esteban Jimenez at 714-853-1192.

Thank you for your ongoing generosity to the parish community of St. Juliana Falconieri.

NEW LECTOR & EUCHARISTIC MINISTER INFO / TRAINING SESSIONS

Lector info

“Always . . . Christ is present in his word” (Lectionary for Mass [LFM], no. 4). In proclaiming the Word of God, Lectors (readers) exercise their responsibility in mediating the presence of Christ. God speaks to the assembly through them. St. Juliana Parish has a team of well trained Lectors - if this is a team you feel called to be part of, we would love for you to join us! We are offering an information / training session:

Tuesday, September 12th - immediately following the 7pm family rosary in the church.

For info, please contact Vern Meurer at 714-870-7524 or email vmeurer@sbcglobal.net.

Eucharistic Minister info

In every celebration of the Eucharist, there should be a sufficient number of ministers of Holy Communion so that it may be distributed in a reverent and orderly manner. If this is a ministry you are feeling called to, please respond to God’s call and join us for an information / training session:

Wednesday, September 13th -7pm in the church

Please contact Deacon Pete Lauder at 714-932-9033 or email deaconpml@gmail.com for more information.

UNLOCKING the MYSTERIES of the Bible

If you would like to have a deeper relationship with God and a better understanding of your faith, then join us for Unlocking the Mystery of the Bible. You will not only benefit personally from being part of this 8 week study, you will also help to bring about a profound renewal in our parish as we grow closer to Christ. St. Juliana parish will begin Unlocking the Mystery of the Bible on September 5th @ 6:30 in the St. Alexis room of the Parish Center. The cost of the program is $25 for the participant books and other materials.

RESPECT LIFE - NEWS

PENNIES FROM HEAVEN

The parish Respect Life Group wants to thank everyone who contributed so generously to the annual PENNIES FROM HEAVEN collection last weekend. If you forgot to return the bottles, please return them to the Parish Office by September 10th. If you didn't get a baby bottle, just put your donation in a zip-lock baggie. We accept paper money, and checks too besides the coins. We hope to report, in the bulletin on Sept. 17th, the amount of the collection.

RESPECT LIFE MEETING

The parish Respect Life Group members will meet on Wed., Sept. 6 at 1:30pm at the home of Barbara Legas, 319 N. Ashford Pl., Fullerton. We will make preparations for our annual parish Festival Quilt and Doll House Raffles. We always welcome new members and helpers. Call Barbara at 714-870-4214 for directions to the meeting. If you can't make the meeting, but can help with the Raffle ticket sales outside of church on the weekends of Sept. 9 & 10 and 16 & 17 or at our booth at the Festival, please call Barbara.

QUILT AND DOLL HOUSE RAFFLE

The parish Respect Life Group will have two raffles for the Parish Festival again this year. A hand made quilt and a furnished doll house. We will have them on display outside of church on the weekends of Sept. 10 and 17. You can buy your raffle tickets those two weekends and at the Festival too in the Respect Life Booth. The drawing will be on Sunday evening Sept. 24 around 8 pm at the close of the Festival.

MASS OF REMEMBRANCE FOR THE UNBORN

The annual Mass of Remembrance for all of the Millions of unborn babies whose lives were ended by abortion over the last 40 plus years since the Roe v Wade Supreme Court decision that made abortion legal in the USA, will be on Saturday morning, September 9th, at 9:00am at Our Lady of Guadalupe church in La Habra. Rosary and prayers for the unborn will follow. All are invited. If anyone wants to carpool from St. Juliana, call Barbara Legas, 714-870-4214.

In my distress I called upon the Lord and I cried out to my God:
From his temple God heard my voice and my cry reached God's ears.
