THE PARISH AS ONE BODY

*"If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be?
If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be?
But as it is, God placed the parts, each one of them, in the body as he intended...
The eye cannot say to the hand, 'I do not need you,' nor again the head to the feet, 'I do not need you.'
Indeed, the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are all the more necessary.
Now you are Christ's body, and individually parts of it."* (1 Cor. 12:17-25)

The Seven Essential Elements of Parish Life constantly interrelate, each nurturing and supporting the other with the communal celebration of Sunday Eucharist at the center.

~ FROM THE PASTOR ~

In a conversation recently with Paul Durning, director of St. Vincent de Paul, I found out that our St. Vincent de Paul Society has many more volunteers than I first realized. I see a handful of workers every Thursday morning sorting food items and preparing for needy patrons to arrive. What I learned was amazing. Here with is just a sample of those who volunteer as computer operators, language interpreters, support team and pantry organizers: Pete Rudyk, Larry Duarte, Jim Kinnane, Enedina Clements, Mike Clements, Marion Purdy, Paloma Mansfield, Al Esser, Patricia Silverstri, Neida Herrera, Joe Herrera, Tom Stokes, George Fontes, Alice Gresto, Dorothy Carr, Pat Carter and Clara Kelly. In the name of the entire parish I extend our gratitude to all these volunteers who make possible this outreach to needy folks who are becoming more needy all the time. It is through the generosity of St. Juliana parishioners who donate food items (we need more, please) in the church pantry box and in financial donations that make this ministry possible.

Another group of volunteers who have been busy for the past three months in anticipation of our parish festival the weekend of September 28, 29, and 30 is the Fall Festival Committee under the leadership of Chair persons: John and Maureen Kohaut. The committee is broken into smaller committees, namely, treasurer, rides, food, sponsorship, games, publicity, set-up/clean-up, capital campaign, volunteers, used books, entertainment, and security. The names of these committee members are the following: Louisa Pesci, Shawn Shadburn, Megan Shank, Cyndee Shank, Harry Harrison, Kathleen Thiemann, Amber Matas, Phil Stump, Andrew Valbuena, Dean and Kathy Hough, Mark Augustin, Deno Vaccher, Ray Silva, Jack Galliher, Alisa Hurst, Bill and Cindy Jason, Jim Steinbergs, James Tanaka, John Martin, and Scott Moore. While these are the principal members, there is a host of other volunteers who will be working behind the scenes every day of the festival : booth captains, runners, booth workers, etc. Again our gratitude extends to all these faithful draftees for their dedicated service.

This weekend we honor another group of leaders and workers in the vineyard of the Lord: St. Juliana Pastoral Council. During the 11am Mass the council will be officially installed for 2012-2013 year. The following members include new and returning members: Chair-Bob Dietterle, Vice-Chair-Paul Irving, Father Luke Stano, O.S.M., Deacon Gerhard Stadel, Deacon Chuck Doidge, Ken Boucher, Jan Fontes, Shawn Graham, Manuel Gonzales, Jr., Jennifer Powell, Alberta Saran, David Hoferer, Bill Jason, and Louisa Pesci. Congratulations to these committed leaders.

We have had the first early-bird drawing for the parish Fall Festival raffle. (See page 5 for Fall Festival information.) There will be other drawings. Over 600 families did not take their raffle book from the back of church which means those books will need to be mailed at a cost of $390. Hopefully, these families will participate in the raffle. The raffle is an important part of the financial success of the festival.

In the bulletin this week there is a copy of the publication, Servites Today. I hope you will read it and perhaps pass it on to another. Also, I would like to alert you to a program sponsored by the Unitarian Universalist Church taking place at Temple Beth Tikvah (1600 N. Acacia) on Tuesday, September 18, 2012 from 7-9pm. A movie narrated by Kiefer Sutherland called "The Healthcare Movie" will be shown and a discussion led by Dr. Bill Honigman, an ER physician and Co-coordinator Campaign for a Healthy California Orange County Region. The movie is free of cost and for more information you may call (714)-871-7150.

St. Juliana parishioners are so generous. In the past month you have donated almost $23,000 to various outreach programs. The collection for the Servite Missions in Kwa-Zulu South Africa netted $8,734.72. The Oblates of St. Francis de Sales received $9,115.00 for their missionary work in Africa and the "Pennies From Heaven" baby bottles preliminary income is $5,032.10. Over 26,000 pennies were cashed in to help fund our Respect Life ministry and outreach. There seems to be a fondness for baby bottles as there are about 100 bottles that have not been returned full or empty. Baskets are in church for bottles.

I am always inspired by stories of unexpected generosity. Not only the parish as beneficiary but also in my personal life. I have been the recipient of unconditional generosity at special moments in my priestly ministry. A story I read tells about a poor family of five boys and three girls with little wealth but much love and great faith. As poor as they were, the mother consistently gave each week to St. Peter's Church. She couldn't give much, but it was sacrificial. The oldest boy was an intelligent young man hoping to be a doctor, but he knew his career was far beyond reach of his family. One day the family doctor came to the house to treat two of the children. The mother told the doctor about her son's ambition and he asked her to send the young man to his office. There, he told the young man, "I will pay your way through medical school on one condition, that when you become a physician, you do the same for another dedicated and needy person. Let him promise to do the same, but always remind him that this has to be a secret between him and his beneficiary."

That story is certainly a tall order and perhaps not many will attain it. Nevertheless, generosity begets generosity. We are all capable of reaching beyond our boundaries and do unexpected kindnesses to others. Many of you have done so and may you be blessed for it.

Pope Benedict the XVI has proclaimed a Year of Faith beginning October 11, 2012, and concluding on November 24, 2013, the feast of Christ the King. In this special year, believers around the world are called to renew their commitment to the faith that is "always the same, yet the source of ever new light."

The start of this Year of Faith coincides with the anniversaries of two great events that have marked the life of the Church: the 50th anniversary of the opening of the Second Vatican Council and the 20th anniversary of the publication of the Catechism of the Catholic Church. Closer to the date I will insert in the bulletin a brochure outlining the celebration.

On Tuesday I received 300 copies of the Catholic Worker newspaper which will be placed in the church bulletin racks for you to take home with you. The Catholic Worker has been an important animator of Catholic Social Teaching in the public forum since the late 1930's. Dorothy Day and Peter Maurin founded the Movement in response to the Great Depression and the lack of adequate social programs to help the unemployed, homeless, and those who lost both their wealth and property. The treasure of social teachings of the Church through the papal encyclicals was disseminated not only through the writings of Dorothy and Peter but through other social theorists of the time.

A parting thought: "Where'd the days go, when all we did was play? And the stress that we were under wasn't stress at all, just a run and a jump into a harmless fall...."

In the Joy of Our Faith,
Fr. Frank Falco, O.S.M.,
Pastor

NOTE FROM THE PRINCIPAL

Dear St. Juliana Catholic Community,

"Knowledge is not to be considered as a means of material prosperity and success, but as a call to serve and to be responsible for others." (The Catholic School, 1977)

We welcome the opening days of the 2012-13 St. Juliana Falconieri School year. For those families who are able to participate in Catholic education at St. Juliana Falconieri School, you demonstrate a commitment to the values and philosophy of a Catholic education.

The faculty and staff look forward to working with the school families to promote academic excellence and spiritual development in the context of the teachings of the Catholic Church.

I wish to thank all St. Juliana parishioners who have participated in the Angels in Education Program. Your generosity and spirit of giving will help fulfill the "wish lists" of our dedicated faculty at St. Juliana School.

We also welcome our thirty-one NEW FAMILIES to St. Juliana School, some of which are coming from Annunciation School (which recently closed). I am grateful for the New Family Mentoring Program which will help make their transition so much easier.

Together let us pray that God, who has begun this good work in us, continue to guide our efforts.

God Bless,

Manuel Gonzales, Jr. M.A.
