THE PARISH AS ONE BODY

*"If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be?
If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be?
But as it is, God placed the parts, each one of them, in the body as he intended...
The eye cannot say to the hand, 'I do not need you,' nor again the head to the feet, 'I do not need you.'
Indeed, the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are all the more necessary.
Now you are Christ's body, and individually parts of it."*

(1 Cor. 12:17-25)

The Seven Essential Elements of Parish Life constantly interrelate, each nurturing and supporting the other with the communal celebration of Sunday Eucharist at the center.

CATHOLICISM 101-WHAT IS A CATECHIST

Last Sunday we spoke a lot about Catechist. By virtue of our common baptism we are all members of this community of believers. We attend mass together, we dine and share stories with each other and we care for one another's needs. We are called to share in the handing down or "echoing" down the deposit of faith to our families, friends and children. So the answer to the question, "Who is a catechist" is all of us! Every single baptized Catholic is considered part of this ministry and has the obligation to "echo" down our faith to the young who are growing in their faith and to those who are in the process of being received into the Church. On this day the Church in her wisdom takes a special interest in honoring us all as teachers who model what it is to "be Catholic" and not just to be "a Catholic". Today, in a special way we recognize the many who take this obligation as a primary way to honor God. The catechists at St. Juliana School, in our Faith Formation program and processes, our scripture study leaders, our RCIA team and all of the various leaders who train, catechize, and mentor our liturgical ministers and the literally hundreds of others who are in service to Christ's Church on earth. Think of a way you can dive into the deep waters of baptism and rise with new ardor for our church and those who need to hear the story of Jesus Christ.

October 5 Vincent and Michelle Cortes Family, 5pm Mass
October 12 Glenn and Nina Visconti Family, 9am Mass

Families take Mary's statue for a week and pray the rosary together each night.

If you are interested in signing up for a week please contact
Nina Visconti, 714-624-4799 or NinaVisconti11@gmail.com.

Join us for prayer and for a study group the 3rd Tuesday of each month in the Children's Chapel of the church, following the 7pm Knights of Columbus rosary and benediction. We have chosen The Way of Perfection, Study Edition. Based on the writing of St. Teresa of Avila, OCD, a Carmelite Sister and a Doctor of the Catholic Church. The book will go deeper into the formation of our prayer life. For more information and registration, call Nina Visconti, (714) 624-4799 or email: NinaVisconti11@gmail.com.

50th Anniversary Golden Gala

St. Juliana Parish & School Community will be celebrating its 50th Anniversary in 2015, and a year-long celebration is being planned. We will kick-off our golden year with a 50th Anniversary Golden Gala Dinner & Auction

on Saturday, January 31, 2015.

All proceeds from this event will benefit St. Juliana Falconieri School.

St. Juliana Falconieri School:

St. Juliana Falconieri School strives to develop the whole child, and it is our fundamental goal to develop our students: spiritually, academically, and physically. We provide an academically rigorous and doctrinally sound program of education and faith designed to strengthen each student's union with Christ and His Church.

Our school honors the dignity and diversity of each student and expects them to advocate for the dignity of all. We encourage our students to live the Word of God in their relationships with each other, which in turns prepares them to lead a Catholic way of life.

St. Juliana Falconieri Parish is committed to supporting its school thus blessing our children with a long and successful tradition of Catholic education. Our students and alumnus benefit from an education that supports lifelong faith formation and inspires them to their full potential as intelligent citizens of the world.

Challenges to the Growth of Catholic Schools:

Catholic Schools are an important part of the mission of the Catholic Church. His Holiness Benedict XVI has spoken of the vital contribution that Catholic school education can make to the new evangelization: "It is no exaggeration to say that providing young people with a sound education in the faith represents the most urgent internal challenge facing the Catholic community in your country. The deposit of faith is a priceless treasure, which each generation must pass on to the next by winning hearts to Jesus."

Catholic school enrollment trends have shown steady declines nationally for more than a decade.

It is estimated the average per student expense for a Catholic elementary student is less than the amount paid in tuition, fees, or family stewardship. The shortfall is covered by 1) parish support, 2) external tuition assistance, and/or 3) fundraising efforts.

Forty-eight percent of registered Catholic families not attending Catholic schools cite affordability as the reason.

*Please join us in supporting the 50th Anniversary Golden Gala benefiting St. Juliana Falconieri School.
We need the generosity of Presenting Sponsors, Underwriters, and Patron Donations to ensure we raise the funds necessary to support the continued growth of our Catholic school.*

Please visit the Golden Gala webpage for more information.
