VISION & MISSION STATEMENTS

The vision of St. Juliana Falconieri Catholic Community is to live as a people of God with Christ at the center of our lives through liturgy, faith formation and community.

Our mission is to be a welcoming family dedicated to proclaiming the gospel, celebrating the Sacraments, educating, serving,
and providing opportunity for all to enrich their faith.

Order of Friar Servants of Mary United States of America Province

THE PARISH AS ONE BODY

*"If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be?
If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be?
But as it is, God placed the parts, each one of them, in the body as he intended...
The eye cannot say to the hand, 'I do not need you,' nor again the head to the feet, 'I do not need you.'
Indeed, the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are all the more necessary.
Now you are Christ's body, and individually parts of it."* (1 Cor. 12:17-25)

The Seven Essential Elements of Parish Life constantly interrelate, each nurturing and supporting the other with the communal celebration of Sunday Eucharist at the center.

A NOTE FROM FR. MIKE PONTARELLI, O.S.M.

The morality course continued. So far we have established: if you don't know what to do – pause and gather data, seek expert advice, pray. Do not act with a doubtful conscience. Do not act if the action seems unreasonable, unsafe, illegal or immoral. Be as good as Pinocchio, give a little whistle. Opinions must be supported by facts. Understand the opinion, be able to explain it. Morality is objective, it is doing what is right because it is right, not what works best for me. Natural tendencies must be controlled and directed. Don't act on impulse. Do not be a victim of an “off the rack” personality; develop an adult self.

Today's question: The Church and school brainwash their audiences. Discuss openly with others.

If the Church has brainwashed you, what's the evidence? After some time of Catholic education, receiving the sacraments, describe your personal relationship with Jesus and detail your knowledge of the Church, not just the parish church. After the many retreats you've been on, do you line up for Holy Communion daily, weekly, monthly, stop me when I'm close. Are you active in your parish community? Which is a priority: Scripture, the Sunday homily, monthly Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament, educating yourself and your children in the faith, the Nordstrom sales, the nightly news on any channel, the sports/financial pages? Are you a compassionate Good Samaritan to your neighbor? Do you risk living the faith openly so that your neighbors, office workers, or school friends will know you are a Catholic? Beliefs are rules for action. “Live the Gospel, when necessary use words.” Our natural desires are to understand, to love, and to act on love. That's Christianity's great Commandment. Bring life to faith and faith to life.

If you have been brainwashed by school and formal education; are you aware and curious? Do you search for real data and are you honest with it? Is that really a pretty black cat with a long white stripe on its back or is it something else? School work ought to be directed toward getting an education, liberating the mind from ignorance and directing your natural tendencies toward The Good (Eudemonia). Wanting a diploma and not an education, students play the odds and beat the system. What you do speaks so loudly, I can't hear what you claim.

Those who survive brainwashing are able to reason. They are equipped with tools necessary to answer tomorrow's questions that haven't been created yet. They will be leaders and not sheep.

In the end, there is no brainwashing like the brainwashing you don't even know you are getting. Most likely it's the brainwashing of the American Dream. Neither religious nor educational, it creates a craving need for what is not really even wanted. The American Dream has its revered saints and recognized shrines. It promises success beyond church and school. Whom do you choose to follow; Bill Gates, Taylor Swift, Captain America, Grumpy, or Jesus Christ? Does “I am the Lord your God, you shall not have false gods before you” haunt you? Do you worship at the shrines of South Coast Plaza, Angel Stadium, Honda Center or our church? Don't forget the shrines of Facebook, Twitter, Snapchat, or Amazon.com. Who and what interferes with you keeping the Sabbath holy?

The Little Prince knows that adults ask all the wrong questions. What questions do you ask, what data do you gather, what conclusions do you make? How do you review your conscience? Who critiques your previously unquestioned certitudes? Allow space for God and His ways.

Media is a powerful tool – a good servant, a bad master. I ask you to join me in taking a risk. On January 13th, 14th 2019 I have invited Jean Twenge, PhD, a professor at California State University San Diego to give some lectures here at St. Juliana. Please take a moment and GOOGLE Jean Twenge, take time to read her recent book; iGen. The “i” stand for Internet Generation. She has a few YouTube videos and TED TALKS on line. Her researched specialty is our youth, how to understand and direct them. On January 13th her audience will be primarily the Confirmation classes, sponsors, and parents, yet all are invited. On January 14th her audience will be YOU and ANYONE YOU invite. Please cast a huge net. Invite your friends at any school – grammar, high school, or college – Catholic or not Catholic. I believe Prof. Twenge to be the best we can hear speak about our youth. Mark the date and invite your family and friends now. Learn how to understand “the kids” - she will be good for Grandparents too! Her other books include Generation Me, The Narcissism Epidemic: Living in the Age of Entitlement, and The Impatient Woman's Guide to Getting Pregnant. I've read all but the last one!

Mark your calendars now to join us January 13th and 14th

World Mission Sunday ~ “Voices for Mission”

THIS WEEKEND, we will celebrate World Mission Sunday. Pope Francis calls all of us - children of God - to be “voices for mission” and invites the entire Church to support the mission dioceses in Africa, Asia, the Pacific Islands, and parts of Latin America and Europe, where priests, religious and lay leaders serve the world’s most vulnerable communities. Please keep the Pope’s mission in your prayers, and be generous in this week’s collection for the Society for the Propagation of the Faith (SPOF). Your local SPOF office is represented by the Mission Office. For more information, contact the Mission Office at the Pastoral Center at 714-282-3030 or missionoffice@rcbo.org

PRAYER REQUESTS

PLEASE PRAY FOR ALL WHO ARE ILL AND IN NEED OF OUR LOVING SUPPORT IN THIS COMMUNITY especially Charlie Wagner, Phil Joujon-Roche, ...and the names listed in our Book of Healing.

PLEASE PRAY FOR ALL THOSE WHO HAVE DIED, especially all the names listed in our Book of Remembrance ...May their souls and the souls of the faithful departed rest in peace. Amen

SPECIAL REQUEST

The USCCB (United States Conference of Catholic Bishops) has asked for a special collection for the humanitarian, long-term recovery and Church needs arising from Hurricane Florence and Michael. As you know Florence alone dropped more than 35 inches of rain in the Carolinas, which has caused extensive damage.

Some of the funds collected will be held by the USCCB in case there are additional natural disasters so as to reduce the chance of multiple collections like we had last year. Funds distributed will be given to Catholic Charities USA, Catholic Relief Services and to various dioceses.

Please remit any donations through the offertory or Parish Office to Catholic Charities USA, Catholic Relief Services, or to St. Juliana Church (side-marked “2018 Disaster Emergency Collection.”) All donations will be forwarded to the Diocese of Orange, c/o Auxiliary Bishop Timothy E. Freyer’s Office.

Prayer to St. Michael the Archangel

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.

Be our defense
against the wickedness
and snares of the Devil.

May God rebuke him,

and do thou,
O Prince

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITIONS

As election campaigns move into high gear, sometimes the phrase "the Catholic vote" is heard. It's an interesting concept, since Catholics started out in this country as a very fragile group: fewer than forty thousand of us at the time of the first census in 1790, and only about 2 percent of the population by 1830. It was a priestless church for all intents and purposes, lay-led clusters of Catholics waiting patiently for the occasional visit of a priest, sustained by gathering when they could on Sunday for devotional prayer like litanies and the rosary. They tried to hold on to their ancestral faith as best they could. Archbishop Jean-Louis Cheverus told one family in Maine to "every day say your prayers on your knees with affection, and every Sunday gather to hear the Gospel, to pray in common, and to quiz the children on the catechism."

Inevitably, some became Protestant, but many more stayed Catholic from generation to generation, with very little encouragement or sacramental ministry from the clergy. Archbishop John Carroll, the first American bishop, tried to make Church law flexible: shortening the length of the fast before Communion, easing the Lenten fast, and even relaxing the rule of Sabbath rest at harvest time. Catholicism in England had been quietly sustained in this way for two centuries, and the first American Catholics carried on as had their ancestors, providing a fertile soil for the unprecedented success and phenomenal growth of the Church in our country.
