TWENTY-SEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

From the beginning of creation,
God made them male and female.
For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh.

MARK 10:6-8

VISION & MISSION STATEMENTS

The vision of St. Juliana Falconieri Catholic Community is to live as a people of God with Christ at the center of our lives through liturgy, faith formation and community.

Our mission is to be a welcoming family dedicated to proclaiming the gospel, celebrating the Sacraments, educating, serving,
and providing opportunity for all to enrich their faith.

Order of Friar Servants of Mary United States of America Province

THE PARISH AS ONE BODY

*"If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be?
If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be?
But as it is, God placed the parts, each one of them, in the body as he intended...
The eye cannot say to the hand, 'I do not need you,' nor again the head to the feet, 'I do not need you.'
Indeed, the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are all the more necessary.
Now you are Christ's body, and individually parts of it."* (1 Cor. 12:17-25)

The Seven Essential Elements of Parish Life constantly interrelate, each nurturing and supporting the other with the communal celebration of Sunday Eucharist at the center.

A NOTE FROM FR. MIKE PONTARELLI, O.S.M.

Okay, savage crew, here is a one question test: True or False – My (first person singular) opinion just as good as anyone else’s opinion. Think before you answer or criticize anyone’s answer.

Is your opinion on playing basketball as good as LeBron James’ opinion or your opinion the Tesla automobile as good as Elon Musks’ opinion? Is your opinion of your teeth as good as your dentist’s or heart as good as your cardiologist’s? What about the theologian’s opinion of God, Jesus, and the Church?

Your opinion is only as good as the evidence that supports it. Period. Your opinion is always only as good as the evidence you have gathered, sifted through, and put into some logical conclusion.

Real science is a quantum leap different from in high school, cook book science. By any name high school science taught the guaranteed results of Betty Crocker. Your high school science book came with a teacher’s text with its already researched with the correct answers. The Manhattan project was quite different. So too is the practiced opinion of your dentist or cardiologist. The atom, your teeth and your heart present the professionals with precious information that has to be gathered, arranged, and studied. Then put out for critique which will change minds, direct action, and manifest emotions. Sometimes the most exercise we get is jumping to conclusions and making rash judgments. The latter was taught as sinful and can be fatal.

Truth is waiting to be discovered, outside of me, not made up by me.

Opinions do not change facts, no matter who proclaims the statement or with what degree of belief or volume of voice or with fist pounding certitude. If everyone was told to believe by whatever authority that the earth is flat like a Frisbee, the earth will not flatten itself out because of an opinion. Continuing to argue is of no use, truth was never the case.

Should “expert opinion” be trusted? Knowing that we’ve been hoodwinked in the past, of course we live with some degree of paranoia or cynicism. Experts have completed necessary academic course work, competency examinations, and are accepted by the college of their profession. These professionals are respected as university professors, school teachers, medical doctors, lawyers, judges, Certified Public Accounts, plumbers, and priests.

Finally, a risk is taken when one formulates, speaks, and lives an opinion. There is a risk of living by a different opinion! Add to that the ever present game, “Divide and Conquer”!

What is the risk of forming an opinion, belief, that Jesus is Lord and living that opinion? A risk is taken when one lives publically and openly as a Christian, or a member the Roman Catholic Church. Do you live your life according to: “Lord, to whom shall we go, you have the words of everlasting life? You are the Light, the Way, and the Truth”? (see John 6:68) Are you willing to be known as a Catholic Christian publically living not just the Ten Commandants but also the Beatitudes and Jesus’ Command to love one another? Add to that the precepts of the Church!

How do you discover and discern Truth? What is the risk of acting on it? What is the risk of NOT acting on it? Do you accept ALL the Truth or only parts of it you like? Nifty questions!

THANK YOU, THANK YOU, THANK YOU SO MUCH – all of you who organized, volunteered, and participated in our Fall Festival. The comment that touched me the most came from neighbors, not members of the parish who said: “Best EVER!

We’ve been coming since we moved here. It’s a matter if you can’t beat them, join them! So we naturally come.” I pursued the matter, “You aren’t members? Would you like to change that?” “Well, we belong to another Church.” As the conversation continued I found we are generally good neighbors. Great to hear. It’s a reflection on YOU.

Thanks a zillion!

World Mission Sunday
"Voices for Mission"

On this World Mission Sunday, Pope Francis calls all of us - children of God - to be "voices for mission." Today we 'speak up' through our prayers and personal sacrifices for our brothers and sisters in Missions - in places like Uganda where people face food uncertainty and violence... in the Philippines where local clergy face martyrdom... in Oceania where peoples' livelihoods are threatened by climate change... and in remote regions of Latin America where people are hearing the Gospel for the first time.

Raise your voice by supporting this diocesan collection.

Prayer to St. Michael the Archangel

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.

Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the Devil.

May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls.

Amen.

HOSPITALITY / USHERS

We need help !

A church usher or hospitality greeter welcomes our first time guests, repeat visitors, and parish members to Mass — their presence is the first encounter of the sacredness and joy of the worship service we are about to experience, as we enter the church. A friendly “hello”, a warm smile, the kind act of opening the church door — all these little things bring it to the attention of all who enter that we are being welcomed into the house of the Lord. Would you join our team? We need you!

To be part of this important team, there are no major time commitments; you are coming to church — would you consider assisting us with hospitality one or two times a month? The ministry is rewarding in itself, giving you an opportunity to meet and greet old and new friends.

If you feel called or would like to ask questions, please contact Ron Green at 909-597-2299 or hospitality@stjulianachurch.org.

BEREAVEMENT MINISTRY NEWS

St. Juliana’s Bereavement Ministry reaches out to our parishioners who are mourning the loss of a loved one, by showing our expression of sympathy and helping to ease the stress during the time after a loved one dies.

Our members make phone calls informing Parishioners of the death and funeral times; greet family and guests attending services; prepare salads or desserts; and help serve a luncheon for the family and friends of any deceased parish members who are having a reception in our Parish Center following the funeral Mass.

The ministry works on a “As Needed Basis” - there may be no funerals for weeks, or there may be multiple services in one week. This ministry is there to help, at a time when a grieving family most needs our parish support.

There are many opportunities to serve. Please consider being a part of this ministry.

If you would like to become a member of the Bereavement Ministry or have any questions, please contact Linda Kelley at 714-871-8661; or Barbara Frobenius at 714-293-9611.

Thank you

If you have any questions pertaining to the process for first communion or our elementary FAITH Program please contact Mike McHenry at 714-853-1193 or email, mike.mchenry@stjulianachurch.org.

Classes are Wednesdays 6:00-7:15pm in the school classrooms.

NEW SMALL CHRISTIAN COMMUNITY

New SCC group is welcoming new members on Wednesday evenings.

Time is 6-7:15 PM (upstairs in the Parish Center, St. Alexis Room) while students are participating in SRE classes and EDGE.

All adults are welcome to join, especially parents and grandparents of these students. Meetings will follow the students' class schedule.

The next meeting will be on Wednesday, Oct. 10.
