THE PARISH AS ONE BODY

*"If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be?
If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be?
But as it is, God placed the parts, each one of them, in the body as he intended...
The eye cannot say to the hand, 'I do not need you,' nor again the head to the feet, 'I do not need you.'
Indeed, the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are all the more necessary.
Now you are Christ's body, and individually parts of it."* (1 Cor. 12:17-25)

The Seven Essential Elements of Parish Life constantly interrelate, each nurturing and supporting the other with the communal celebration of Sunday Eucharist at the center.

If you thought I ran out of friendly twins, no such luck! Let me introduce you to two more. For those who have not followed this column in the past few weeks we've met the twins compassion and empathy, honesty and trust, and last week unity and peace. Today, as we continue our journey through Advent to Christmas, I want you to meet joy and hope.

Joy and hope are fraternal twins. In previous Mass prayers, at the prayer following the Our Father we prayed: "We wait in joyful hope for the coming of our Savior Jesus Christ." Some priests, myself included – perhaps I started the trend – prayed "in hope and joy." Are they two different gifts like bacon and eggs or are they mixed together and unable to be separated like macaroni and cheese? Let's consider them as distinct. If for no other reason it gives me something to teach and you something to learn!

In the current, revised liturgy, we pray: "... As we await the blessed hope and coming of our Savior, Jesus Christ." I argue why liturgists need to qualify hope. Never get into a debate with liturgists, you will not win.

"Joy is different from happiness, laughter, or comedy." This was spoken in a most eloquent way by a Rabbi at the funeral of a friend of mine, the comedian Shelley Berman. Shelley, you'll remember, was a real kvetch, the curmudgeon comedian who made us laugh through his review of life's everyday experiences. I told Rabbi Mordechai how much I appreciated and learned from his talk and how afraid I was to give mine following his. Frankly, I told him I was surprised that a Jew knew so much about joy! – we both laughed aloud, thank God. I wish I had his talk, it was a gem on joy.

Joy lasts, joy goes deep into the human being. Joy is a gift of God that soothes the soul, the deepest part of us that tells us who we are and how we fit in with everything. Consider this from G. B. Shaw: "This is the true joy in life, the being used for a purpose recognized by yourself as a mighty one; the being thoroughly worn out before you are thrown on the scrap heap; the being a force of Nature instead of a feverish selfish little clod of ailments and grievances complaining that the world will not devote itself to making you happy."

Hope, he's difficult. Hope is sometimes thought of as a wish or a strong desire as in "I hope the teacher does not give the promised test" or "I hope I find a free parking space at Anaheim Stadium." Used this way, hope often disappoints.

Hope is a positive charism and is joined with joy for that reason. People with hope are like the "little engine that could." They are generally optimistic. In this way hope leads to perseverance and endurance.

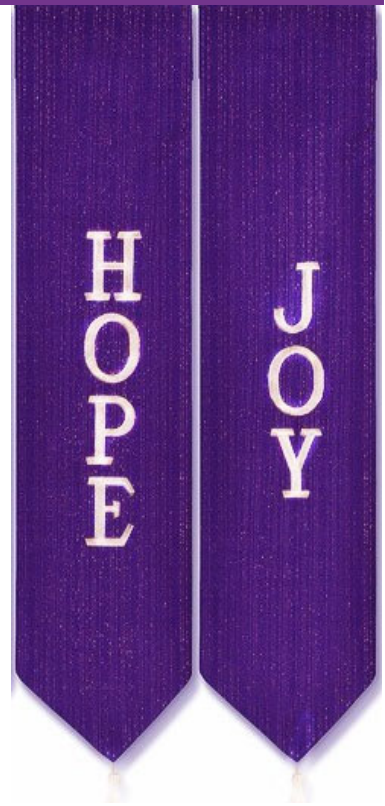

Hope is one of the three theological virtues; faith, hope, and love. St. Paul urges Christians to trust and be confident with who they are and what will happen to those who "put on the likeness of Christ." Check Paul's letters, especially Romans 8:25 "And hoping for what we cannot see means awaiting it with patient endurance."

Jesus is the hope of the ages. Come once again, Oh Promised Hope, Come O Desire of the Nations! This Advent be attentive to the way we pray for and sing about joy and hope. May this Advent and this coming Christmas bring you lasting joy and real hope. May that joy and hope be the reassurance that your life is guided by God's bright light.

Along with Advent reading and meditating, listen to the classical hymns and carols and lessons of Advent. Radio KUSC, FM 91.5 is a good source. It will bring joy! Trust me, I'm being honest. Trust and honesty are also twins!

JEAN M. TWENGE, PHD - SPEAKING AT ST. JULIANA JAN 2019

The iGen is the first generation to spend their entire childhood in the age of the smartphone, and this fact alone seems to have an important impact on who they are and how they relate to the world. More than previous generations, they are obsessed with safety, focused on tolerance, and have no patience for inequality. They are also "on the brink of the worst mental health crisis in decades."

In this lively talk on January 13 and 14 at our St. Juliana Parish Center we will explore the idea that iGen may be growing up more slowly than previous generations. Also, learn what practical tools may be utilized to best meet the developmental needs of children and encourage their independence and autonomy.

ABOUT THE SPEAKER

Jean Twenge, Ph.D. is a professor of Psychology at San Diego State University and the author of more than 140 scientific publications and books, including iGen: Why Today's Super-Connected Kids Are Growing Up Less Rebellious, More Tolerant, Less Happy-and Completely Unprepared for Adulthood. Dr. Twenge frequently gives talks and seminars on teaching and working with today's young generation based on a dataset of 11 million young people. Her research has appeared in The Atlantic and The New York Times (to name a few) and she has been featured on the Today Show, NBC Nightly News, Fox & Friends, NPR and CNN.

MORE CORAZON NEWS

Alatorre-Munoz Family Oct 17-18, 2018
 The Alatorre-Munoz family received drywall and insulation in their house on Oct. 17 and 18, 2018 sponsored by Bill and Kathy McClennen and Mary Ann Quann. Their Corazon house is situated on a windy bluff in Cerro Azul outside of Tecate. The house has no heater. The family consists of the father, Francisco, mother Lucia, son Francisco, 16, daughter Itzel, 14, and son Angel, 10, and for now, brother Eduardo, 23, his wife Haydee, and their baby Emanuel, 1 year. Francisco works in a Toyota factory, Lucia, works for a financial company, and is a Corazon volunteer, their children are in school, and Eduardo is a potter. Lucia says that Corazon has helped them in many ways. Because of the tutoring classes, all their children are getting good grades in school, she's also learned how to sew; received their Corazon house, and now, this drywall and insulation. They were thrilled to receive this sponsorship and thank God for His blessings upon them.

If you would like to help sponsor a project such as this, please call Doug and Jean Knudson at 714-992-2905.

It helps spouses uncover or re-awaken the love, trust and commitment that originally brought them together. The program is highly successful in saving hurting marriages, even bringing reconciliation to couples who have already separated or divorced.

For confidential information about or to register for the program beginning with a weekend on January 18 - 20, 2019 call (714) 306-6469 or visit the web site at www.retrouvaille.org.
