The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

Jesus said,
"This is my blood
of the covenant,
which will be shed for many.
Amen, I say to you,
I shall not drink again
the fruit of the vine
until the day
when I drink it new in the kingdom of God."

Mark 14:24-25

THE PARISH AS ONE BODY

*"If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be?
If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be?
But as it is, God placed the parts, each one of them, in the body as he intended...
The eye cannot say to the hand, 'I do not need you,' nor again the head to the feet, 'I do not need you.'
Indeed, the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are all the more necessary.
Now you are Christ's body, and individually parts of it."* (1 Cor. 12:17-25)

The Seven Essential Elements of Parish Life constantly interrelate, each nurturing and supporting the other with the communal celebration of Sunday Eucharist at the center.

A NOTE FROM FR. MIKE PONTARELLI, O.S.M.

I hope the deep experiences of our lives are kind of the same. Of all the places I have been, there is no place better than a meal with family or good friends. It does not have to be in a fine restaurant or glamorous home, just family and friends. Not because the time is without argument – I’m from an Italian family – but because we are sharing a meal, especially a family meal together. Until mostly all of them died, family meals were especially important. It might have always been the same routine, as a ritual, the same spaghetti EVERY Sunday, but that was what we looked forward to, what we did, how we knew we belonged. When she was in her mid-eighties, my maternal grandmother decided to sell her home and move in with my long widowed mother. I almost always joined them for Sunday dinner; salad, spaghetti, fish or meat, dessert. Wine. One particular Sunday Grandma wasn’t so happy; she was greatly unsettled. “What’s wrong?” I asked innocently. Mom made all kinds of gestures, no comment, just arms moving like a Dutch windmill. “Don’t seem like Sunday, no macaronis!” said Grandma. Grandma always called them “macaronis.” Just then I understood. “It is not Sunday.” I lied. “Yes it is, you’re here.” She knew better. “Grandma, it’s Monday, a day off of school.” “No, it’s not, I’ll show you!” She went and got the newspaper, “See, it says (with a long A sound) here, SUNDAY!” “That’s yesterday’s paper!” “I’ll show you!” She turned on the television, 60 Minutes was on the air. Routine ritual gives meaning to life. Sunday macaronis with red gravy (not sauce).

It’s not just routine. It’s what we do to be family. It’s what we do to know who we are.

The Feast of Corpus Christi that we celebrate today, is our feast of nourishment. Our feast of identity. This is REAL food, it’s really the precious Body and Blood of Jesus. It’s what we eat to be holy, to be like God. Unlike the food that Adam and Eve ate to be like God, they died. This is the Food of Eternal life.

Corpus Christi, the feast we celebrate today, was for centuries one of the greatest feasts of our Church. Several cities around the globe are named after it. “Sacramento” or “Corpus Christi” cities dot the states. Many parts of Catholicism still celebrate this feast on the Thursday following Trinity Sunday. In those cultures, businesses are shuttered for the day as the feast and its Sacrament is brought out into the streets for cultural ritual celebration. The consecrated host is brought in procession, brought through the everyday cobbles and muck, just as Jesus first did in Bethlehem. Kings, queens, hardened sinners, and daily communicants all fall to their knees. The community is gathered, stories are told, and food is eaten. That’s the celebration of a feast.

Ah, the Eucharist! Through it a spiritual bond is forged between us and Jesus - between us and God Almighty. As His Body and Blood are coursing throughout our body and blood, we are in a more intimate relationship with Christ.

And, basically, it's as simple as that. If we have a deep faith in Jesus - a deep faith in the Eucharist - we won't need complicated religious systems or big words or faraway shrines or apparitions to bring us closer to God. The Eucharist is Jesus - is God Himself. The Eucharist is everything. What more could anyone want? I surely can't think of anything else that would (or could) bring me closer to God.

So, how do we receive our Lord in the Eucharist? Do we receive Him with wonder and awe and delight and, most of all, love? Do we greet Him as our long lost lover who has just come back to us after being away? Or, do we take Jesus for granted? When we're in line to receive Him, are we only 'going to communion' rather than 'I'm in Holy Communion with Him'? Which is it for you?

How do YOU receive the Sunday Bread of Life? It can be received every day!
Celebrate the Bread of Life.

GO FALCONS! GO FALCONS! Congratulations to all who have graduated or will graduate from any school soon - remember who your teachers were and what they taught you. Remember who your friends are. Go from your schools and begin your next chapter of life. GO FALCONS!

June 9th and 10th

Servite Mission Collection

The first American Servites arrived in Zululand, Natal, South Africa in 1948. The area was remote with no industry, job opportunities, lack of roads, electricity, no schools, poverty and the political system of apartheid. Today, several Servite Friars, including a couple Zulu Friars, minister to the Zululand Servite Missions — thanks to the generosity of the Servite Mission Collection in parishes like ours.

Please continue to generously support the good work of the Servite Friars who serve in many countries throughout the world. The collection next weekend will help the Missions in South Africa.

PRECIOUS BLOOD

On this solemnity we focus our attention on the Body and Blood of Christ. We listen to the story of the renewal of the old covenant, which Moses sealed by splashing the blood of animals on the altar of sacrifice, as well as on the people. Jesus, whose blood is the blood of the new covenant, shed that precious blood on the cross, saving us from sin and promising us everlasting life. Blood is the life source that courses through our bodies. The precious blood of Christ is the life source for our spirits. Today may we, like the psalmist, offer a sacrifice of thanks-giving to the Lord, whose Body and Blood strengthen us to bring the Good News to everyone we meet. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

Next weekend, Saturday June 9th and Sunday June 10th, our annual fundraiser for Corazon is taking place after all the Masses outside of church. Volunteers from St. Juliana will be at tables to provide additional information about our projects. This year our goal is to raise $4000.00 for a Room Addition construction project. ## SMALL CHRISTIAN COMMUNITIES - DINNERS FOR THE HOMELESS

St. Juliana Small Christian Communities and other parishioners will be preparing dinners for the homeless June 9-29. The Interfaith Shelter Network is managed by MERCY HOUSE to assist clients who are working or seeking jobs locally. Several churches in North Orange County offer facilities to house 8-10 clients for up to 4 weeks. We will be assisting the Brea Congregational Church to supply dinners and food for breakfasts and sack lunches.

MERCY HOUSE provides the managers for the program. We deliver dinners to the church between 5:30 and 6:00 PM. Clients commit to staying up to 3 months, then go to work or interviews during the day, arrive for dinner, stay for the night, get breakfast and lunch to go, plus bus passes if needed, and counseling as needed.

Anyone interested in assisting with dinners or providing money for breakfast and lunch supplies please contact Barbara Dietterle, coordinator for SCC's and Spiritual Partners in Care, at 714-292-4920.

R.C.I.A. (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults)

Summer is a time to recharge our internal batteries ~ soak up some sun, play golf, go to the beach, spend some relaxing time with family and friends, etc. Summer can be such an enjoyable time to rejuvenate our soul!

Summer is also a time to take stock of our lives. How is your relationship with Jesus these days? Do you turn to Him for strength? ...for guidance?... for forgiveness?

Please spend some time this summer reconnecting with Jesus. Pray everyday with purpose. Strive to be an intentional disciple of His. If you or someone you know is searching for a way to connect with our faith and are interested in being baptized in the Catholic Church or have not completed all Sacraments of Initiation (Eucharist and Confirmation) and wish to do so, please call our Parish Office at 714-879-1965 and ask to speak with our Faith Formation Director, Mike McHenry. We are gathering a list of names and interviewing candidates now for the RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) 2018-19 sessions which will begin the end of August. We look forward to talking with you and assisting in your discernment.

Note: We are always looking for men and women who feel called to be RCIA Sponsors. A Sponsor walks the journey with an RCIA Candidate through their year of faith formation...it is a very rewarding experience! Please contact the Parish Office if you have ever wondered how to sponsor an RCIA candidate and would possibly be interested in doing so.

THIS THURSDAY
Join for 8am Mass followed by refreshments in the Parish Center.

To our parish community - for all the support you give the school - please join us for Mass and a Reception to give thanks and praise!

Piety - will help you to pray to God in true devotion.

Fear of the Lord - always have the feeling of amazement (Awe and Wonder) before God, who is all-present, and whose friendship you do not want you to lose. Be in awe of our God, who loves you dearly!
