VISION & MISSION STATEMENTS

The vision of St. Juliana Falconieri Catholic Community is to live as a people of God with Christ at the center of our lives through liturgy, faith formation and community.

Our mission is to be a welcoming family dedicated to proclaiming the gospel, celebrating the Sacraments, educating, serving, and providing opportunity for all to enrich their faith.

Order of Friar Servants of Mary United States of America Province

THE PARISH AS ONE BODY

*"If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be?
If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be?
But as it is, God placed the parts, each one of them, in the body as he intended...
The eye cannot say to the hand, 'I do not need you,' nor again the head to the feet, 'I do not need you.'
Indeed, the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are all the more necessary.
Now you are Christ's body, and individually parts of it."* (1 Cor. 12:17-25)

The Seven Essential Elements of Parish Life constantly interrelate, each nurturing and supporting the other with the communal celebration of Sunday Eucharist at the center.

When I reflect on my greatest teachers, I recall those who taught and encouraged me to read, especially fiction. Non-fiction is an easier read. I know, not everyone enjoys the humanities, literature and art. However, it is those soft-sciences that teach us how to be human beings. More students are directed to the “hard sciences.” Hard not because good grades are difficult but because those studies have conclusions that are objective: “Either the apple falls or it does not.” There is no personal choice. The soft sciences of the humanities seem to be “write what you FEEL to be true” as if there is no data to evaluate or evidence to consider. I made a homily comment last weekend: “I had physics and I got over it. (As if it were a disease.) I had mathematics to college calculus level and today my concern with math is money.” All teaching is important; it trains the mind to think, to reason with data and form valid conclusions. That’s way it is learned, not because of the usefulness of algebra in everyday life, but because of the beauty of the equation, the way a character in a novel can transform your life, the beautiful sight of visual art that delights the eyes, mind, and heart.

In 1972 the United States Bishops wrote a pastoral message “To Teach as Jesus Did.” His was to teach with stories that transform lives. Jesus told stories, parables, about what was ordinary with an unexpected twist that changed lives because they challenged perspectives, previously unchallenged certitudes and opened otherwise closed windows and doors. With stories Jesus made bridges leading to service of neighbor and love for the stranger. Short stories and novels have their own ways of coming into our lives and awakening in us a different perspective. It is not possible to read To Kill A Mockingbird, Huckleberry Finn, The Catcher in the Rye, or Hard Times and not be made aware of human life. Psst: that’s exactly why they are or were on the canon of literature to be read in classrooms across our country. Short stories do the same. In classrooms we considered A Good Man Is Hard To Find, The Gift of The Magi, or The Love Song of J. Alfred Prufrock. John F. Kennedy famously said: “When power leads man toward arrogance, poetry reminds him of his limitations. When power narrows the areas of man’s concern, poetry reminds him of the richness and diversity of his existence...for art establishes the basic human truths which must serve as the touchstone of our judgment.” Literature and visual art awaken the human in us. With them we are invited into another person’s life to transform our own life.

Msgr. Michael
Heher

St. Juliana Community – it is with great hope of an experience of transforming us that I have asked Msgr. Michael Heher of the Diocese of Orange, past Vicar General and currently the pastor of St. Anne Parish in Seal Beach, (Fr. Bob Vidal, once a pastor here at St. Juliana, is with him), to present a talk on Flannery O’Connor to us. Msgr. Mike has earned a PhD in the study of Flannery O’Connor. In a new video series of Pivotal Players in Catholic Christianity, Bishop Barron is including Flannery O’Connor. She is important! Msgr. Mike will preside at the 5:00PM Mass on Sunday August 5th, be with us for a free dinner and present a literature on Flannery O’Connor. Please bring your own beverages. During his talk, adults will be available to watch children at play outside. Bring the family. RSVP to Curtis Wesseln at the parish office 714.869.3829 so there will be food for you and your family/friends. (See page 7 of this bulletin for more RSVP info.)

Flannery O'Connor

Fr. Paul
Addison, OSM

On the following Sundays August 12 and 19 a Servite Priest from London, Fr. Paul Addison, OSM will come to us. Fr. Paul was my novice master and is a dear friend, a brother in the Order to me. He will speak to us on Mary and Art on August 12 and St. Juliana and Servite Spirituality on August 19. On two other nights he will present a teaching on the Liturgy, the Mass.

Both of these men are talented. I am excited that they can be with us. Please make time to avail yourself to them and the St. Juliana Community. August will be as a parish on retreat! Be transformed by literature and art. Be renewed in spirituality and worship. Be formed as the parish of St. Juliana this summer!

HOSPITALITY / USHERING

Ushers & Greeters

We are so glad you
are here, at Mass,
celebrating with the church community
every Sunday!

Would you like to meet more people in the congregation, or help greet people as they arrive at Mass? We have an opportunity for you! Ushering.

Yes, ushering. No experience is required and limited time commitment is needed. Ushering is a wonderful way to get involved, without a major time commitment....

you are already at Mass!

We need to bolster our team of committed Hospitality Ministers as Ushers at Mass. It's a great way for you to bond in the church community and meet folks who are new or have been here for decades. It is also a way to live our parish motto as it opens, "Our mission is to be a welcoming family..."

Be part of this "welcome" - We need your help! Please contact lead Hospitality Usher, Ron Green for more details at 909-597-2299 or email hospitality@stjulianachurch.org.

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL NEWS

St. Vincent de Paul (SVdP) Ministry recently received the following note from one of our neighbors in need (Friends) who had visited the Pantry.

"THANK YOU!! Through a series of events I found myself in June without money or resources. Thank heaven for your food program. It was a lifesaver. I had been working part-time so not eligible for food stamps. That ended in May, but left me stranded in June, July maybe better. So if I don't see you again, please know how much I appreciate your help."

On behalf of the entire Conference, THANK YOU to the parishioners of St. Juliana for their generosity with both food donations and financial contributions to SVdP which allows us to assist our neighbors in need with both food at our weekly Pantry and financial assistance for rents, utility bills, and temporary housing. May you keep the St. Vincent de Paul Conference in your prayers as we continue to assist our Friends in need.

Steven Joerger,
President, St. Juliana Conference, St. Vincent de Paul
