VISION & MISSION STATEMENTS

The vision of St. Juliana Falconieri Catholic Community is to live as a people of God with Christ at the center of our lives through liturgy, faith formation and community.

Our mission is to be a welcoming family dedicated to proclaiming the gospel, celebrating the Sacraments, educating, serving, and providing opportunity for all to enrich their faith.

Order of Friar Servants of Mary United States of America Province

THE PARISH AS ONE BODY

*"If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be?
If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be?
But as it is, God placed the parts, each one of them, in the body as he intended...
The eye cannot say to the hand, 'I do not need you,' nor again the head to the feet, 'I do not need you.'
Indeed, the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are all the more necessary.
Now you are Christ's body, and individually parts of it."* (1 Cor. 12:17-25)

The Seven Essential Elements of Parish Life constantly interrelate, each nurturing and supporting the other with the communal celebration of Sunday Eucharist at the center.

Sometimes I begin reading a novel and skip to the very end to see what the final action is. I'm of course looking for: "And they lived happily-ever-after." I do the same with the lectionary's Gospel passages. As with any homily, between the beginning and the end is Content. (Read filler, laugh in on hour.)

So it was with the Feast of the Epiphany. Magi wanted to encounter the newborn king of the Jews. Once they were in his presence, "they departed for their country by another way." And today, the Baptism of the Lord: "The people were filled with expectation" and a voice came from heaven, "You are my beloved Son; with you I am well pleased."

When you come to prayer do you want to encounter Jesus? When you pray what do you expect? When you conclude prayer or Mass or any sacrament, do you depart for your home "by another way?" When you pray are you filled with expectation, at the conclusion of your prayer do you hear: "You are my beloved child, I am pleased with you"?

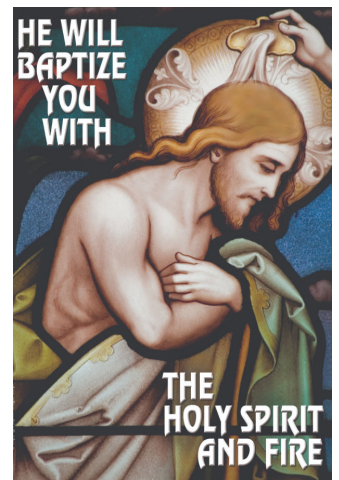

Prayer raises us to God, prayer joins us to God. Prayer is a relationship with God. We can forget God; God cannot forget us. Prayer unifies what ordinary life tears apart. God's love tells me that I am pleasing to Him, that I am beloved in His sight. At prayer's conclusion I go on with life "by another way." I am made whole. I have found "life in abundance." That's the celebration of the liturgy, it's the work of prayer and it's prayer at work.

Encounters with Jesus necessarily change the one who prays, the one who celebrates the presence of God. Bring a baby to be baptized, a sinner to the confessional, a hungry person to Eucharist, a seeker of God to Confirmation, a sick person to the Sacrament of the Sick, a couple in love to Matrimony, or a man of service to Word and Sacrament to Holy Orders and each recipient of Sacramental Grace is changed. So are families. You cannot bring a child to be baptized to the church and leave as you came. You don't come to the church to be married and leave the same way you arrived. Amazing Grace!

The baptism of Jesus made his identity and our relationship with his Father clear. Make your relationship with Jesus strong and clear. Following his baptism, he and everyone else went home in a different way. You, now, "Go and glorify the Lord by the way you live your life!"

The Feast of the Baptism of Jesus completes the Christmas season. Christmas season, that's important. While society seems to ready us for Christmas and get us to Christmas, for the most part, "The Holidays" end on December 26th— not so for the Church. As we prepare for the day, we celebrate the day, and the season. Why run fast only to slam into a wall? There was a priest/friar of the Servite's English Province (the UK) who, at the conclusion of events, would proclaim: "Well, that was your Mass, hope you liked it, there will be another one tomorrow." "Well, that was your birthday, hope you liked it, you'll have another one next year." From him I heard: "Well, that was your Christmas, hope you liked it. There will be another next year." RIP Fr. Philip Allen, OSM. I fear all the characters are dead!

Live happily-ever-after.

IT'S NOW - THIS IS THE SUNDAY, MONDAY IS THE MONDAY

—I am so pleased to present Professor Jean Twenge Sunday (today) at 6:30PM and tomorrow, Monday at 6:30PM.

An expert in the field of generational studies, she will tell us about today's young generation, those born after 1995. To understand them better, come. To understand media and its role in their lives, come. To help preserve family and youth, come. Dr. Twenge has also written about the millennials. She has another fantastic book Narcissism Epidemic. She is a professor at San Diego State University, the mother of children herself. "Many parents have no idea what their children are doing on social media, many feel helpless." That's a reason to be present and to invite your friends and the parents of your children's friends! Please invite friends from all communities. We are happy to have your friends. Frankly, bring enemies! God bless.

ARMORY CLOTHING DONATION - INFORMATION

After many years, our St. Juliana Armory group has elected to no longer serve at the Fullerton Armory. As a result, we have stopped collecting clothes for distribution at the Armory. Our volunteer group has given many hours of loyal service for more than 10 years. We are now going into retirement for a number of reasons. It is our understanding that the Fullerton Armory will reopen sometime in January, but is being phased out since other facilities are in development.

Please direct your clothing donations to other charities, such as:

Assistance League of Fullerton, 233 West Amerige, or Goodwill at 2430 E. Chapman Ave., and 634 S. Brea Blvd. Thank You!

JEAN M. TWENGE, PHD - THIS SUNDAY AND MONDAY, JAN 13 & 14

iGen: Understanding the Smartphone Generation Finding a Balance with Technology

The iGen is the first generation to spend their entire childhood in the age of the smartphone, and this fact alone seems to have an important impact on who they are and how they relate to the world. More than previous generations, they are obsessed with safety, focused on tolerance, and have no patience for inequality. They are also "on the brink of the worst mental health crisis in decades."

In this lively talk on January 13 and 14 at our St. Juliana Parish Center we will explore the idea that iGen may be growing up more slowly than previous generations. Also, learn what practical tools may be utilized to best meet the developmental needs of children and encourage their independence and autonomy.

ABOUT THE SPEAKER

Jean Twenge, Ph.D, is a professor of Psychology at San Diego State University and the author of more than 140 scientific publications and books, including iGen: Why Today's Super-Connected Kids Are Growing Up Less Rebellious, More Tolerant, Less Happy-and Completely Unprepared for Adulthood. Dr. Twenge frequently gives talks and seminars on teaching and working with today's young generation based on a dataset of 11 million young people. Her research has appeared in The Atlantic and The New York Times (to name a few) and she has been featured on the Today Show, NBC Nightly News, Fox & Friends, NPR and CNN.

HELP NEEDED - DAILY MASS READER

We are in immediate need of a morning lector (reader), especially for the Wednesday 8am Mass.

This would not entail reading every Wednesday; often our school children read at morning Mass too.

If you are interested, and would like to consider assisting with reading at daily Mass, please contact the Parish Office or Vern Meurer at (714) 870-7524.

Adult Confirmation

ADULT CONFIRMATION

Through Confirmation the individual's baptism is reinforced, and sealed. This sacrament, like baptism, may only be celebrated once. It is closely linked with baptism in that there is an anointing with oil (Chrism), laying on of hands, and special activity of the Holy Spirit.

When celebrated apart from Baptism & First Holy Communion, the bishop or a priest designated by him is the minister of Confirmation.

St. Juliana Church will be presenting class sessions on Tuesday evenings starting March 19 and conclude on June 9th with the celebration of Pentecost on June 9th.

If you are over the age of 18 and have not received the Sacrament of Confirmation please contact Mike McHenry at 714-853-1193.

“THE GOOD NEWS”

You can stay connected to the heart and soul of our St. Juliana Catholic Community through email. We have created a weekly “The Good News” email to keep our parish and school informed on-line. Whether it is our Sunday bulletin, the weekly readings of the Gospel, or parish dates and information, you now have the opportunity to receive updates every week through Constant Contact. Join the 300 parishioners who are already receiving “The Good News”.

Go to www.stjulianachurch.org and click on “The Good News” on the home page to give us permission to send you “The Good News” and other parish information. Your email address will be safeguarded. If you know of parishioners who have moved or students who are away at school and they would like to receive the latest on the happenings here at St. Juliana, please have them contact us with their email addresses. For further information please contact Jan Young 714.879.1965.

2018 CONTRIBUTION STATEMENTS

Financial statements verifying your financial gifts to St. Juliana Falconieri and its ministries will be mailed to you by January 31, 2019. The statement will include donations made payable to St. Juliana Falconieri Church, including those for special diocesan collections (except PSA - see more info on PSA below).

The Orange County Catholic Foundation will also be mailing a separate statement to those who have contributed $100.00 or more to the Pastoral Services Appeal (PSA). Please contact the Diocese of Orange if you contributed to the PSA and do not receive a statement.

If you do not currently use pre-printed Sunday envelopes, but wish to begin, please email your request to our Business Manager, Esteban Jimenez at esteban.jimenez@stjulianachurch.org. The parish pays a minimal cost for each envelope packet and the envelopes save volunteer time, staff time and paper, as well as ensuring the accuracy of the recording of your contributions. Mr. Jimenez can also provide you with information on how to sign-up for giving electronically to the Church. Many families in our parish have opted out of receiving paper envelopes so they can electronically customize their parish contributions.

Questions and concerns please contact Esteban directly at 714-853-1192. Thank you for your stewardship to our parish and its ministries!
