VISION & MISSION STATEMENTS

The vision of St. Juliana Falconieri Catholic Community is to live as a people of God with Christ at the center of our lives through liturgy, faith formation and community.

Our mission is to be a welcoming family dedicated to proclaiming the gospel, celebrating the Sacraments, educating, serving, and providing opportunity for all to enrich their faith.

Order of Friar Servants of Mary United States of America Province

THE PARISH AS ONE BODY

*"If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be?
If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be?
But as it is, God placed the parts, each one of them, in the body as he intended...
The eye cannot say to the hand, 'I do not need you,' nor again the head to the feet, 'I do not need you.'
Indeed, the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are all the more necessary.
Now you are Christ's body, and individually parts of it."* (1 Cor. 12:17-25)

The Seven Essential Elements of Parish Life constantly interrelate, each nurturing and supporting the other with the communal celebration of Sunday Eucharist at the center.

A NOTE FROM FR. MIKE PONTARELLI, O.S.M

I have trouble with the end of the liturgical year readings. Ugh, the Temple will fall. We live in Orange County, CA – nothing is forever. Anaheim Stadium has been re-modeled, perhaps rebuilt, three times since 1966. I enjoy a walk around the Magic Kingdom just to find its original pieces. Our own St. Juliana Church complex has undergone many “enhancements” since 1965 when it was founded. We Catholics glory with the re-do of a cathedral church in Garden Grove from Crystal to Christ Forever.

I no longer expect original physical structures to last forever. I mourn the demolition of old buildings of which I grew fond for newer ones. However, the loss of the immaterial is a more significant sadness. The passing of “Old-time religion” and “old time civility” is worth mourning. Sometimes the negotiable and the non-negotiable are tossed into the same trash bin. The baby is lost with the bath water.

Simple values used to be expected. We’ve come a long way from the simple values that got us through the Great Depression and two world wars. From Leave it to Beaver to the Simpsons, from General Eisenhower to The Kardashians, times they’ve been a changing. Today winning is far more important than playing the game, honorably, with dignity. We’re bombarded every moment by reminders that how we look and smell and dress is far more important than being authentic. Nothing succeeds like the appearance of success. And there is no success without excess. When Tweets become truth, it’s surface over substance.

Don’t over-look these gems in today’s Gospel. Jesus tells us, “See to it that you [will] not be deceived.” Means do not be naïve. “By your perseverance you will secure your lives.” Means do not despair. And a great kicker in the middle, the one I have great trouble with, “Do not worry about your defense beforehand.” Can that mean, it’s all improvisation? Most likely, it means, when you have a relationship with Jesus he is at not only your side, but also your leader. Let Jesus be your strength and salvation.

We can lose physical structures. Past wars blew many churches to rubble. Intellectual arguments challenge religious Truth. Yet the faith survives. Great basilicas, cathedrals, and libraries can be destroyed. Church trappings will change.

The church survived even the physical destruction of its Founder! But as long as even a few hearts are galvanized by the joy of the Incarnation and the promise of Resurrection, someone, somewhere will be whispering, “Take this and eat. This is my Body.” We’ll always have what St. Thomas Aquinas called the Eucharist, “Food for the journey.” And nothing in God’s creation could prevent Christ from coming to us and us going out into the world and heaven.

What Good News will you spread this week?

Be present with the community to begin Thanksgiving Day at 9:00AM Mass complete with choir. The Thanksgiving Day collection will be given to the St. Vincent DePaul Society.

Our parish office is in need of an “industrial sized” paper shredder. Might any of your offices have one that we can inherit? Kindly phone Mr. Esteban Jimenez in the office.

Fr. Jerry Horan, OSM who helps with Mass during the week and on Good Friday – suffered a stroke in Rome while attending the General Chapter of the Order. If you prepare a “Get Well” card I can get it delivered to him. Please give it to me or drop in the deposit box at the office. He is making steady progress recovering. Father is finding it difficult to be away from home. His birthday is December 12. Your continued prayers will make a mountain of difference. Thanks so much.

LIFE IS HARD, BUT HAVE NO FEAR

Today’s readings take a fearless look at reality and reach a conclusion that we all know: life is hard. The prophet Malachi preaches fire and brimstone, warning us that evildoers will perish in flames. Saint Paul offers his own warning to the Thessalonians: keep busy, but never become a busybody. He reminds Christians that the apostles themselves worked in “toil and drudgery” as a model for how we ought to contribute to our community. The Gospel returns to the apocalyptic tone of Malachi, describing the utter chaos of the end-times. We will know the end is near when violence, catastrophe, and hatred dominate the earth. But we must not fear! God’s saving plan brings peace to our hearts. Malachi speaks of the sun’s “healing rays,” and Jesus himself promises to protect every hair on our heads. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

TODAY’S READINGS

First Reading — For those who fear the name of the Lord, the sun of justice will arise (Malachi 3:19-20a).

Psalms — The Lord comes to rule the earth with justice (Psalm 98).

Second Reading — Those who are living in idleness are urged to earn their own living (2 Thessalonians 3:7-12).

Gospel — Jesus foretells the destruction of Jerusalem, the persecution of his followers (Luke 21:5-19).

NEW CHAIRMAN FOR THE PARISH RESPECT LIFE MINISTRY NEEDED

At the end of 2019, Barbara Legas, who has served in the parish Respect Life Group for 43 years (with the last 30 years as chairman) will be retiring. There is a need for someone to take over as chairman.

The need for this ministry is just as great now as it was 43 years ago, when Abortion was legalized in America with the Roe v Wade Supreme Court Decision. Both the beginning of life, in the womb, and the end of life years continue to be threatened as never before. At least 9 states have passed bills this year to make it legal to kill babies immediately after a live birth. And many states, at the other end of life's spectrum, have legalized assisted suicide over the last several years. It is important to have someone in place before the start of 2020, as January has many Pro-Life events in the Diocese :

- 44th anniversary of Roe v Wade;
- January 14-22 is the 9 DAYS FOR LIFE;
- January 18 is ONE LIFE LA (walk for life); and
- January 22 is the MASS FOR LIFE at the Christ Cathedral.

The next 40 DAYS FOR LIFE PRAYERVIGILS at Planned Parenthood start on Ash Wednesday, February 26 and continues daily until Palm Sunday.

If you feel called to help lead in this ministry, you can call Barbara at 714-870-4214.

Honoring

Ron & Carole Cassell

MORE CORAZON NEWS

On October 12th Maria Elena and Antonio received insulation and drywall in their Corazon house thanks to a generous donation from a St. Juliana family. This project not only helped a family, but served as a training opportunity for both Corazon Board Members and Mexican youth. Our goal is to promote self-sufficiency in drywall installation within the local Mexican communities. One of the requirements before qualifying for a Corazon house, or asking for improvements on their existing house is that the Corazon member must own or be making payments on their own piece of land so their house won't be taken from them. It is common for homeowners in poor areas to build their own homes from whatever materials they can find even if they have little knowledge of construction. The result is a collage of shapes and sizes which get ruined by the weather. Corazon members can live better and give back to their community. Maria Elena is not able to have a job because of health reasons. But, she is able to volunteer at the local Corazon community center taking care of the children or cleaning up the kitchen. Maria Elena is a shy, quiet person and joining this group has enabled her to make friends in the community. Antonio, who is more outgoing, is retired and volunteers as a bagger at a local Walmart. He makes sandwiches to sell to the workers at lunchtime to supplement his pension. He is a wonderful person who married Maria Elena 18 years ago when she was a single Mom with 10 children. The youngest child, now 29, lives with them because she has some disabilities.

Michelangelo's Sistine Chapel: The Exhibition is an immersive showcase of museum quality, near-life-size reproductions of the iconic master's 34 frescos that adorn the Sistine Chapel in the Vatican.

Now through January 11, 2020 visitors can see this art in a close to life-size, never before seen perspective. It's a perfect experience for those who have never been to Rome and want to see the art work AND for those who have been to the Sistine Chapel and want a closer look and to learn more about each fresco.

This is an excellent opportunity for your parishioners to experience both the exhibition and the progress made on Christ Cathedral campus. Guests can enhance their experience by adding an optional self-guided audio narrative available in 5 languages.

The reverse side of this memo illustrates a variety of promotional materials we would like to make available for you and your parish. Kindly call or email me to order. There is no cost and I will ensure you receive the materials quickly.

Exhibit times: All 7 days/week 10am-5pm
