THE PARISH AS ONE BODY

*"If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be?
 If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be?
 But as it is, God placed the parts, each one of them, in the body as he intended...
 The eye cannot say to the hand, 'I do not need you,' nor again the head to the feet, 'I do not need you.'
 Indeed, the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are all the more necessary.
 Now you are Christ's body, and individually parts of it."* (1 Cor. 12:17-25)

The Seven Essential Elements of Parish Life constantly interrelate, each nurturing and supporting the other with the communal celebration of Sunday Eucharist at the center.

A NOTE FROM FR. MIKE PONTARELLI, O.S.M

For many years I've started these lines with this sentiment: "It seems odd to use the modifier 'holy' before family. Shrinks, philosophers, and sociologists suggest that the family is dysfunctional." Let them suggest the family is dysfunctional, let us believe the family is holy. Further, let us make it our intention to make it holy and live as a holy family. Shouldn't we, by our religious identity, be different?

Here's the point: The Gospel suggests that "Herod is going to search for the child to destroy him." Popular culture has been destroying Jesus, the family, and children for a long time. It didn't just happen "in these, the most difficult of all times." All times are difficult, all times are the best of times.

Academic literature often refers to family as an institution. That reminds me of one of my favorite comedians, Groucho Marx and his quip that "marriage is a great institution, if you like living in an institution." Catholic Christians believe that marriage is a covenant that a man and woman make primarily to God through each other. They do this because they love each other and want to grow in love. Remember, and never forget, love is the reason you began your marriage and love is the reason you remain married. Love creates your family and as the trite song suggests: "Love will keep us together."

Strangely, some of the most dedicated parents I know do not seem to realize that the most important gift they can give their kids is the evident solidity of the marriage itself. Kids need a gut conviction that Mom and Dad had a precious relationship before they came along and that the bond between them is something the kids can rely on without a shadow of doubt.

"Herod is searching for the child to destroy him." That's still true of our children. The media and the pop-culture are searching for them, not literally to destroy them, but to own them, program them, entice them into willing slavery. If you put into one pan and balance all the time parents and children that is, the family, share with one another, and in the other pan all the time children spend on "smart electronic devices" which would outweigh the other?

Many prayers celebrate the Feast of The Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph. Here's the one from the Feast – found in the Roman Missal:

O God, who were please to give us
the shining example of the Holy Family, graciously grant that we may imitate them in practicing the virtues of family life and in the bonds of charity, and so, in the joy of your house,
delight one day in eternal rewards.

We pray through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
One God, for ever and ever.

Amen.

SALVATION IN DAILY LIFE

This Sunday is the feast of the Holy Family, which comes on the first Sunday after Christmas Day. Today's feast celebrates how the humanity of Jesus (including his entire family life) has brought saving significance into the daily rhythms of our human family life.

The scriptures offer instruction and encouragement on how to share—within our families, parish families, and the wider human family—the love that God shares with us in Jesus. Selections from Sirach, Psalm 128, and Colossians encourage us to reflect divine love and thus find holiness in all our human relationships. The reading from Matthew's Gospel offers a living example of love in the actions Joseph took to protect his young family from danger and to nurture them within the larger family of faith of their time.

A New Year's Prayer

Lord, You make all things new
You bring hope alive in our hearts
And cause our Spirits to be born again.

Thank you for this new year
For all the potential it holds.

Come and kindle in us
A mighty flame

So that in our time, many will see the wonders of God
And live forever to praise Your glorious name.

Amen

Due to overwhelming popularity and high demand, Michelangelo's Sistine Chapel: The Exhibition at the Christ Cathedral Campus has been extended through August 2020!

The immersive showcase features museum quality, near-life-size reproductions of the iconic master's 34 frescos that adorn the Sistine Chapel in the Vatican.

Visitors can see this art in a close to life-size, never-before-seen perspective. It's a perfect experience for those who have never been to Rome and want to see the art work AND for those who have been to the Sistine Chapel and want a closer look and to learn more about each fresco.

This is an excellent opportunity for parishioners to experience both the exhibition and the progress made on Christ Cathedral Campus.

Guests can enhance their experience by adding an optional self-guided audio narrative available in 5 languages.

Exhibit times: All 7 days/week 10 a.m. - 5 p.m.
