THE PARISH AS ONE BODY

*"If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be?
If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be?
But as it is, God placed the parts, each one of them, in the body as he intended...
The eye cannot say to the hand, 'I do not need you,' nor again the head to the feet, 'I do not need you.'
Indeed, the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are all the more necessary.
Now you are Christ's body, and individually parts of it."* (1 Cor. 12:17-25)

The Seven Essential Elements of Parish Life constantly interrelate, each nurturing and supporting the other with the communal celebration of Sunday Eucharist at the center.

The Feast of the Transfiguration of the Lord is celebrated each year on August 6th. It is also the reading for the Second Sunday of Lent regardless of the lectionary cycle; A, B, or C. It's loaded with material for dynamic spiritual reflection.

Reflect on the scene and recognize a parallel between the transfiguration and the agony in the garden. The cast of characters is pretty much the same: Jesus, Peter, James, and John. The apostles are relatively clueless. The scene: a hillside where Jesus went to pray.

Then the parallel ends. In the transfiguration, Jesus' divinity suddenly blazes through the temporary reality of his body. The disciples are stunned. In contrast, during the agony, there's nothing left of Jesus but a pleading with his Father not to make him go through the next day of humiliation and torture. And the disciples close their eyes.

Consider Peter. In the transfiguration the only thought Peter has is putting up some monument to the occasion: tents for Jesus, Moses, and Elijah. And Luke says flat out: "He didn't really know what he was saying." Because he had no idea what was going on. All he knew was the awesome sense of Jesus' other-worldliness. Now, this was more like it!

This is eye awakening expectation of all followers of Jesus; the awesome sense of Jesus' other-worldliness. But, of course, he didn't know what he was talking about. He couldn't comprehend that the only way to Jesus' real glorification was up the side of another hill, Calvary. And as at his final transfiguration there would be two men on either side of him, too, but this time not the lawgiver and the prophet but two executed felons.

Paradox is at the very root of the gospels, a complete upending of our expectations: If you want the first place, take the last place; If you want to find yourself, you have to lose yourself; Blessed are those who mourn, who are persecuted, who are insulted. In the end, in the sublimest of paradoxes, Jesus triumphs because he has surrendered himself utterly to the inscrutable will of his Father.

What Peter, in his world-bound view could not comprehend, was that the Jesus of the hill of transfiguration was the same Jesus of the hill of Calvary, that suffering is the way to glory, that loss is the doorway to gain, that the wrath of God is the love of God, assessed by a fool.

So we progress this Lent from the hill of the transfiguration to the hill of Calvary.

Good journey! Stay the course! With our souls fixed on the Lord let us glorify Him with the way we live our life.

The new banners in the sanctuary were purchased with last year's PSA Worship bucket-list funds. All liturgical colors have been ordered for the sanctuary, not the nave of the church. Thank you!

The Lessons of Lent series "Be Holy, an examination of vice and virtue" continues on Monday, March 18 with Brian Traska PhD, a professor of theology (and student of mine) at University of San Diego presenting the vice of vainglory. Y'all come!

Thank you for attending the Stations of the Cross on the Fridays of Lent. Your devotion makes a difference in your life and our Catholic community.

God bless.

RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION FOR ADULTS (RCIA)

Mia

Gene

Kelly

Julia and Audrey

Please prayerfully support Catechumens Mia Elias, Ian Gene Schutt, Kelly Carranza, Julia Cabrera, and Audrey Cabrera as they prepare for their initiation into the Christian faith through the sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation and Eucharist.

(Note: We have 3 children in this process this year. They are children, not baptized as an infant, who have attained the use of reason and are of a catechetical age. As with adult initiation, unbaptized children who have reached a certain age enter into the Catholic faith through a process of liturgical rites, penitential scrutinies and celebration of the Sacraments of Baptism, Eucharist and Confirmation at the Easter Vigil.)

Ann

Darrow

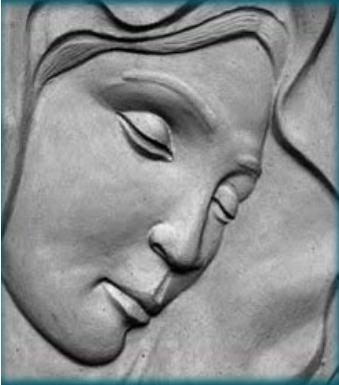

Also continue to pray for Candidates Ann Lucenti and Darrow Soares who are one with us in Baptism, and are in the process of completing their Christian initiation through the sacraments of Eucharist and Confirmation, and will be received into the full communion of the Catholic Church at the Easter Vigil.

HOPE AND HEALING AFTER ABORTION

The Diocese of Orange Office of Pastoral Care is recruiting companion ministers to serve in the Hope and Healing After Abortion Ministry, our diocesan outreach ministry for those hurt by abortion. We are in need of individuals who feel called to accompany the wounded in this very special way. It is not necessary for abortion to have been your direct experience. What is required is the ability to provide a caring, compassionate, and non-judgmental presence for someone who is suffering and who seeks reconciliation with God and their faith community. We are especially in need of those who are bi-lingual, bi-literate and bi-cultural in languages other than English (i.e., Spanish, Vietnamese, Korean, etc.) to meet the needs of all in our faith communities. The sensitivity of this ministry does require some formal training. Please prayerfully consider this ministry. We need your help! If you are interested in learning more, please contact Linda Ji at 714-282-4203 or lji@rcbo.org.
