VISION & MISSION STATEMENTS

The vision of St. Juliana Falconieri Catholic Community is to live as a people of God with Christ at the center of our lives through liturgy, faith formation and community.

Our mission is to be a welcoming family dedicated to proclaiming the gospel, celebrating the Sacraments, educating, serving, and providing opportunity for all to enrich their faith.

Order of Friar Servants of Mary United States of America Province

THE PARISH AS ONE BODY

*"If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be?
If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be?
But as it is, God placed the parts, each one of them, in the body as he intended...
The eye cannot say to the hand, 'I do not need you,' nor again the head to the feet, 'I do not need you.'
Indeed, the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are all the more necessary.
Now you are Christ's body, and individually parts of it."* (1 Cor. 12:17-25)

The Seven Essential Elements of Parish Life constantly interrelate, each nurturing and supporting the other with the communal celebration of Sunday Eucharist at the center.

A NOTE FROM FR. MIKE PONTARELLI, O.S.M

Jesus is The Christ, The Lord of Life, has been raised from the dead, the firstfruits of all who have fallen asleep.

THIS IS OUR FAITH IT'S WHY WE ARE GATHERED TODAY

Yes, this Easter Sunday, you came to hear Good News. You came here, to the place where Jesus is, to find him, the Lord of LIFE. You made not any decision, but THE decision that changed your life. You came to say the belief beyond any belief: ALLELUIA HE HAS RISEN FROM THE DEAD, IT IS TRUE AND WE BELIEVE. We acted on the belief—we came to find Jesus in this community, in the Word of Scripture, and in the Bread of Life.

WE ARE LIVING THE DREAM

How often do you say it? How often do you think it? How often is it true for you?
I'm living the dream! I hear it often; I hope you do as well. Often it is said as a joke or sarcastically.
Yet, today of all days, it is true.

WE ARE LIVING THE DREAM.

We dream of - - breaking the barriers of limits, brave heroes, happiness forever.
Today, this Easter Day, you came to hear Good News,
you came to live the dream.
Jesus broke the limit. The limit of death, the limit of being estranged from Almighty God, – they were only glass ceilings.

YOU MADE A DECISION TO HEAR GOOD NEWS AND TO LIVE THE DREAM

Today, you gathered here in this church. Today you came to hear Good News, live the dream, and seek Jesus who is the Good News and the Dream come true. It's common on Easter Sunday to have an Easter Egg Hunt. Go in search of eggs filled with treasures found in strange places. When you find them, rejoice! Say: "Eureka, Alleluia" – "I found it, I'm so happy! I've got good news to share – chocolate, money, a new toy, a promise of something special." Today, share a table of food with family and friends. Tell the stories of your family once more. Catch up on new life, the new things that are happening in your family. You first did it here, in this church!

When you do that, you are hearing Good News, you are living the dream. You are experiencing love.

That's what we do as Catholic Christians on this Easter day. We've done it from the beginning.

Here, in this church and with you we share Good News and Live the Dream.

Welcome, we are better when we are together!

Live what you believe. Glorify God by the way you live your life.

God Bless! Happy Easter!

ALLELUIA! ALLELUIA! ALLELUIA!
ALLELUIA! ALLELUIA! ALLELUIA!

Thank you so much for your help on our blood drive at St. Juliana Catholic Church on Sunday, April 7th. We had a great turnout with 24 presenting donors, collecting 25 pints of life-saving blood. When we go through our fractionation process and spin the blood products down into components, these results equates to 67 potential lives saved through all of your efforts. Please know how thankful we are and how much we appreciate the support of Knights of Columbus that stepped up to volunteer and the parishioners that donate blood.

HAPPY EASTER!

Happy Easter! Or as most other languages prefer: Blessed Pasch—Passover! Pasqua, Pascua, Páscoa, Pâques! Israel's Passover through the Red Sea to the Promised Land! Jesus' Passover through the Cross to resurrection! Our catechumens' Passover last night, and ours once upon a time, through Baptism's waters to our family's Eucharist! Welcome, everybody! As someone once said of the Catholic Church, "Here comes everybody!" So in this Jubilee of Mercy, we make our own Saint John Chrysostom's Easter welcome from fourteen hundred years ago: "Let everyone enjoy this radiant feast! You who fasted from Lent's beginning, and you who didn't fast at all, rejoice! The table's richly set! Come, take from it, everybody, no worries, no embarrassment! All of you, taste the banquet of faith! Enjoy the feast of forgiveness! Let no one grieve for having sinned again and again: pardon has risen from the tomb!"

Happy Easter!
Blessed Pasch!
Welcome, everybody!

TREE OF LIFE

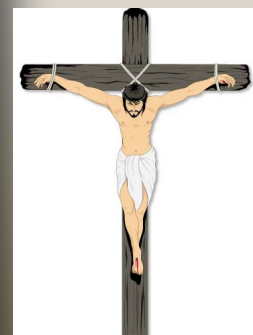

Sometimes the story of Easter seems so familiar that we yawn at its old-fashioned quaintness. The "Good News" is, after all, a couple thousand years old. Today, however, our readings remind us that we are a fresh creation in the risen Lord. Today, we marvel at the newness of Jesus. Today, we praise God for the startling way he chooses to unlock eternal life for us.

When Peter speaks in the Acts of the Apostles, he calls Jesus' cross a "tree." Peter's word choice invites us to remember another tree in scripture, the tree from which Adam and Eve selfishly ate the forbidden fruit. That tree in the Garden of Eden brought death to the human race; Jesus' tree brings life. Peter explains the purpose of our new life: we must believe in Jesus and ask forgiveness for our sins. We must leave behind the selfish disobedience of the tree of death and embrace the way of self-sacrifice Jesus modeled on the tree of life.

Another image that Easter makes new for us is the tomb. Cemeteries rarely bring us joy. No one considers a graveyard the perfect place to celebrate. And yet Jesus' burial place is the happy location of the disciples' final conversion to their new way of life. Standing in the tomb where they had placed Jesus' corpse a few days earlier, Peter and John come to understand the fullness of God's glory. God's stunning, life-giving power makes a mockery of death.

This transformation offers hope for our daily lives. Although Christ is risen, human life still faces suffering and heartache. At our lowest moments, we may be tempted to lose faith in God. Easter reminds us that Jesus himself faced the terrors life sends our way and conquered them. When we stand in dark places that feel like our very own tombs, Jesus is with us. The Lord transforms darkest death into new life.

Today's Readings: Acts 10:34a, 37-43; Ps 118:1-2, 16-17, 22-23; Col 3:1-4 or 1 Cor 5:6b-8; Jn 20:1-9

"Jesus transforms the darkest death into new life."

Lord God,
You loved this world so much,
that you gave your one and only Son,
that we might be called your children too.
Lord, help us to live in the gladness
and grace of Easter Sunday, everyday.
Let us have eyes that look upon your salvation.
Help us to walk in that mighty grace and tell your good news to the world!
All for your glory, do we pray Lord.
Amen ~ crosswalk.com

WE REMEMBER YOU

We remember you, O risen Lord,

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS—ESSAY CONTEST

Each year, the Knights of Columbus sponsor a California state essay contest in our school.

The goal of this Catholic Citizenship Essay Contest is to give students an opportunity to define the role of a Catholic citizen in many different scenarios, and to strengthen the bond between the Knights of Columbus and the school.

We continue this week as we feature the essay contest winner, Grace R., who is in the 6th grade at St. Juliana School. Her topic was: "How do I live Jesus' teachings to "love thy neighbor?"

Grace writes:

JESUS' GREATEST COMMANDMENT

"The second is this; 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.' There is no other commandment greater than this." - Mark 12:31. Everyday in school, I yearn to follow Jesus' commandment to "love your neighbor as yourself" by helping my friends when they need help, listening to others, and by being a good sixth grade buddy.

To begin, I love my neighbor by helping my friends when they need help. When we are assigned homework, sometimes my classmates ask me to help them. I help explain the work to them, especially on math assignments, and I help them understand the assignment. Next, I also love my neighbor by listening to others. Sometimes, if my friends have a problem and they need help solving it, they come to me to talk about it. I listen to them, and hear everything they are saying, and offer my advise. Finally, I love my neighbor by being a good sixth –grade buddy. At our school, the sixth and second grade classes pair up to be 'buddy classes.'" We are each assigned a second grader to be a buddy to and we have "buddy time" with them every other Friday. I am a good buddy to mine, Lucy, by paying attention to her, talking to her instead of socializing with my classmates, saying hello to her when I see her around school and just simply being kind to her.

To conclude, Jesus' commandment to love your neighbor as yourself is very important, and I yearn to live it in school each day.

Grace, thank you for this beautiful article ... may we all be a good friend to everyone we meet, just as you are!

CORAZON NEWS

On Thursday and Friday, April 4th and 5th, Teresa and Manuel Lopez-Flores and their family received a complete insulation and drywall project in their Corazon house sponsored by 6 different families, four of which are from St. Juliana Parish. The total cost for the sponsorship is $1100. After receiving their Corazon house two years ago they waited until now for a sponsor to come forward. Teresa says she is very, very thankful to her sponsors for having made a reality for them to live in a dignified manner. Even though her husband works selling cheese in downtown Tijuana, it would not be enough to ever afford the materials needed for this project. She says the prices keep getting higher. Teresa stays at home to care for her three grandchildren so that her older children can go to work. Their youngest, Arisbeth, is in high school and has a Corazon scholarship. Teresa is able to volunteer for Corazon because daycare is provided by other volunteers at the Corazon community center in her village. Teresa said that she will never get tired of thanking everybody for their support, and she wishes she could give everybody a big hug.

Please call Doug and Jean Knudson at 714-992-2905 if you would like to help a family.
