VISION & MISSION STATEMENTS

The vision of St. Juliana Falconieri Catholic Community is to live as a people of God with Christ at the center of our lives through liturgy, faith formation and community.

Our mission is to be a welcoming family dedicated to proclaiming the gospel, celebrating the Sacraments, educating, serving, and providing opportunity for all to enrich their faith.

Order of Friar Servants of Mary United States of America Province

THE PARISH AS ONE BODY

*"If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be?
If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be?
But as it is, God placed the parts, each one of them, in the body as he intended...
The eye cannot say to the hand, 'I do not need you,' nor again the head to the feet, 'I do not need you.'
Indeed, the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are all the more necessary.
Now you are Christ's body, and individually parts of it."* (1 Cor. 12:17-25)

The Seven Essential Elements of Parish Life constantly interrelate, each nurturing and supporting the other with the communal celebration of Sunday Eucharist at the center.

A NOTE FROM FR. MIKE PONTARELLI, O.S.M

Today's Gospel lesson speaks of glory and love. As always, the Gospel is 180° different from "the way of the world." Glory and love are abused in speech. In Alice in Wonderland, one book I will always have on my shelf (The Annotated Alice is best), Humpty Dumpty tells us that words can be used to mean any way the speaker wants. Glory, for example, can mean a "nice knock-down argument." Love is often defined according to a speaker's whim.

In today's Gospel, try substituting "love" for "glory." For example: "Now is the Son of man loved, and God is loved in him." It works; kinda! Meditate on this re-write; "As I have glorified you, so you also should glorify one another. This is how all will know that you are my disciples, glorify one another." The Christian's glory is to love one another as Jesus loved. Jesus is glorified by the love his disciples give to one another. By the act of glorifying another, you turn away from selfish motives and serve the other. The other becomes so important that the halo is on his/her head and not that of the speaker.

Jesus' new command is to love. Love, as service, is the only act that will make life worth living. But love costs; it takes trust. And the deeper the trust the deeper the risk, the deeper the risk, the more profound the love and joy.

Today Jesus also tells his disciples that the glory of love is tied up with the crucifixion. That's the meaning of every crucifix; a life all used up and poured out in love which gives glory to Our Heavenly Father. The road to glory is love's road.

When you are commanded at the conclusion of Mass to: "Go and glorify the Lord by the way you live your life" – how do you fulfill the command of the Savior and give glory to God?

Nifty question!

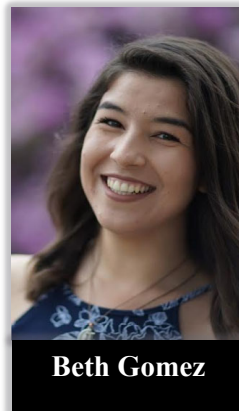

Bishop Kevin Vann will Confirm eighty-one members of our community tomorrow, Monday, May 20th. Together let us all pray that they receive a new experience of Jesus ever present in the sacrament. Pray with me that their faith formation will continue to grow strong in their lives. May they have the good example of the St. Juliana Community to give them courage to live their lives with an understanding of our faith; may they defend and be defined by their knowledge of our faith and a prayer life that draws them more deeply into a relationship with Jesus. May they serve Christ in our community. May they glorify God by the way they live their lives!

I am sad to tell you that Mr. Taylor Engel, who has been the coordinator of our Confirmation program, is leaving us to teach full time at Santa Margarita Catholic High School. I have enjoyed my interactions with him, I hope you have as well. Together we have had lively discussions of theological issues and how to best pass on the faith. I'm confident he will be a fine classroom teacher. Taylor, thanks for all you have done for the St. Juliana Community. God bless!

Ms. Beth Gomez and Mr. Gerrick Gamboa have been hired to take Taylor's place. Beth will be part-time and Gerrick the main coordinator. Beth is just graduated from Cal State Fullerton where she was an active member of Titan Catholics and FOCUS. Gerrick has been ministering at St. Hedwig Parish in Los Alamitos. After two rounds of interviews, a small group of us thought a team approach to guide the candidates would be the best. Beth and Gerrick, thank you for accepting our offer – welcome to the St. Juliana Falconieri Community.

During the session, local Catholic estate planning attorneys will answer questions regarding estate taxes, probate, trusts, guardianship, selecting a personal representative, and steps on how to create or update your own plans.

Estate planning and having a will or trust in place are responsibilities we all should take seriously, regardless of our age. This is a free session, and no solicitations will be made - you will have an opportunity to receive a complimentary consultation.

If you do not have a will or trust, or you need to update yours, please join us for this important seminar.

SPRING SING & ART SHOW — “THANK YOU!”

Once again, it is with great thanks and praise that we honor the teachers who bless our school with the talent of music, drama and art. Last Friday May 10th Mrs. Erin McNally Thielke led our children in an amazing Spring Sing production and Mrs. Linda Augustin transformed our school into an incredible art exhibit.

What a beautiful evening of talent and art.

Thank you Mrs. Thielke and Mrs. Augustin for sharing your God-given gifts with our children! Thank you to all those who volunteered to help too!
