VISION & MISSION STATEMENTS

The vision of St. Juliana Falconieri Catholic Community is to live as a people of God with Christ at the center of our lives through liturgy, faith formation and community.
Our mission is to be a welcoming family dedicated to proclaiming the gospel, celebrating the Sacraments, educating, serving, and providing opportunity for all to enrich their faith.

Order of Friar Servants of Mary United States of America Province

THE PARISH AS ONE BODY

*"If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be?
If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be?
But as it is, God placed the parts, each one of them, in the body as he intended...
The eye cannot say to the hand, 'I do not need you,' nor again the head to the feet, 'I do not need you.'
Indeed, the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are all the more necessary.
Now you are Christ's body, and individually parts of it."* (1 Cor. 12:17-25)

The Seven Essential Elements of Parish Life constantly interrelate, each nurturing and supporting the other with the communal celebration of Sunday Eucharist at the center.

A NOTE FROM FR. MIKE PONTARELLI, O.S.M

Will I ever fit in with the “the crowd”? From an early age I have been a misfit. I’m an eccentric nonconformist; I identified with Andy Rooney of CBS Sixty Minutes. My surrogate nephew wrote a column in USC’s Daily Trojan newspaper titled: Un-common Sense. Un-common usually makes sense to me. Often I favor a “Copernican Revolution” or “paradigm shift.” I don’t fret too much; Jesus didn’t fit in with his own kind either. I realized long ago that I am not Jesus!

I believe more Christians are influenced by the Great Last Judgment of St. Matthew’s Gospel chapter 25; “when did we see you hungry, or without, and not help you?” than they are in today’s Gospel teaching, the Good Samaritan, “who is the neighbor?”.

I suggest a paradigm shift. What if...what if...the Good Samaritan was presented as the role model for what it means to be a Christian and Christians were told to “go and do likewise”?

Jesus is direct in Matthew’s scene. His motivation is for people to share their resources. Isn’t sharing expected of all people? Easily enough, giving to others becomes a “drop off and leave” effort. “If I just put some stuff into the collection bin, I’m a successful Christian on my way to heaven.” Guilt for not sharing is wiped clean without any human encounter.

The Good Samaritan changes the model. It says: “Being a neighbor means spending time with the one who is suffering. Care for the other.” Empathy, compassion, and interaction is the key to healing. It seems as though there is only one command: “Be kind.”

“Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?” Another way of asking: “What must I do to be a successful Christian?”

“Success” is another loaded word. “Be successful” you were taught. Who took the time to define what success actually means? Ponder: “What does success really mean to you and to our community?”

“Achieving goals.” Specifically, what are those goals? Are you trying to achieve vague goals?

Here’s today’s goal: Everlasting life. How do you achieve it?

Being like Christ is the single goal of every Christian community and its school. Friends, our Christian schools are successful when its graduates imitate Jesus Christ. Our communities are successful when a neighbor is treated with kindness. Handshakes and smiles, good cheer and laughter make for good neighbors!

In your kindness (charity) sit with the one who is called “outcast”, “nerd”, “misfit”, or whatever the new word for “loser” is today. By being a friend you become a mentor, role model, you might be preventing crime or a suicide. By inviting someone to eat with you, you’ve made a community. The epistle to the Hebrews says, “Do not forget to entertain strange people, for by so doing some people have entertained angels without knowing it.” Psst: never insult an angel.

Won’t you welcome someone at a door today? If not now, when? Be un-common here, within the St. Juliana’s Catholic Community. Then go and continue to spread Good News to everyone. How successful will you be? You are limited only by your kindness to a neighbor.

This evening welcome Bishop Tim Freyer! Enjoy a meal and conversation with the Bishop following the 5:00PM Mass which he will celebrate. This is the first of Faith, family, and food Sundays provided through PSA funds. Come, y’all! Bring the neighbors!

I know several of you have gotten spam emails and text messages associated with my name. These are not from me – do not contribute to their nonsense. Several pastors are victims of this fraud.

CHRIST CATHEDRAL - INTERESTING FACTS

- *The Diocese of Orange purchased the 78,000-square-foot cathedral in 2011 and the initial design concept was unveiled in late 2015.
- *Most Rev. Kevin W. Vann, Bishop of Orange, traveled to Verona, Italy, to personally select the stone and marble for the altar, cathedra, ambo, and baptismal font.
- *11 million parts of scaffolding, like an erector set, were required to paint the nine-story space frame that supports the glass panes of the cathedral, hoist frames, support ladders, trusses, planks and plywood.
- *Cathedral Memorial Gardens cemetery is the fourth active cemetery within the Diocese of Orange. It is the only ecumenical burial ground in the Diocese, and is a rare operating cemetery adjacent to a church. The cemetery is available to both Catholics and non-Catholics in an effort to honor the multi-denominational roots of the space.
- * Once work on the cathedral began, about 110 construction crew members were on site daily.
- *The 11,000-steel powder-coated plastic-and-fabric “quatrefoils” are window shades specially designed by the Johnson Fain architects and installed on the ceilings and walls.

“THE GOOD NEWS”

You can stay connected to the heart and soul of our St. Juliana Catholic Community through email. We have a weekly “The Good News” email to keep our parish and school informed on-line. Whether it is our Sunday bulletin, the weekly readings of the Gospel, or parish dates and information, you now have the opportunity to receive updates every week through Constant Contact.

Join the 300+ parishioners who are already receiving “The Good News”.

Go to www.stjulianachurch.org and click on “The Good News” on the home page to give us permission to send you “The Good News” and other parish information.

Your email address will be safeguarded.

If you know of parishioners who have moved or students who are away at school and they would like to receive the latest on the happenings here at St. Juliana, please have them contact us with their email addresses. For further information please contact Jan Young 714.871.2829.
