THE PARISH AS ONE BODY

*"If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be?
If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be?
But as it is, God placed the parts, each one of them, in the body as he intended...
The eye cannot say to the hand, 'I do not need you,' nor again the head to the feet, 'I do not need you.'
Indeed, the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are all the more necessary.
Now you are Christ's body, and individually parts of it."* (1 Cor. 12:17-25)

The Seven Essential Elements of Parish Life constantly interrelate, each nurturing and supporting the other with the communal celebration of Sunday Eucharist at the center.

A NOTE FROM FR. MIKE PONTARELLI, O.S.M

Fr. Philip Allen, OSM was a wonderful priest of the English Province of Servites. He was a good brother of the Order and a brilliant scholar. Phil had a wonderfully British sense of humor and way with words. For example, he concluded each feast or celebration or any event of the day with: “Well, there you have it, that was your _____, hope you liked it! We’ll do it again next year!”

So, in his spirit, “Well, there you have it, that was your Christmas, I hope you liked it. We’ll do it again next year!”

Advent begins the Liturgical Year, the Christmas Season follows, and now we have begun the season called “Ordinary Time.” Ordinary Time began on the Monday after the Baptism of the Lord (January 13, 2020 this year) as it does each year with a reading of the Gospel of St. Mark 1:14-20.

The passage states the Gospel itself: “This is the time of fulfillment. The Kingdom of God is at hand. Repent, and believe in the Gospel.” The presence of the Kingdom of God is THE Gospel that Jesus preached. When he preached in parables, he preached, “The Kingdom of God is like – a shepherd who left ninety-nine sheep and searched for one that was lost, like a person who found a treasure and bought the whole field, a son who sinned and was forgiven, like a feast that does not end.” Miracles happen in the presence of the Kingdom of God, people pause and scratch their heads: “This is not ordinary. There is nothing ordinary about the Kingdom of God. God’s Kingdom turns the ordinary on its head.”

Jesus called busy fishermen, busy accountants, and a cast of unknown others to follow him. Changing the direction of their lives, they gave up what was ordinary and followed him. They must have had a desire for deep change, with faith their hearts were converted away from the world toward the Kingdom of God. Listening to his teaching, they were disciples. Going out on mission, they became apostles. They came to him to be in a “divine relationship”, they learned from him and went out as missionary disciples often to their own death rather than denying friendship with Jesus.

Reread the Gospel passage; Mark 1:14-20. Meditate on the message of Jesus, the itinerate preacher. Meditate on Jesus’ action of calling disciples. Follow the response of those busy fishermen. Note carefully that the Gospel is a proclamation. The proclamation demands a response. Psst: all proclamations demand a response. The red light – either on the traffic control pole in front of you or on the police car behind you demands a response. “Sale”, “help”, “come home” all demand a response.

Meditate on the Gospel itself; enter into a new or renewed relationship with Jesus. Believe his teaching. Take a leap of faith and put your belief into action with the community of St. Juliana, your family, your work, your social life, and your school. Invite someone else to experience your faith journey.

St. Juliana parish is your primary faith community. Each week you hear and see the many proclamations of our parish and school, which are invitations for you to act. Might I encourage you to consider the invitation of Mr. James Abowd last week to change your life and the life of this parish community by participating in a new way this year? Might I encourage you to consider the invitation of Mr. Adam Ybarra to belong to his Bible Study or activity as a missionary disciple? I encourage you to consider your response to the Sunday collection basket. I encourage you to participate in the monthly twenty-four hours of prayer before the Exposed Blessed Sacrament to pray with Jesus and his community. I encourage you to attend the School Gala on February 8th and meet others in our community. Won’t you give time or talent to the Fall Festival being planned for next Fall? Will you participate in the St. Vincent DePaul or bereavement ministries? Participate in St. Juliana faith formation opportunities and bring someone with you. Life is anything but ordinary when we all come together to participate in the Kingdom of God at St. Juliana Community.

The times they are a changin’. The community is a changin’ when you participate fully. Your life can be a changin’ when your response to the Gospel is “YES” intentional and directed to the Kingdom of God.

Well, there you have it! That’s your invitation to change the ordinary in your life to the extra-ordinary of living the life of the Gospel. Come, follow Jesus with us. Reform your life and believe in the Good News. Bring someone who might not participate otherwise with you. Let’s do it new this year.

CALLED TO BE HOLY

With this Sunday we begin Ordinary Time. The readings tell us about God's relationship with Israel and John the Baptist's relationship with Jesus. Israel's relationship with God is so close, so intimate, that it is through Israel that God's "salvation [will] reach to the ends of the earth" (Isaiah 49:6). But we know from John the Baptist that for Israel to accomplish God's will, it must also recognize that Jesus is the Son of God.

During these weeks we also get to know Jesus. We begin to understand more deeply our relationship to Jesus and what that relationship means for us, who are "called to be holy" (1 Corinthians 1:2).

CHRIST CATHEDRAL MASS FOR THE PROTECTION OF UNBORN CHILDREN

January 22, 2020 at 7:00 p.m.

47th Observance of the

Roe v. Wade Supreme Court decision

In observance of the Supreme Court Decision

Roe v. Wade, that legalized abortion, Bishop Vann invites all the Catholic community to observe the day as a Day of Reparation. Catholics are encouraged to practice fasting, abstinence, and prayer on that day. Bishop Vann also invites our Catholic community as well as all people of good will to join together in prayer for an end to abortion, healing for those involved in abortion, and an increased respect for all human life at the Mass for the Protection of Unborn Children on Wednesday, January 22, 2020.

The Mass will begin at 7:00 p.m. inside our newly dedicated Cathedral (13280 Chapman Avenue, Garden Grove).

A reception and ministry fair will follow in the 1st Floor of the Cultural Center.

Due to overwhelming popularity and high demand, Michelangelo's Sistine Chapel: The Exhibition at the Christ Cathedral Campus has been extended through August 2020!

The immersive showcase features museum quality, near-life-size reproductions of the iconic master's 34 frescos that adorn the Sistine Chapel in the Vatican.

Visitors can see this art in a close to life-size, never-before-seen perspective. It's a perfect experience for those who have never been to Rome and want to see the art work AND for those who have been to the Sistine Chapel and want a closer look and to learn more about each fresco.

This is an excellent opportunity for parishioners to experience both the exhibition and the progress made on Christ Cathedral Campus.

Guests can enhance their experience by adding an optional self-guided audio narrative available in 5 languages.

Exhibit times: All 7 days/week 10 a.m. - 5 p.m.
