VISION & MISSION STATEMENTS

The vision of St. Juliana Falconieri Catholic Community is to live as a people of God with Christ at the center of our lives through liturgy, faith formation and community.

Our mission is to be a welcoming family dedicated to proclaiming the gospel, celebrating the Sacraments, educating, serving,
and providing opportunity for all to enrich their faith.

Order of Friar Servants of Mary United States of America Province

THE PARISH AS ONE BODY

*"If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be?
If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be?
But as it is, God placed the parts, each one of them, in the body as he intended...
The eye cannot say to the hand, 'I do not need you,' nor again the head to the feet, 'I do not need you.'
Indeed, the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are all the more necessary.
Now you are Christ's body, and individually parts of it."* (1 Cor. 12:17-25)

The Seven Essential Elements of Parish Life constantly interrelate, each nurturing and supporting the other with the communal celebration of Sunday Eucharist at the center.

A NOTE FROM FR. MIKE PONTARELLI, O.S.M

We continue the topic of God and a faith crisis. Do you have a relationship with the God of our belief and worship – or is He academic, head knowledge, the truths of the creed, which might have suffered from embarrassing arrested development?

Diana Ross sang that song: “Do You Know” –

Do You Know
Where you're going to?
Do you like the things?
That life is showing you
Where are you going to?
Do you know?

Do you get?
What you're hoping for?
When you look behind you
There's no open doors
What are you hoping for?
Do you know?

There are other songs, even and especially sacred ones to reflect on our journey of life. “Seek The Lord While He May Be Found” and other lyrics. Do you know you are a seeker?

We seek the truth. We seek beauty. We seek justice. We seek security. We seek God. We don't want to be hoaxed, it's happened before. Once bitten we are twice shy. People from Missouri might be right: “Show Me.” Having been taken by multiple false claims, we critically evaluate nearly everything. That's the fear of false facts. We also fear relationships which have let us down in the past.

How will I know I've found the One God I've been searching for? What will I experience?

One answer; JOY. Not happiness, not a good laugh, not comedic relief, but real joy.

Having faith in God does not mean I have to abandon what makes me a human, a rational animal, the search with reason for answers. Mature faith in God means accepting God as a “calculated risk”. Belief is a decision made based on evidence; gathering, sifting, sorting, and logically arranging evidence. Then forming a conclusion based on evidence and putting the conclusion out for critique. Note: this is not a blind leap in the dark. It's a calculated risk.

Okay, all right, but the God question is different. Don't cha know: “it's difficult to believe what I cannot see or fully understand.” Right! And so it is with a lot of life. Point to the justice or love part. Do you understand your own health issues, television broadcasting, economic theory, and jet flight? Faith in God means accepting something as true based on strong evidence, limited understanding, and the word of experts.

Scientists begin with assuming the theory is true or at least worthy of time and thought. The only fair way to test theism, belief in God, is to assume God exists and to seek an answer and understanding. But science can be f-u-n. It's objective, the answers are validated.

God is personal and I'm shy about discussing personal matters. Ah, the existence of God is fundamental to our ultimate value. And here is the value: if God exists then death is a comma. After death, existence continues in another way, we experience the presence and love of God eternally. At the funeral we pray a soul to God. If there is no God then at death, that's it. The funeral is an elaborate ceremony, or not, for taking out, for lack of a better name, land-fill. There is no other way to explain the value. If there is no God, offer no consolation that “he/she is in a better place now.” There is no better or other place. Without God there is no reason to pray for people in life or death.

Do you know where you are going to? What you are searching for? What you are hoping for?

On the Mondays of Lent, I am excited to offer a Lenten Series on the theology and principles of the liturgy from the Covenant leading to the Great Easter Vigil. It will be a team effort; Fr. Will Goldin of St. Irenaeus Parish will join on some Mondays.

For more information, see the description on page 6 of this bulletin. Please bring your family, friends, and enemies. Mondays from 7:00PM-8:30PM. If not this program, kindly take advantage of one of our other faith formation programs.

God bless.

FR. MIKE'S LENTEN STUDY

The nature of worship is the experience of the mystery of God's love for us and our love for God. We encounter Our Father and Jesus in the "mystery of the liturgy" especially the Great Liturgy of the Easter Vigil. On the night before Easter Sunday, the Great Vigil reveals in prayer and symbol the deep faith of the community of Christ.

This Lent, Fr. William Goldin, parochial vicar from St. Irenaeus in Cypress and I (Fr. Mike) will explore our Great Easter Vigil. Fr. Will was ordained for the Diocese of Orange in 2014. His education included UCLA for music, Leuven, Belgium and Rome for theology with a variety of degrees. More importantly, he is an engaging faith-filled speaker.

NOW THROUGH JANUARY 11, 2020

MICHELANGELO'S SISTINE CHAPEL EXHIBITION

IN THE CATHEDRAL CULTURAL CENTER ON THE CAMPUS OF CHRIST CATHEDRAL

LEARN MORE & RESERVE YOUR TICKETS NOW AT SISTINEEXHIBIT.COM

Due to overwhelming popularity and high demand, Michelangelo's Sistine Chapel: The Exhibition at the Christ Cathedral Campus has been extended through August 2020!

The immersive showcase features museum quality, near-life-size reproductions of the iconic master's 34 frescos that adorn the Sistine Chapel in the Vatican.

Visitors can see this art in a close to life-size, never-before-seen perspective. It's a perfect experience for those who have never been to Rome and want to see the art work AND for those who have been to the Sistine Chapel and want a closer look and to learn more about each fresco.

This is an excellent opportunity for parishioners to experience both the exhibition and the progress made on Christ Cathedral Campus.

Guests can enhance their experience by adding an optional self-guided audio narrative available in 5 languages.

Exhibit times: Weekdays (except Monday) 10 a.m. - 5 p.m.
