VISION & MISSION STATEMENTS

The vision of St. Juliana Falconieri Catholic Community is to live as a people of God with Christ at the center of our lives through liturgy, faith formation and community.

Our mission is to be a welcoming family dedicated to proclaiming the gospel, celebrating the Sacraments, educating, serving, and providing opportunity for all to enrich their faith.

THE PARISH AS ONE BODY

*"If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be?
If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be?
But as it is, God placed the parts, each one of them, in the body as he intended...
The eye cannot say to the hand, 'I do not need you,' nor again the head to the feet, 'I do not need you.'
Indeed, the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are all the more necessary.
Now you are Christ's body, and individually parts of it."* (1 Cor. 12:17-25)

The Seven Essential Elements of Parish Life constantly interrelate, each nurturing and supporting the other with the communal celebration of Sunday Eucharist at the center.

A NOTE FROM FR. MIKE PONTARELLI, O.S.M

Without linking the sin and the sinner, good Catholics confess in these or similar words: “I misused God’s holy name.” Sometimes I ask, “When did you use it properly?” “I don’t know what you mean, father.” A discussion begins: “Well, did you recognize an opportunity to evangelize someone or to tell someone who uses the Divine Name as an expletive that you find it offensive? Apart from saying, ‘God bless you’ when someone sneezes when or how do you use God’s name?”

Silence.

Of course silence. Do we know how to speak about God publically outside of church?

I’ve done minimal Google research to find that “In God We Trust” was accepted as our nation’s motto, we stamp it on our coins, we proclaim that our nation is “Under God” when we recite the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag. I believe a strophe of the Battle Hymn of the Republic – perhaps our nation’s best poem/song is loaded with theistic and Christian overtones:

“In the beauty of the lilies Christ was born across the sea

With a glory in His bosom that transfigures you and me:

As He died to make men holy, let us live to make men free

While God is marching on.”

Pretty awesome, don’t you agree? Is it still taught? Can it be? Is it believed? Can it be?

To my delight, I have noticed many courageous young men and women associated with FOCUS and other movements who are proudly Catholic wear crosses outside their shirts. Their outer garments are silkscreened with messages of Catholic Christianity. They speak of theism and Christianity in a full-throated and confident manner. Not being hypocrites, they act as loving Christians. They “Glorify God by the way they live their lives.” Awesome, don’t you agree?

I absolve those who misuse the name of God. I encourage those who are hesitant to speak out.

Back to the original question: “Why wouldn’t a believer speak of God openly, outside of the walls of the church?” Lack of faith? Embarrassment? Not a strong relationship with God? Religion is too private? Stop me when I’m close.

Rise up! Believe in God! Form a relationship with Him. Don’t be hesitant to speak about God.

Now for something completely different: “Woo Hoo! Fantastic! This is terrific. Build that wall! Well, that’s a hit out of the park!” These are the remarks that came back to me after I sent the Parish Finance Council a brief letter I received from the Diocese of Orange:

“Dear Fr. Michael,

It is our pleasure to inform you that your School has been awarded the following Parishes In Collaboration grant for $50,000, which is to be used towards the School Perimeter Fencing project.”

It’s pretty difficult to contain myself, even during Lent. Together with parents of our grammar school, Mr. Gonzales recognized the need for a safety perimeter fence around our school. The design and cost were researched. It became the “Fund A Need” at the Gala. The school community, Mr. Gonzales, and I are most grateful to CLIF for matching the funds raised that night. Now with the additional generous grant from the Diocese, the project will not be a financial burden. When you see Bishop Vann, or any of the three bishops, please thank them. Recall it was a $200,000 gift that began the enhancements to our church building. That’s $250,000 of pure gift. These grants come from the annual collection taken at all parishes. For all good gifts – Thanks be to God.

PLEASE PRAY FOR ALL THOSE WHO HAVE DIED, especially Shirley Wentworth, Maggie Quatannens, Leon J. Nolet and all the names in our Book of Remembrance. May their souls rest in peace. Amen

ST. JOSEPH'S DAY - MAR. 19

Joseph, someone once joked, was indeed the perfect husband: the only major character in Jesus' story who never utters a word! But the Gospel recounts and the liturgy celebrates his silent witness of faith-filled deeds: "With a husband's love he cherished Mary, the Virgin Mother of God; with fatherly care he watched over Jesus" (Preface of Saint Joseph, Sacramentary). Catholic devotion, therefore, hails him as patron-protector of the universal Church. Some cultures set a festive "Saint Joseph's Table," welcoming the poor and strangers to feast with family and friends. Tradition keeps today as the anniversary of his death, which we presume was peaceful, with Jesus and Mary present. Thus, Catholics invoke Joseph as Patron of a Happy Death. Descended from David's house, which God finished "building" through Joseph's provision of a home for Mary and Jesus, he was, fittingly, a carpenter by trade; thus, patron of workers. Spring, nature's rebirth, begins between his feast and Annunciation (March 25), appropriately, since Joseph's silent obedience and Mary's "Let it be done to me according to your word" (Luke 1:38) usher in humanity's spiritual rebirth.

FIRST HOLY COMMUNION - MAR. 21

We welcome the children of our parish to the Lord's Banquet Table as they receive the Sacrament of Eucharist on Saturday, March 21st. Please keep all the communicants in prayer.

Prayer at a Child's First Communion

Lord Jesus Christ,
in the Sacrament of the Eucharist
You left us the outstanding manifestation of your limitless love for us.

Thank You for giving our child the opportunity to experience this love in receiving the Sacrament for the first time. May your Eucharistic presence keep him/her ever free from sin, fortified in faith, pervaded by love for God and neighbor, and fruitful in virtue, that he/she may continue to receive You throughout life and attain final union with You at death.

Amen.

DIOCESAN NEWS - "24 HOURS FOR THE LORD"

For the year 2020, Bishop Vann has agreed to a different approach for "24 Hours for the Lord." As you may recall, "24 Hours for the Lord" is Pope Francis' initiative to share more widely the mercy of God through the Sacrament of Penance and Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament for a 24 hour period between the 3rd and 4th Sundays of Lent. This year in lieu of the event at Christ Cathedral, (in addition to the Penance Services listed above) the Diocese is publishing the dates for all the Penance Services with individual confessions celebrated throughout the Diocese of Orange during Lent. The list of times for individual confessions are also included, as many parishes add extra time during Lent.

Included also are the times when parishes have Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament.

The information is now posted on the RCBO website at:

<https://www.rcbo.org/24-hours-for-the-lord/>

If you have questions you may contact the Office for Worship by calling (714) 282-3040 or by emailing yperez@rcbo.org.

St. Juliana Lenten Parish Mission

The nature of worship is the experience of the mystery of God's love for us and our love for God. We encounter Our Father and Jesus in the "mystery of the liturgy" especially the Great Liturgy of the Easter Vigil. On the night before Easter Sunday the Great Vigil reveals in prayer and symbol the deep faith of the community of Christ.

This Lent Fr. William Goldin, parochial vicar from St. Irenaeus in Cypress and I will explore our Great Easter Vigil. Fr. Will was ordained for the Diocese of Orange in 2014. His education included UCLA for music, Leuven, Belgium and Rome for theology with a variety of degrees. More importantly, he is an engaging faith-filled speaker.

At every Mass, Catholics confess that Jesus came down from heaven “for us men and for our salvation.” But what does “salvation” mean? Theologian Michael Patrick Barber provides a deeply Catholic, and deeply biblical, answer.

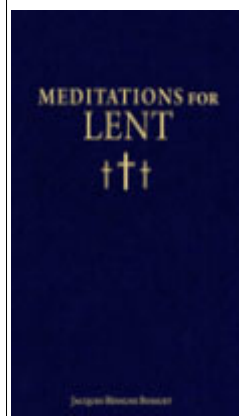

Follow Jesus into the desert and discover intimacy with God during this daily meditation.

how to end our alienation from God and how to embrace the way of happiness.

Bishop Barron covers the topics of finding intimacy in God, prayer as the key to mission, our thirst for God,

These brief but remarkably powerful meditations complement the daily readings at Mass during the Lenten season, thus offering to us the perfect companion for a thoughtful and fruitful Lent.

Our faith. Our future. Our Parish

PASTORAL SERVICES APPEAL

Each year, we come together as a faith community to share the joyful message of our Catholic faith throughout the diocese. This is also a time of unity within our parish, as we seek ways to better serve those in our local community.

Your support is needed –
Donate generously to the 2020 Pastoral Service Appeal (PSA).
