VISION & MISSION STATEMENTS

The vision of St. Juliana Falconieri Catholic Community is to live as a people of God with Christ at the center of our lives through liturgy, faith formation and community.

Our mission is to be a welcoming family dedicated to proclaiming the gospel, celebrating the Sacraments, educating, serving, and providing opportunity for all to enrich their faith.

Order of Friar Servants of Mary United States of America Province

THE PARISH AS ONE BODY

*"If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be?
If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be?
But as it is, God placed the parts, each one of them, in the body as he intended...
The eye cannot say to the hand, 'I do not need you,' nor again the head to the feet, 'I do not need you.'
Indeed, the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are all the more necessary.
Now you are Christ's body, and individually parts of it."* (1 Cor. 12:17-25)

The Seven Essential Elements of Parish Life constantly interrelate, each nurturing and supporting the other with the communal celebration of Sunday Eucharist at the center.

BLESSINGS AND WOES

Today we hear once again of the deep connection between Jesus and Israel’s prophets. In the reading from Jeremiah, God’s curses at the opening are counterbalanced by God’s blessings in the second part. In Luke’s version of the Beatitudes, Jesus begins with blessings, then counterbalances with a “woe” section. The point is clear: the way we live our lives has a direct connection to whether we will experience curses and woes, or blessings instead. Of course, being among God’s blessed ones (in Latin, beati, from which “beatitudes” comes) doesn’t necessarily mean a life free of woe. Jesus, in his fully human nature, knew this. He also knew that when we seek happiness through our own devices, and trust only in ourselves, the woes are guaranteed to come. Let us follow the wisdom of Jeremiah and Jesus, along with the opening of the book of Psalms (echoed by Jeremiah today): “blessed are the ones who trust in the Lord.”

I DON’T KNOW

There are times when the smartest, but most difficult, thing we can say is, “I don’t know.” While we often think of this as a sign of weakness, the amount of humility it takes to say this means that the word of God is alive and well in us. To say “I don’t know” means that we look outside of ourselves to learn, and to find those who do know, and—ultimately—accept that we have to look to others and to God to help us, to guide us through life. To place our trust and hope only in this world, Paul tells the Corinthians (and us!), makes us people to be pitied. Jesus echoes this in the “woes” section of Luke’s Beatitudes, when he points out that trusting in earthly wealth, full bellies, entertainments, and reputation will, eventually, not be enough when we are called beyond this life.

LOOK ’EM IN THE EYE

Prior to delivering the blessings and woes of his “Sermon on the Plain” in Luke, Jesus had been on top of a mountain in prayer, after which he selected the Twelve to go on his mission with him. Coming down from the mountain, the first thing Jesus does is show them what is at the heart of his—and their—mission: preaching to the multitude, healing all who were in need of it, no matter where they had come from. Luke then carefully notes that Jesus raises his eyes, not to look toward heaven again in prayer, but he raises his eyes to look directly at his disciples, to share the message of blessings and woes. This scene echoes Moses coming down from the mountain to give Israel its command as to how they should live in God’s covenant. As followers of Jesus today, we are called to live out his mission to the world, while we also look beyond this world to trust in God, our only hope.

It's that time of year when we start planning for the Fall Festival which will be September 23rd, 24th and 25th. Due to some individuals moving, having moved, or after years of dedication are ready to pass the torch, we need to fill some key spots in order to get the ball rolling. All spots will be trained throughout the year including during this year's Festival. Please keep in mind the expectation is that this is a multi-year commitment. If you are interested, please email Ceylon Lambert at ceylon.lambert@stjulianachurch.org

- Fall Festival Chair: Coordinate overall team for the Festival, develop layout for the event, submit permits with the City and meet with the City Planning Commission to get approval for the event.

- Ride Chair: Work with Ride Vendor on presale ticket effort, conduct site walk with Fire Inspector for all rides and booths.

- Event Facility Chair: Work with Chairs on equipment and power needs. Ensure all booths are delivered and set up as planned, and coordinate all booth power and equipment requirements. Lead teardown effort at the conclusion of the event,

- Game Booth Chair: Inventory and order new prizes for the year. Set up games in the booths and handle prize fulfillment throughout the event.

- Volunteer Chair: Setup the Volunteer site, manage needs appropriately throughout the festival weekend and prepare an updated volunteer sheet daily for the start of each festival day.

"Prudence would dictate that everyone be encouraged to wear masks while inside. With more people testing positive for COVID-19 in these days, it is strongly recommended that - to help prevent the spread of COVID-19 - all who enter this church wear a mask while inside, whether one is fully vaccinated or not. As always, if you are feeling ill, please stay home. There is no sin in missing Mass if you are sick."
