The vision of St. Juliana Falconieri Catholic Community is to live as a people of God with Christ at the center of our lives through liturgy, faith formation and community.

THE PARISH AS ONE BODY

*"If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be?
If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be?
But as it is, God placed the parts, each one of them, in the body as he intended...
The eye cannot say to the hand, 'I do not need you,' nor again the head to the feet, 'I do not need you.'
Indeed, the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are all the more necessary.
Now you are Christ's body, and individually parts of it."* (1 Cor. 12:17-25)

The Seven Essential Elements of Parish Life constantly interrelate, each nurturing and supporting the other with the communal celebration of Sunday Eucharist at the center.

SEVENTH SUNDAY OF Easter

MAY
29
2022

You, O LORD,
are the Most High over all the earth,
exalted far above all gods.

Psalms 97:9

WAITING

This Seventh Sunday of Easter is a time of waiting, just as Jesus at his Ascension had promised the coming of the Spirit, but had asked them to wait patiently. As we wait, we are presented with visions of the future promised by God. In the Gospel, Jesus expresses his deep longing for all of God's beloved to be in unity with God. The passage from Revelation concludes the Bible, envisioning the completion of God's mission to heal and reconcile with us. And in Acts, Stephen's vision of Jesus at God's side points to the centrality of Jesus to make this come about. We continue Jesus' ministry by healing and forgiving as he did; by rejecting violence or seeking power over others; and by enduring suffering when necessary. This time of waiting echoes the hope and anticipation we experience in all of life, as we await the final fulfillment of God's promised future.

GOD'S PROMISES

We hear today from the conclusion of the Bible's final book, in Revelation 22. John of Patmos uses imagery to summarize the messages of his book: that God has been faithful to humanity and to the chosen followers, even when they have not. God acts justly in dealing with us, and also acts graciously in forgiveness. God is trustworthy, promising a future beyond our greatest dreams, and working continuously toward its realization. Jesus is revealed to be at the center of all God's saving work.

Through all the imagery presented in John's visions, the author wants his readers to make a choice. In his environment, he asked for a choice between the idol of the Roman imperial system, or of God revealed in Jesus. In our own time, each culture, always a mix of virtue or of sin, has elements of idolatry that make false promises. When we encounter these idols, do we fully trust God and God's promises? Whom do we serve?

A CONVERSATION

The Gospel passage from John has the tone of overhearing a conversation. Jesus prays with his Father for his small band of followers, and we get to listen in. This prayer concludes his extended reflections at the end of the Last Supper in the Gospel of John. At this critical moment, Jesus shows his deep longing that the community of disciples will live in full unity with each other and with God, and then together embrace the world in loving service.

Perhaps we might prayerfully imagine a similar conversation, of Father, Son, and Spirit, about your own parish community. What might the Trinity consider about your own parish? The conversation might include God's longing that the parish be united, with each other and with God. The Trinitarian conversation might touch on precisely how the Spirit is working toward this unity, and how together with the parish, God is embracing your neighborhood in loving service. What else might they say?

For me, my spiritual role model is Saint Tarcisus. I learned about him while preparing for First Communion. I look at him as a spiritual role model because he took on a big task at such a young age. He would rather die for Jesus than give up the Eucharist. Usually kids like me would hang out with family or friends, but Saint Tarcisus decided to help the priest and deliver the Eucharist to the prisoners who believed in God.

Saint Tarcisus is a role model because it doesn't matter how old you are, but it's what you believe in. He is a true disciple of God. The story of Saint Tarcisus begins when a priest needs to deliver the Eucharist to prisoners who believed in God. The task was too difficult but Saint Tarcisus offered to do the task. While delivering the Eucharist, Saint Tarcisus runs into a lady who asks him who his parents were but he replies that he doesn't have any so the lady invites him into her house.

Saint Tarcisus continues after talking to the lady and runs into a group of boys who wanted him to play with them. He refuses but they wanted to know what was inside his shirt that he was covering but Saint Tarcisus wouldn't let the boys see what he was protecting so they got mad and started to attack Saint Tarcisus. While the boys were attacking Saint Tarcisus, Saint Tarcisus held the Eucharist close to his heart and never let go. People started to notice that he was actually Catholic and that he was carrying the Eucharist so they started to attack Saint Tarcisus as well. A brave soldier stopped all the fighting and went to check Saint Tarcisus who was slowly dying. The same lady who talked to him earlier showed up and asked if that was the boy she was talking to. After the lady cried for a little while, Saint Tarcisus died with a smile on his face. That is why I chose Saint Tarcisus as my spiritual role model. He is an example that such a young child can make a big impact on the world.
