VISION & MISSION STATEMENTS

The vision of St. Juliana Falconieri Catholic Community is to live as a people of God with Christ at the center of our lives through liturgy, faith formation and community.

Our mission is to be a welcoming family dedicated to proclaiming the gospel, celebrating the Sacraments, educating, serving, and providing opportunity for all to enrich their faith.

Order of Friar Servants of Mary United States of America Province

THE PARISH AS ONE BODY

*"If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be?
If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be?
But as it is, God placed the parts, each one of them, in the body as he intended...
The eye cannot say to the hand, 'I do not need you,' nor again the head to the feet, 'I do not need you.'
Indeed, the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are all the more necessary.
Now you are Christ's body, and individually parts of it."* (1 Cor. 12:17-25)

The Seven Essential Elements of Parish Life constantly interrelate, each nurturing and supporting the other with the communal celebration of Sunday Eucharist at the center.

GOD'S ONGOING WORK

In today's Gospel Luke, the author of Acts, links the "time of Pentecost" to the Jewish Feast of Weeks. This was a harvest festival, fifty days after Passover. The feast became a celebration of God's gift of the Torah, the law of Moses, remembering Exodus 19. Luke suggests that just as the Feast of Weeks was a culmination of Passover, the outpouring of the Holy Spirit was a culmination of the Resurrection. In both Passover and Easter, God's extraordinary saving action rescued God's people from oppression and death. Because of these actions, the stage was set for the gift of Torah, and similarly for Christians, the gift of the Spirit. The ongoing presence of the Spirit sustains us to face life's burdens gracefully. The Spirit also challenges us daily to mature in our capacity to love, and to take part in God's ongoing work to rescue all God's people.

WHAT GOD IS UP TO

The Christian community gathered in the Upper Room, awaiting the Holy Spirit, has long stirred the Christian imagination. In our own time, when the Church has a long history of Christian faith but now faces many challenges, we might return to this image. Like the first disciples, we often don't know what to do next. What used to work for us doesn't work as well. We need to stay together, honor diversity, reflect upon the roots of our faith, and remain rooted in prayer.

Yet there is more. Pentecost has happened and is happening. The Spirit has already burst out into the world, already stirring among those who are confused about God. The Book of Acts tells the story of a Church continually pushed out by the Spirit, to join in what God was already up to, out in the world. We too are invited not only to remember our unity and our roots, but to pay acute attention to how the Spirit is working in our local communities.

VARIETY OF GIFTS

In today's second reading, Saint Paul wrote to the Church in Corinth, a community encountering tensions and divisions over spiritual gifts. Paul reminds them that the Spirit shares a variety of gifts; none is better than any other, and all are needed by the whole Church. The Spirit is revealed in the diversity of gifts offered by individuals and by distinct groups. The Spirit desires that the Church live as an interdependent, cohesive whole, as the Body of Christ.

A parish can be a collegial partnership where parishioners, clergy, and ministry staff can confidently share God's gifts. Gifts from persons and groups of diverse backgrounds can be honored. Gifts that tend to be less visible, such as in finance, custodial work, or administration, can be celebrated as much as those in preaching and music. May we notice God's grace in this diversity.

Knights of Columbus Essay Contest winners Anne 6th grade 3 of 5

In this big world, there is love. Love gives us family and friends. Before I came into this world I was loved. When I came into this world I was loved, but I was most of all loved by Jesus. I live Jesus' teaching "To love thy neighbor" by helping others that can't help themselves, by loving others, and by never losing my faith so I can always know that Jesus is with me.

I help others that can't help themselves by helping out with Meals on Wheels, donating clothes to Goodwill, making meals for other families, and helping to run the Christmas toy drive at St. Juliana Church. I love donating my time to help others and sacrificing time when I could be home or with my friends because Jesus made a big sacrifice for us by dying on the cross.

Doing charity also makes me feel good. I feel like I am not just doing something for myself. I have fun doing charity, too. I love when I see smiles on all the people's faces. I think helping others is a big part of my Catholicism because Jesus performed many miracles that helped people get their lives back and I can help people not starve or freeze. Overall, I think that charity and helping others will always be a big part of my life.

I love others by helping take care of my dog and little sister, encouraging my friends and supporting them, and helping out my family whenever they need it. I love to help out because it shows love and I want my family and friends to know how much I love and appreciate them for being in my life. Spending time with my family always makes me happy. I am very thankful for this life. I feel so loved and blessed.

Another way that I live Jesus' teaching is by never losing my faith so I can always know that Jesus is with me. I go to mass every week, I pray before bed and meals, and I always believe in Jesus no matter what. When I pray I feel very happy and I know that God will always forgive my sins. Jesus loves me very very much and I love him too. One example of how my faith gets stronger all the time was this Christmas season as we were sorting toys for the toy drive. A mom and her two little boys showed up to help. They were so cute and really helpful. The littlest boy kept asking where his toys were. I told him this was just for families that registered to get toys. He was so helpful I gave him a toy anyway when he was done helping us. A few days later as we were giving out the toys at the church, the little boys drove up in the car with their mom and handed us the toy registration. They were a family in need but still, they came to help wrap and organize the toys. This mom was such a good example for her boys and it made me so surprised and filled with love and faith to see them there.

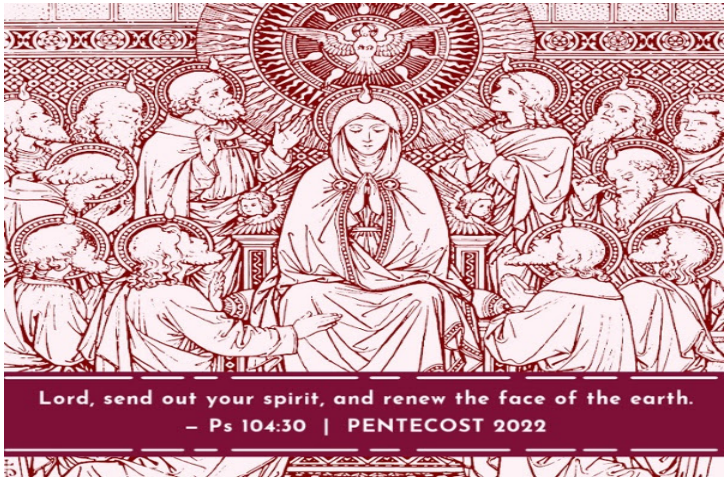

In conclusion, I know that Jesus is always present. Jesus has given me the courage always to believe in Him and live the way He lived by loving my neighbors. I know if I live by loving Jesus and my neighbors then I will do great things in this wonderful life God has given me.
