Twenty-Fourth Sunday
in Ordinary Time

GOD OF SECOND CHANCES

If we were reflecting on all of today's scriptures and wanted to come up with one intimate name for God, perhaps it would be "God of Second Chances." Over and over we see examples of God offering just that. In Exodus, the Lord is frustrated by the behavior of the people, and Moses, speaking very boldly, has to talk God into calming down and recalling the covenant with Abraham and Sarah, Isaac and Israel. Psalm 51, "The Miserere," is the great psalm of repentance and cleansing. Take the time to read and pray with the whole psalm at your leisure. Paul confesses his own blasphemy and arrogance, and how Christ is using it now. In the extensive Gospel from Luke we experience Jesus using parables to tell about the widow and the lost coin, the shepherd and the lost sheep, and the lost son and a loving father's welcome.

TAKE ALL THE LOST HOME

In the seventies there was a popular Folk Mass song by Joe Wise, "Take All the Lost Home." It is like our Gospel reading today. For truly, we've all had moments when we have lost our way and needed others to get us back on track. Perhaps this means reconnecting with someone we once knew and making amends, or seeing a therapist to make things right. Maybe it means finally seeking help to stick with the diet and exercise plan, or joining a 12-step program to deal with an addiction. Could it be time to meet with a financial expert to manage credit card debt, or go to confession or meet with a spiritual director to find your way home spiritually? It is hard to ask for help or admit we are lost. We dread the reactions of others, thinking they will be angry, hurt, or defensive. We feel shame. Sometimes people hold grudges for years because neither they nor another will break down and make the first move. We feel fear. This sets us up for the classic story of the prodigal father, where we see two possible outcomes.

WELCOME HOME

The son returns home and, expecting the worst, confesses his sinfulness. His brother has an angry, self-righteous response, but the Father is full of joy and mercy. Such is the case in all the Gospel parables today. We hear God say, "You are the one who is important." There is another poignant song by Brian Flynn entitled "The Prodigal Father" that presents the perspective of the parent waiting and worrying about their lost child, watching the road and praying for the child's return. And if for some reason your own family will not accept you, you will find that there are many intentional families, friends, and parishes waiting with open arms to welcome you. Or perhaps you can offer the same welcome to another returning soul.

TODAY'S READINGS

Liturgical Ministry Fair

The weekend of September 17&18 we will host a "Liturgical Ministry Fair" after all the Masses as an opportunity for all to come, see and consider joining us in one of our parish liturgical ministries. For those who have faithfully served our community over the past year, thank you for the blessings of your volunteer services that support our masses. For those wondering how to get more involved in our masses, representatives from Readers at Mass, Greeters and Hospitality, Distributors of Holy Communion, Choir, Altar Servers, and those running Livestream broadcasts will be available to share their ministry and invite you to prayerfully consider contributing your talents to our masses.

Fall Festival 2022

It's that time of year when we start planning for the Fall Festival which will be September 23rd, 24th and 25th. Due to some individuals moving, having moved, or after years of dedication are ready to pass the torch, we need to fill some key spots in order to get the ball rolling. All spots will be trained throughout the year including during this year's Festival. Please keep in mind the expectation is that this is a multi-year commitment.

St. Juliana Fall Festival - This is an immediate ask as planning is already underway

Festival Chairs- We are looking for 1 or 2 individuals that will act as the overall point of contact for the Fall Festival. You will be responsible for managing the layout of the event, filing permits and meeting with the city to review the event. Additionally you will conduct planning meetings with the various Captains that oversee various aspects that make the event possible. You will have your hand in every part of the event. Flexibility and ability to work with others a must.

Volunteer Captain - You will be responsible for setting up the Volunteer site and managing changes throughout the Festival weekend. Additionally you will be responsible for providing an updated volunteer list to the Check in table, each day of the event.

Games Captain(s) - This can be for 1 or 2 people. You will be responsible for ordering and inventory of game prizes. You will also be responsible for setting up the booths for the event as well as overall management of them during the weekend.

Skip the lines and buy your pre-sale food and game tickets. $20 per book of 20 tickets. Tickets will be on sale starting September 20th until September 23rd. At the Parish office. Please stop buy and pick up your tickets for food and games. We accept cash, credit and checks.

See you at the 2022 Fall Festival !
