VISION & MISSION STATEMENTS

The vision of St. Juliana Falconieri Catholic Community is to live as a people of God with Christ at the center of our lives through liturgy, faith formation and community.

Our mission is to be a welcoming family dedicated to proclaiming the gospel, celebrating the Sacraments, educating, serving, and providing opportunity for all to enrich their faith.

Order of Friar Servants of Mary United States of America Province

THE PARISH AS ONE BODY

*"If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be?
If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be?
But as it is, God placed the parts, each one of them, in the body as he intended...
The eye cannot say to the hand, 'I do not need you,' nor again the head to the feet, 'I do not need you.'
Indeed, the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are all the more necessary.
Now you are Christ's body, and individually parts of it."* (1 Cor. 12:17-25)

The Seven Essential Elements of Parish Life constantly interrelate, each nurturing and supporting the other with the communal celebration of Sunday Eucharist at the center.

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

It's often said that the Catholic Church lays heavy rules on her members, rules that can almost seem impossible. Mass every Sunday? No lying ever? Sexual purity all the time? I recently said to some non-Catholic friends that more than fifty adults were baptized at my parish at the Easter Vigil. One responded spontaneously with shock, "Why would anyone do that?" In other words, why would someone willingly place themselves in a system with such demanding and rigorous rules?

Of course, no one in the history of religions is more demanding and rigorous than Jesus himself. In the Sermon on the Mount, he says you have to be holier than pharisees or you're out. He says if you call someone a fool, you go to fiery Gehenna. He says you can't even look at a woman with lust or you're guilty of adultery (which was punishable by death). To top it all off, he says you can't even get divorced and re-married. Doesn't he know these are basically impossible demands? What world is he living in?

The new one, actually. He is the new world. Jesus' words aren't meant to condemn. They are meant to signal something new, a restored humanity. Jesus doesn't just give external laws; he gives us his Holy Spirit to internalize the law through love. He wants to fill us with his love. That's what the Church exists to do. Love demands extraordinary things. The "demands" of the Church only make sense because she is filled with Jesus' love. That wildly demanding love is why we are Catholic.

Bereavement Ministry Receptions are returning. However, to do these we need your help. Volunteers assist the caterers by setting up the room in advance, setting up coffee and other drinks, and cleaning up after the reception. These occur during the day Tuesdays through Fridays from 9am-12:30pm. Anyone over 18 is welcome. If you are interested please join the Flocknote group by clicking the button below and you will be contacted by the coordinator.

Thank you for being helping hands to our grieving parish families.

National Marriage Week (February 7-14, 2023) and World Marriage Day (Sunday, February 12, 2023) are opportunities to focus on building a culture of life and love that begins with supporting and promoting marriage and the family.

CELEBRATE NATIONAL MARRIAGE WEEK + LIVE YOUR BEST LIFE IN LOVE.

Are you called to the Joy of Love? Marriage is worth it.

Prayer for Married Couples

Almighty and eternal God,
You blessed the union of married couples
so that they might reflect the union of Christ
with his Church:
look with kindness on them.
Renew their marriage covenant,
increase your love in them,
and strengthen their bond of peace
so that, with their children, they may always rejoice in the gift of your blessing.
We ask this through Christ our Lord.

Amen

Ray and Roberta Montes strengthened their relationship through the Worldwide Marriage Encounter experience. "We realize that to be married is an extraordinary way of life! We have been called by God to this vocation of marriage so that His love can be revealed, our Sacrament is raised above the ordinary. They share their experiences and love for each other as they lead couples in the WWME events. Learn more, find upcoming dates, and apply for an upcoming weekend experience at www.wme.org.
