VISION & MISSION STATEMENTS

The vision of St. Juliana Falconieri Catholic Community is to live as a people of God with Christ at the center of our lives through liturgy, faith formation and community.

Our mission is to be a welcoming family dedicated to proclaiming the gospel, celebrating the Sacraments, educating, serving, and providing opportunity for all to enrich their faith.

Order of Friar Servants of Mary United States of America Province

THE PARISH AS ONE BODY

*"If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be?
If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be?
But as it is, God placed the parts, each one of them, in the body as he intended...
The eye cannot say to the hand, 'I do not need you,' nor again the head to the feet, 'I do not need you.'
Indeed, the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are all the more necessary.
Now you are Christ's body, and individually parts of it."* (1 Cor. 12:17-25)

The Seven Essential Elements of Parish Life constantly interrelate, each nurturing and supporting the other with the communal celebration of Sunday Eucharist at the center.

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

Traditionally, the four writers of the Gospels are symbolized by four creatures that make their way into Church art and architecture: Matthew, an angel; Mark, a lion; Luke, an ox; and John, an eagle. These images can be found in churches across the world, a nod to those who recorded the stories of Jesus for us, thousands of years ago.

Today's Gospel was written by John. There are a few reasons why John is symbolized by an eagle, but my favorite explanation is that his writings soar like an eagle into the sky with their beautiful, poetic language. The prayer we hear today is no different — Jesus invokes God in a long discourse that might seem mystifying at times, the same way that a poem can be perplexing to understand when we are unfamiliar with the pacing or format.

Consider holding onto the shortest sentence in this prayer: "I pray for them."

Jesus prays for us. For me. For you.

Let that sink deep into your being.

Jesus is on your side. He is aware of what you are holding at this moment. He is aware of your pain, your faith, your mission. And He's rooting for you. This prayer was recorded thousands of years ago, far before you were born. Since before you were born, you were held in prayer. With that certainty, we live.

— Father John Muir

Did you know that over 70 million pounds of trash ends up in National and regular parks annually? The teaching of "Love thy neighbor" means to me, to be nice and kind to everyone you see. It means that you should always be kind hearted./ love Jesus' teaching to love thy neighbor by keeping parks clean, volunteering for Fall Festival, and taking care of my grandparents dogs.

One way that I loved thy neighbor was by volunteering for the Fall Festival. Pizza Booth and the Game Booths were the two booths volunteered for. The pizza booth was a fund raiser for sixth grade, so the sixth grade parents and students volunteered for the booth. Our booth sold churros and two different options of pizza. My family volunteered on a Friday, but I also helped on Saturday and Sunday. For the game booth, I volunteered for the coin toss. I picked up the coins if they missed and set up the cups and plates after someone won one.

Volunteering for the game and pizza booth were the two ways that I helped thy neighbor at the Fall Festival.

Another way that I help thy neighbor is by taking care of the dogs at my grandma's house. My grandparents have 6 dogs and it is hard to take care of all of them so I help her. I usually clean up the doo doo because my grandparents have a hard time bending down. They always let me watch tv after so it is good for me to. Sometimes when my grandparents are sleepy or tired, I sometimes take care of them. When the dogs smell bad I wash them and when they are excited, I take them out. Her dogs like to eat at night, so I give them food when they are hungry. By taking care of the dogs,/ loved thy neighbor.

The third way that I love thy neighbor is by throwing trash away. There is a park in my neighborhood where people go on picnics. People in my neighborhood go on picnics, when they do they always leave like water bottles or chip bags. When I go walking with my dog, I pick up the bags and bottles and keep the park clean. Another way that I love thy neighbor is by recycling. We recycle glass bottles and plastics. My family also doesn't use plastic straws and try not to use plastic bags at markets. This is the third way that I love thy neighbor, by keeping the park close to my house clean and by recycling.

Volunteering for the Fall Festival, taking care of my grandparent's dogs, and keeping the parks clean are the three main ways that I live Jesus' teaching of "Love thy neighbor". Jesus' teaching of "love thy neighbor" is the way that people should live. They should be giving to one another. Thomas S Monson once said," Love thy neighbor is more than a divine truth, it is a pattern for perfection."

St. Juliana Fall Festival is approaching !

In preparation for the 2023 St. Juliana Fall Festival we will be holding our first general meeting for all who are part of the festival committee and those who wish to be part of the festival committee. All are welcome on Wednesday June 7th at 6:00PM in the Pariah Center. Hope to see you all there!

Morning of Reflection

I Want to see God
 Rediscover the Joy of Contemplation

June 10th

- 8:30 AM Mass
- 9 AM Refreshments in the courtyard
- 9:30 AM - 12 PM Talk in the Church

Presented by
Dr. Christina Y. Chan, OCDS

We will reflect on the value of being attentive to the presence of God in the ordinary experiences of life. We will discuss how to pray and how to live in a way that is always experiencing reality as a mode of experiencing God's presence. Dr. Chan has lived her vocation as a consecrated single laywoman and a member of the Secular Order of Discalced Carmelites (OCDS). She has served local Catholic parishes in multiple pastoral roles including catechist, youth minister, education facilitator, prison minister, choir, and eucharistic minister.
