VISION & MISSION STATEMENTS

The vision of St. Juliana Falconieri Catholic Community is to live as a people of God with Christ at the center of our lives through liturgy, faith formation and community.

Our mission is to be a welcoming family dedicated to proclaiming the gospel, celebrating the Sacraments, educating, serving, and providing opportunity for all to enrich their faith.

Order of Friar Servants of Mary United States of America Province

THE PARISH AS ONE BODY

*"If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be?
If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be?
But as it is, God placed the parts, each one of them, in the body as he intended...
The eye cannot say to the hand, 'I do not need you,' nor again the head to the feet, 'I do not need you.'
Indeed, the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are all the more necessary.
Now you are Christ's body, and individually parts of it."* (1 Cor. 12:17-25)

The Seven Essential Elements of Parish Life constantly interrelate, each nurturing and supporting the other with the communal celebration of Sunday Eucharist at the center.

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

I hope you'll acknowledge with me a simple fact: it's not normal to have tongues of fire "part and come to rest" on people. It is actually pretty strange. Yet that is precisely what we celebrate in this feast of Pentecost. How can this mean something to us in our daily lives?

Jews had a tradition that heaven is a temple made of bricks of fire. So, through the apostles, the heavenly temple is coming to earth. But this fire looks like tongues, not bricks. That means that heavenly speech will be crucial to building a dwelling place for God on earth among men and women. So, it's no surprise when the apostles begin to speak in a miraculous way that is understood by all language groups. They are speaking of what God has done in and through Jesus: bringing heaven to earth and uniting all peoples to God and to each other.

How often our speech divides: gossip, slander, insults, and so on. How strange and rare it is when people speak in ways that truly unite instead of divide. Imagine how powerful it would be if you and I began to speak at home, at work, and in our community in a way that made people hear heavenly speech. Imagine if you spoke of the mighty deeds of God in a way that everyone could understand. That's precisely what the Holy Spirit descends upon us to do. Ask Him to come as a tongue of fire to you once again, and He will. Then speak!

— Father John Muir

We are plants and the core values are our water; without the core values we aren't able to grow and mature. The three core values; responsibility, prayer, and respect are the most important ones out of all the six core values to me. This is because prayer shows God that we are His faithful followers, respect shows how mature we are and the amount of responsibility we have in our actions will be judged in purgatory. Due to St. Juliana Falconieri, the core values of prayer, responsibility and respect are taught importantly and lovingly.

First off is the core value of prayer, prayer is a very important core value of our life. In fact prayer makes up most of our religion. It also shows God how much we love and respect Him. According to our core value of prayer we should "Understand and strengthen our relationship with God through prayer and scripture." At St. Juliana we pray every single morning and lunch. We also pray at the end of the day and go to mass every Friday as a whole school. At home I try to pray when I wake up, before meals, and before I go to sleep. I also go to mass on Sunday. Prayer seriously shows God we are His faithful and devoted followers. It is the small action that becomes a big part of our lives.

Next is the core value of respect, this core value shows God how much we look up to Him for his past actions and the love he shows us each and every day. Respect is not only just needed in our religion but in our daily lives as well. The core value of respect states "Honor themselves, others, and the environment through words and actions." There is one very important rule that everyone is taught from a young age, it is the golden rule. In my school, St. Juliana, to show respect we obey the school rules, listen to our teachers and classmates, and keep our space neat and clean. When I am at home I show respect by doing what my parents ask of me and complete my chores and homework. Respect indicates how worthy we are of God's love and attention. Showing the tiniest bit of respect to God will strengthen your relationship with Him plenty.

Finally is the core value of responsibility. Responsibility is the biggest constituent of the core values. It is the building block for all of the other core values, without responsibility you would be unable to possess any of the other core values. Responsibility is a big part of our life; depending on how much responsibility we show through our words and actions will be judged in purgatory, and we will either be sent to heaven or hell depending on those actions we chose through our lives. The core value of responsibility claims that we should "Take responsibility for our work, actions, and deeds." The biggest action of responsibility we can commit to is living the core values. While we need responsibility to live the other core values, the other core values also make up what responsibility is. Responsibility represents us; Catholics, and even those who aren't Catholic. The core values make up our daily lives without even realizing it, and it's all thanks to the core value of responsibility.
