The vision of St. Juliana Falconieri Catholic Community is to live as a people of God with Christ at the center of our lives through liturgy, faith formation and community.

Our mission is to be a welcoming family dedicated to proclaiming the gospel, celebrating the Sacraments, educating, serving, and providing opportunity for all to enrich their faith.

THE PARISH AS ONE BODY

*"If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be?
If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be?
But as it is, God placed the parts, each one of them, in the body as he intended...
The eye cannot say to the hand, 'I do not need you,' nor again the head to the feet, 'I do not need you.'
Indeed, the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are all the more necessary.
Now you are Christ's body, and individually parts of it."* (1 Cor. 12:17-25)

The Seven Essential Elements of Parish Life constantly interrelate, each nurturing and supporting the other with the communal celebration of Sunday Eucharist at the center.

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

In my experience, one of the peculiarities of being a man is the somewhat unlikely ability to look into the mirror, no matter how out of shape he may be, and declare with full confidence: "Looking good, buddy!" Ask a man. He'll probably confirm it.

Therein lies a mystery. You might think I refer to man's ability to deceive himself or his propensity toward vainglory. But in this case, I refer to the mystery of a healthy and proper sense of self-love. We human beings (both men and women) have the utterly weird ability to look at ourselves as if we were another. Then we tend to love this "other." Then, somehow, that love becomes a bond between the two. We are three and yet one.

This Sunday is Trinity Sunday. We ponder anew that God in His unity is a play of multiplicity: Lover, Beloved, and shared Love. Or, as we also proclaim, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. If we allow it, this mystery heals our temptation toward self-hatred and destruction. We all know how awful it is to look into the mirror and not know the person we see, or, equally bad, to know and hate who we see. Jesus, the Son of God, draws us into the dynamics of authentic self-knowledge and self-love. Perhaps we could ask the Holy Trinity this Sunday to teach us to truly look at ourselves and to properly love who we see looking back.

— Father John Muir

Keeping Jesus in Christmas is like keeping the sunlight in the day. Without it, the day is cloudy and dull, as is Christmas without Christ. The Christmas season is not about gifts and colorful lights, but of celebrating the birth of our savior, and spending time with your family. Christmas time is about giving your love, hope and time to other people during the holidays at school, home, and in your community.

To begin with, Christ is always kept as the main focus during the Christmas season at St. Juliana Falconieri. Every year we put on a recreation of Jesus's birth. This means that we can experience a broad understanding of what the real Nativity scene was like. Another way we can connect with Jesus is going to mass and doing Penance service. This is a way to really be present with Him and experience the prayer while truly being with Jesus. Penance service is a way you can ask Jesus for forgiveness and in turn find a strong bond between Him and yourself. Charity is an amazing way to give during the Christmas season. This shows your ability to sacrifice, and give back as Jesus gave back to us. Ways that we do that is donating food, clothes, and toys to non-profits like Mary's path and St. Vincent De Paul. Keeping Christ in Christmas is a primary focus of life at school during the holidays.

Next, keeping Christmas's focus on Jesus also appears when I'm at home and with my family. One way we do that is setting up a nativity scene every year. We set up a nativity scene and it really helps our family connect as well as connect with Jesus. Another way is lighting an advent wreath everyday counting down the time until Jesus's birth. This really shows how to connect the simplest things like food and dinner and use it as a time to put Jesus as the center. Going to mass on Christmas Eve is a reoccurring tradition in my family. It is also an amazing way to connect with Jesus. Jesus is also the center of many events at my home.

Lastly, giving back to your community is an amazing way to hold Jesus close during Christmas. The first way we give back is by donating our clothes and old items we don't wear anymore to places like Goodwill or Salvation Army. This helps the community because there are a lot of people who can benefit from those clothes. Since they don't fit you anymore, what purpose do they serve sitting in your closet doing nothing? Another way you can contribute is by donating to different charities like Mary's Path for single mothers. Many mothers do not have the much needed supplies for their children and this charity is an amazing way to help with that. The last way is by donating to a toy drive. Many children hope they can receive gifts during Christmas and we can help with that. There are so many places that have toy drives at the cash register during the holidays and it is such an easy way to give back. Giving back to your community is an amazing way to connect with Jesus during Christmas.

Keeping Christ in Christmas is not just about church, but also at school, home, and your community. Keeping Jesus in our lives at school consists of Advent program, mass, and charities. Going home, I always light my advent wreath and use prayer to connect with Christ. And in my community I can give back through charities and donations. Keeping Christ in Christmas and Jesus as the focus can be achieved in so many different ways during the holiday season.

Rev. Terry Hershey
6:00pm Friday, July 21 to 1:30pm Sunday, July 23, 2023
 Join Terry Hershey as you explore ways to rehydrate when you are worn thin, tired or sad. Learn to celebrate the sacrament of the present moment and rehydrate when you are dispirited by the business or messiness of everyday life. Find a place for a sanctuary in your life, making room for passion, grace, play, laughter and wholeheartedness that positively can spill into our relationships and work or ministry. Practice self-care with attention and mindfulness. Terry shows us how to refuel the heart and spirit and stay hydrated emotionally and spiritually. Terry is a renowned author, humorist, inspirational speaker, dad, ordained Episcopal minister, golf addict, and smitten by French wine. He divides his time between designing sanctuary gardens and sharing his practice of pausing and sanctuary, to help others rest, renew, and live wholehearted. He returns here for what has become a welcome and well-attended annual visit. Terry's book, This is the Life, offers the invitation and permission to savor this life, to taste the present moment. The title of his latest book, Stand Still - Finding Balance When the World Turns Upside Down, is self-explanatory. Most days, you can find Terry out in his garden in Port Ludlow on the Puget Sound, because he believes there is something fundamentally spiritual about dirt under your fingernails.
