10TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

He said to them in reply, "Who are my mother and my brothers?"
And looking around at those seated in the circle he said, "Here are my mother and my brothers. For whoever does the will of God is my brother and sister and mother." - Mk 3:33-35

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

VISION & MISSION STATEMENTS

The vision of St. Juliana Falconieri Catholic Community is to live as a people of God with Christ at the center of our lives through liturgy, faith formation and community.

Our mission is to be a welcoming family dedicated to proclaiming the gospel, celebrating the Sacraments, educating, serving,
and providing opportunity for all to enrich their faith.

Order of Friar Servants of Mary United States of America Province

THE PARISH AS ONE BODY

*"If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be?
If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be?
But as it is, God placed the parts, each one of them, in the body as he intended...
The eye cannot say to the hand, 'I do not need you,' nor again the head to the feet, 'I do not need you.'
Indeed, the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are all the more necessary.
Now you are Christ's body, and individually parts of it."* (1 Cor. 12:17-25)

The Seven Essential Elements of Parish Life constantly interrelate, each nurturing and supporting the other with the communal celebration of Sunday Eucharist at the center.

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

Jesus asks us a stunning question this week: “How can Satan cast out Satan?” To enter into this question opens up the often-hidden dynamics of what Jesus has done and is constantly doing. If we’re honest, our response to some degree is: “How else can we cast him out? Satan is precisely how we cast out Satan!” But Jesus wants us to see this finally does not work. Here’s what I mean.

Satanas names the demonic mechanism by which we render wholeness through accusation. When we face a threat, we seek something to protect us (e.g., more money, social status, security, power, etc.). Rivals inevitably arise for these things and so do tensions. Accusation presents itself. “I’ll never be successful unless I get ahead of that guy.” “She’s already trying to get ahead of me.” “That group of immigrants is trying to take our jobs.” And so on. The accusation grows into a fear-inducing threat — things will break apart — no, they already are! Hurry! We inflict violence on the victim and — as if by magic — peace ensues. For a time. Soon fresh accusations are required to hold new chaos at bay, until there is no community left at all. This is essentially humankind’s sad history in a nutshell.

Jesus’ cross and resurrection unmasks this broken system of “casting out Satan by Satan” and ushers in a new one he calls “the Kingdom of God.” He reveals that the dynamic of accusation is nothing compared to his power of divine mercy and love. The cross (and not Satan) is the real power to tear down strongholds of sin and cast out Satan. This is why he describes himself as the “stronger man who ties up the strong man to plunder his house.” This week let’s notice the ways we “cast out Satan by Satan,” and then refuse to do it anymore. Because in the long run, that divided house cannot stand.

— Father John Muir

What qualities do you think a spiritual role model should have? I think a spiritual role model should be compassionate, dedicated and a teacher. A compassionate person is a person who has a lot of love and care for others. A dedicated person is someone who fully believes in the faith and follows its rules. A teacher is somebody who explains what it means to believe in God and Jesus and Mary. I have many spiritual role models in my life, but I would like to talk about three.

The first spiritual role model in my life is Father Mike. He is compassionate, dedicated and a teacher. He is the priest at St. Juliana Church. He is the best priest ever. He is definitely my favorite. I have been going to St. Juliana Church since I was born. Father Mike has always been there. He is very dedicated. He is also very compassionate. He always says that the church would be very boring if the kids weren't there. After the gospel readings Father Mike walks down the aisle and smiles and laughs, so we can tell how much he likes and cares about us. Father Mike also teaches us many things. He helps us understand the Gospel by giving lots of examples and telling us how it matters in our lives. That's how you know that Father Mike is a dedicated, compassionate, and spiritual role model.

The next spiritual role model in my life is my mom. She taught me to be kind and loving. Every night we do prayers. My mom said that whenever they would start saying prayers I would start kicking in her stomach. I knew the prayers before I was born. My mom also takes me to mass. She always helps out at church, like me and my mom always do St. Vincent De Paul every year. She was the one who encouraged me to do it. She also does the readings at mass. She was the one that encouraged me to do altar serving. She always helps me study for my religion tests and my homework. She is very dedicated, compassionate and a great teacher.

My last spiritual role model in my life is my dad. He goes to mass every Sunday at 9:00. He has gone to mass his whole life. He also said that praying is the most important thing. He prays throughout the day. He has little books that he brings to Mass, and he follows all the prayers and stuff as he reads them in his book. He also tries to live by the Ten Commandments. He definitely shows that he is a dedicated person.

In conclusion all of them definitely are compassionate, dedicated and teachers. Father Mike, my Mom, and my Dad are my spiritual role models.
