THE PARISH AS ONE BODY

*"If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be?
If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be?
But as it is, God placed the parts, each one of them, in the body as he intended...
The eye cannot say to the hand, 'I do not need you,' nor again the head to the feet, 'I do not need you.'
Indeed, the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are all the more necessary.
Now you are Christ's body, and individually parts of it."* (1 Cor. 12:17-25)

The Seven Essential Elements of Parish Life constantly interrelate, each nurturing and supporting the other with the communal celebration of Sunday Eucharist at the center.

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

Have you ever wondered why the magi had gold, frankincense, and myrrh? Matthew's Gospel tells us, "Then they opened their treasures and offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh" (Matt. 2:11). Why are these things their "treasures"? One possible answer is they were magicians and astrologers, and these three items were the tools of their questionable trade. In offering them to Christ, they demonstrate that they will cease using such items to predict or control life. They place this baby-king, the God of Israel, at the center of their lives, and not their own devices of control, manipulation and prediction.

Isn't that what we need to do, too? Consider, for example, the magical power of money, symbolized by the magi's gold. Seemingly whatever we ask of money, it does. It wields a god-like power over the world. It can predict the future by guaranteeing better outcomes for us — which is why it is such a tempting alternative to trusting in God. The problem is such absolute trust in money enslaves us to the economic forces that make money so powerful. In paying homage to Jesus with "gold" (i.e., tithing), we participate in his authority over (and therefore freedom from) the magical sway of money.

What things in your life do you use to predict or control your future? What in your life seems to give you power over the world? Those are your treasures. Are you tired of feeling enslaved to them? Find a way to open them and give them to Christ, and you will be freer.

— Father John Muir

OLLV FOUNDATION PILGRIMAGE TO VIETNAM: FAITH IN ACTION

The OLLV Foundation recently joined with Father Bill Cao and the St. Anthony Claret Parish on a pilgrimage to Vietnam, which included a visit to the original shrine of Our Lady of La Vang and concluded with a Mass honoring the Vietnamese martyrs in Northern Vietnam. With the leadership of Brother Rufino Zaragoza, OFM, who currently resides in Vietnam, many historic sites were visited, making the trip a success for many as it marked their first visit to Vietnam and Asia.

Joining the pilgrimage were dedicated committee members, the Marian Gardens architect and his wife, and Father Chris Pham.

As a nonprofit rooted in faith, the OLLV Foundation is committed to inspiring devotion, preserving Catholic traditions, and strengthening diverse communities. Through cultural preservation, education, and charitable outreach, we strive to bring people closer to Christ through Mary.

The foundation continues its fundraising efforts to support community projects and spiritual initiatives, making a meaningful impact through faith
