VISION & MISSION STATEMENTS

The vision of St. Juliana Falconieri Catholic Community is to live as a people of God with Christ at the center of our lives through liturgy, faith formation and community.

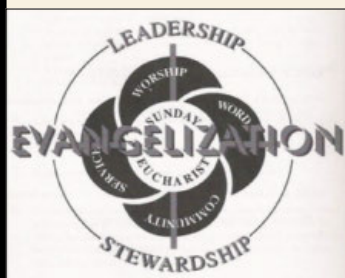

Our mission is to be a welcoming family dedicated to proclaiming the gospel, celebrating the Sacraments, educating, serving, and providing opportunity for all to enrich their faith.

Order of Friar Servants of Mary United States of America Province

THE PARISH AS ONE BODY

*"If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be?
If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be?
But as it is, God placed the parts, each one of them, in the body as he intended...
The eye cannot say to the hand, 'I do not need you,' nor again the head to the feet, 'I do not need you.'
Indeed, the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are all the more necessary.
Now you are Christ's body, and individually parts of it."*

(1 Cor. 12:17-25)

The Seven Essential Elements of Parish Life constantly interrelate, each nurturing and supporting the other with the communal celebration of Sunday Eucharist at the center.

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

Thomas needed proof to believe the amazing things that had happened. God, in His mercy, gave him that proof — but it was up to Thomas to accept it. Do we accept the proof we see of God's love every day?

Devotions, Explained!

The rite of sprinkling, also called the Asperges rite, recalls the new life we receive in the waters of our baptism. Though most common during the Easter season, this rite can take place on any Sunday and is used in place of the penitential act.

Prayer of Divine Mercy

O Blood and Water that redeems and saves, have mercy on us!
O Blood and Water that heals and restores, have mercy on us!
O Blood and Water that strengthens and renews, have mercy on us!
Amen.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

With heavy yet prayerful hearts, we mourn the passing of our beloved Holy Father, Pope Francis. In this moment of great loss, we give thanks for the life of a shepherd who embodied the Gospel with humility, mercy and an unwavering faith in God's boundless love.

From the very beginning of his papacy, Pope Francis called us to embrace the Lord's command to evangelize, urging us in Evangelii Gaudium (The Joy of the Gospel) to go forth boldly, reaching out to all people and proclaiming the Good News with renewed fervor. His witness has profoundly shaped our own mission as a diocese, inspiring us to be a Church that is not turned in on itself but one that goes out, serving the poor, welcoming the lost and walking alongside all who seek Christ.

As we grieve, let us also find hope in the promise of the Resurrection and in the enduring impact of Pope Francis' ministry. May his call to missionary discipleship continue to guide our diocese as we seek to live out the Gospel in both word and action. United in prayer, let us commend him to the infinite mercy of our loving Father, trusting that the light of Christ now shines upon him in eternal glory.

Reflecting on Pope Francis' legacy, Bishop Vann shared: "As I reflect on the 'journey to the house of the Father' of our Holy Father, Pope Francis, several thoughts come to mind. Like Pope Saint John Paul II, he was called to Eternal Life during the Octave of Easter—the Resurrection of the Lord. His most recent Encyclical on the Sacred Heart of Jesus, Corde Amoris (Dilexit Nos), is especially appropriate to read and reflect on at this time. And throughout his papacy, his faithful witness as a Shepherd—especially in the face of physical struggles—remained a powerful example to us all."

May the soul of Pope Francis, our faithful shepherd, rest in peace and may the Church he so deeply loved continue to bear witness to the joy of the Gospel.

In Christ's peace,

Bishop Kevin W. Vann
Auxiliary Bishop Timothy E. Freyer
Auxiliary Bishop Thanh Thai Nguyen
