VISION & MISSION STATEMENTS

The vision of St. Juliana Falconieri Catholic Community is to live as a people of God with Christ at the center of our lives through liturgy, faith formation and community.

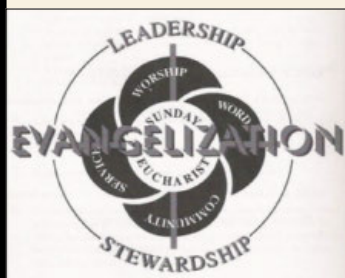

Our mission is to be a welcoming family dedicated to proclaiming the gospel, celebrating the Sacraments, educating, serving, and providing opportunity for all to enrich their faith.

Order of Friar Servants of Mary United States of America Province

THE PARISH AS ONE BODY

*"If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be?
If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be?
But as it is, God placed the parts, each one of them, in the body as he intended...
The eye cannot say to the hand, 'I do not need you,' nor again the head to the feet, 'I do not need you.'
Indeed, the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are all the more necessary.
Now you are Christ's body, and individually parts of it."*

(1 Cor. 12:17-25)

The Seven Essential Elements of Parish Life constantly interrelate, each nurturing and supporting the other with the communal celebration of Sunday Eucharist at the center.

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

Thomas needed proof to believe the amazing things that had happened. God, in His mercy, gave him that proof — but it was up to Thomas to accept it. Do we accept the proof we see of God's love every day?

Observances for the week of May 25, 2025

- Sunday: 6th Sunday of Easter
Monday: St. Philip Neri, Priest; Memorial Day
Tuesday: St. Augustine of Canterbury, Bishop
Thursday: The Ascension of the Lord (holy day of obligation in some U.S. dioceses);

Next Sunday: The Ascension of the Lord;

Devotions, Explained!

Our Lady of Perpetual Help is both a title of the Blessed Mother as well as a corresponding icon that dates to the late Middle Ages, both of which present Mary as a source of strength and comfort for Christ and his followers.

Prayer for Peace

Fill us with Your peace, Lord, as you promised in Your word.
Peace in our comings and goings,
Peace that You are working and moving,
Peace for what has happened, the places we find ourselves today,
and in the future to come.
Amen.

Knights of Columbus Catholic Citizenship Essay Contest 4th grade winner Noella C.

I share my time, talents, and treasures In a lot of places. Here are a few examples of how I do it.

First, I can share my time with my family and community. I can share my time with my family by helping them out When I have spare time. For example, when my brother calls for help from me, I can help him by counting on his workout or helping him make breakfast for our mom. I can even help him do some homework if she doesn't understand, but most of the time I can't understand either. I can also help my mom by helping her make cookies for a bake sale or help her fold laundry. I can also share my time in my school community. One example is my buddy. If she needs help with reading or writing or doesn't understand something, I can help her.

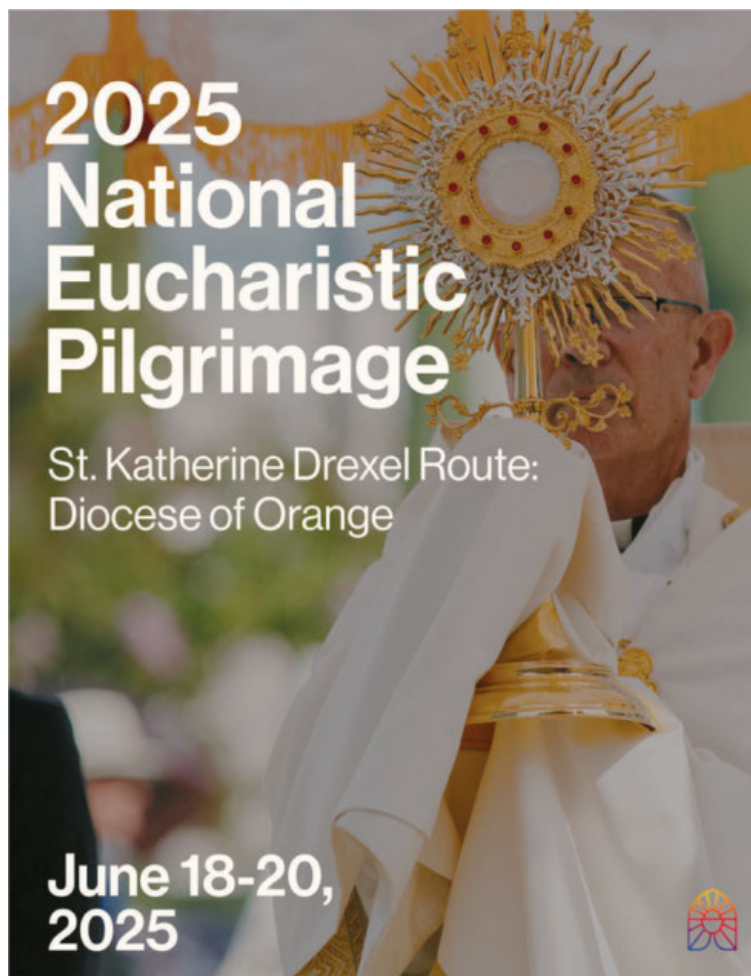

Next, I can share my talents for greater goods, too. One of my talents is drawing, and I kind of like to teach, so sometimes at recess at school, I bring some pencils and paper to teach others how to draw in my art style. Another one of my talents is intelligence, so when my class is doing math or language arts and one of the people around me doesn't understand the subject, I can help them by explaining it to them or walking them through it. Those were some ways I could share my talents at school, but here are some ways I can share my talents with my family. As I said, one of my talents is intelligence, so when my mom or brother is confused about something, I can explain as much as I know to them, and I can really use my talents for my grandma. She has eyesight problems, so whenever she can't read a small text, I can help her out by reading it to her and explaining it to her in Korean, because her English is sort of bad.

Finally, I can share my treasures with my family in many ways. First, whenever my brother or mom needs something that I have, I will let them borrow it. Another way I can share my treasures in my community by doing food drives and donating food and toys and clothes to others in need. In my church community, every December we all get unused toys and clothes and wrap boxes to put the presents in them. Then we all drove down to the donation center where we drop off the packages and then we usually go somewhere, like the movies or a mall. Every year when I do this, I feel like a better person each time. Every year. When we're done with the present, before we carry them all to the car, we take a photo next to the presents and we all have a great time helping others in need. As you can see, I can share my time, talents, and treasures with my family and my church community, and it makes me feel like a better person and boosts my idea to help people all around the world.
