VISION & MISSION STATEMENTS

The vision of St. Juliana Falconieri Catholic Community is to live as a people of God with Christ at the center of our lives through liturgy, faith formation and community.

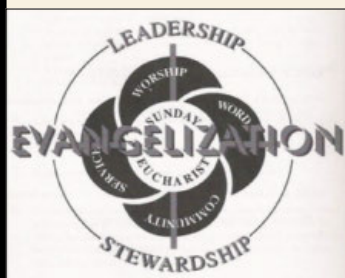

Our mission is to be a welcoming family dedicated to proclaiming the gospel, celebrating the Sacraments, educating, serving, and providing opportunity for all to enrich their faith.

Order of Friar Servants of Mary United States of America Province

THE PARISH AS ONE BODY

*"If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be?
If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be?
But as it is, God placed the parts, each one of them, in the body as he intended...
The eye cannot say to the hand, 'I do not need you,' nor again the head to the feet, 'I do not need you.'
Indeed, the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are all the more necessary.
Now you are Christ's body, and individually parts of it."*

(1 Cor. 12:17-25)

The Seven Essential Elements of Parish Life constantly interrelate, each nurturing and supporting the other with the communal celebration of Sunday Eucharist at the center.

Sunday's Readings

First Reading:

"When the Lord established the heavens I was there,
when he marked out the vault over the face of the deep;
when he made firm the skies above,
when he fixed fast the foundations of the earth; (Prv 8:27)

Psalm:

O Lord, our God, how wonderful your name in all the earth!
(Ps 8)

Therefore, since we have been justified by faith,
we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ.

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

Jesus knew how it would be. He knew we would stumble in the dark, grasping for answers. And so he sent us a light: the Holy Spirit, the illumination of all that is true. Dare we look into the light? Are we ready to see the truth?

Devotions, Explained!

Popularized in the 17th century by a French priest named Fr. Claude Bernard, the Memorare is a prayer to the Blessed Mother in which the supplicant calls upon the maternal love and protection of Mary's intercession in an hour of dire need.

Prayer of Christian Love

Glory be to God the Father,
God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit, who calls us
into communion with Him,
a life of grace and mystery,
reconciliation and unity.
Amen.

“YOU WERE MADE FOR GREATNESS”

~Pope Benedict XVI

Knights of Columbus Catholic Citizenship Essay Contest 7th grade winner Naomi D.

Your personal values are like the roots of a tree. Your personal values can be greatly influenced by your Catholic education like how water helps plants thrive. My education at St. Juliana has taught me so much about moral values through core values. These core values are such an important part of how you carry yourself throughout your life. My Catholic education has greatly influenced my personal values by guiding me through prayer, service, and responsibility.

To start, I embody the core value of prayer in my everyday life. I offer myself and my time to the Lord at dawn and dusk daily. My time in prayer offers a fresh start to my day and is a time to give thanks in the evening. Friday Mass is also a contribution to my time with God, My catholic education is the reason I get this amazing opportunity to enjoy dedicated time with the Lord every Friday. Last, I express my knowledge of prayer through religion projects. They have helped me grow through faith and understand it. This is how the core values have helped me carry myself through prayer.

In addition, the core value of service has inspired me to offer more time and service to our community. My family and I have done our part to lift up those who are going through hardships because of the LA fires. We have donated food, books, and clothes to help our community. One service project that has a special place in my heart is Dribble for Victory Over Cancer. Since I was little I have participated in this nonprofit that raises money for cancer and spreads awareness. The last way I live by the core value of service is through contributing to St. Juliana food drives. This offers an opportunity for me to help our St. Juliana community. These acts of service are another way my moral values have been impacted by my education.

To end, I incorporate responsibility in my life inside and outside of school. Volleyball is the first way I show this responsibility I approach practices on time, prepared, and excited for the opportunity to play with my team. Next, I always take my time to prepare myself for the next day to come. I make use of my agenda to stay on top of assignments and stay organized. Last, I demonstrate responsibility by offering help to my parents through chores, I try my best to help however, I can around the house. These are a few examples of how I prove myself responsible in and out of school.

These are examples of faith, leadership, and responsibility are ways my Catholic education has helped me thrive. During my time at St. Juliana, my core value of prayer has been strengthened through daily prayer, Friday mass, and religion projects, Acts of service are also something that has impacted my life. Lastly, I have proved myself responsible through sports and school. These ways your education can positively impact your life.
