The vision of St. Juliana Falconieri Catholic Community is to live as a people of God with Christ at the center of our lives through liturgy, faith formation and community.

THE PARISH AS ONE BODY

*"If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be?
If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be?
But as it is, God placed the parts, each one of them, in the body as he intended...
The eye cannot say to the hand, 'I do not need you,' nor again the head to the feet, 'I do not need you.'
Indeed, the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are all the more necessary.
Now you are Christ's body, and individually parts of it."* (1 Cor. 12:17-25)

The Seven Essential Elements of Parish Life constantly interrelate, each nurturing and supporting the other with the communal celebration of Sunday Eucharist at the center.

Sunday's Readings

First Reading:

"Sing to the LORD,
praise the LORD,
for he has rescued the life of the poor
from the power of the wicked!" (Jer 20:13)

Psalm:

Lord, in your great love, answer me. (Ps 69)

Second Reading:

But the gift is not like the transgression.
For if by the transgression of the one the many died,
how much more did the grace of God and the gracious gift of the one man Jesus Christ
overflow for the many. (Rom 5:15)

Gospel:

"What I say to you in the darkness, speak in the light;
what you hear whispered, proclaim on the housetops."
(Mt 10:27)

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

"What I say to you in the darkness, speak in the light." We all hear God's voice whispering in our hearts. Discipleship means speaking those words out loud. We all feel the Spirit sing into our souls. Discipleship means that we dance to the tune.

Virtues, Explained!

In being affable, we make ourselves friendly, approachable, and agreeable to those around us, regardless of how they make us feel. "How good and how pleasant it is when brothers dwell together as one," writes King David in Psalm 133.

Blessing for Juneteenth

Dear Lord,
Pour Your goodness and grace upon our brothers and sisters. Even as we celebrate our triumphs, be with us in today's work that strives to bring justice to the oppressed and liberty to captives. Write Your message of freedom in our hearts, so that we might live more deeply healed. Amen.

Knights of Columbus Catholic Citizen Essay Contest

7th grade Winner

Brilliant author, Jane Austen, once wrote, "It isn't what we say or think that defines us, but what we do." Austen highlights that our thoughts and words are not as important as our actions. How a person acts clarifies the ways one hopes to leave a mark on others. One aspect of my knowledge has taught me to inspire others to do the same. Catholic Education is important to my life and teaches me to follow the values I have learned. With nine years as a Falcon, I have grown to become a responsible and faithful person.

First of all, my value of responsibility guides my footsteps in the right direction. When the leather of my backpack hit my kitchen table bench I knew it was time to start and finish my homework. A motivational aspect of finishing my homework is having all of the peaceful colors. One of my treasured school materials in my planner, it has everything I need in a small little notebook. As I diligently check off every box, it makes my heart so joyful knowing I have everything off my shoulders. When I finish, I know that my homework is done, it makes me feel accomplished and now I get to relax and socialize with my favorites. Punctuality also shaped me into being responsible. When I have something to do I am on the dot, never missing a beat. I love basketball and I have multiple tournaments monthly, and whenever I am a starter or not I will always be on time. These things have raised me to choose the right path and create good virtues of finishing my homework, making sure everything's done before hanging out with peers, and being punctual.

In addition, I am thoroughly passionate about strengthening my faith. As I wake up on a bright weekend morning, I walk to my grey couch and begin my bible study. When I am reading the gospels or psalms or the book of Peter, I am getting closer to God. On Sunday morning or afternoon, I enter mass praying for my worths, joys, and sufferings of my day or night. Sometimes school is rough and I just need to pour my thoughts and feelings out to someone who will listen no matter what. When I am having a hard time throughout the day, my solution will be offering my thoughts to God because he will never stop listening. These ways of doing my bible study, having the opportunity to go to Mass, and knowing God is always there will be strengthening my faith in many ways.

To conclude, as I continuously flourish in responsibility and faith, I will always have my Catholic Education to thank for that. My responsibility has encouraged me to better understand the tasks I have to manage. Faith is not just a word, it is something you have to practice throughout your life. As I get older I realize that it is not all fun and games all the time.

-Throughout the years I have been alive, practicing my faith has shown responsibility through my Catholic Education.
